Three home games will kick-off Presbyterian's 1966 basketball action, with College of Charleston, Erskine and Lenoir Rhyne invading PC's LeRoy Springs Gymnasium to meet the struggling Blue Hose.

The Maroons from Charleston furnish the initial battle of the new year on Wednesday night Jan. 5. Erskine's Flying Fleet visits Clinton on Saturday, then the Bears of Lenoir Rhyne come to town for a Carolinas Conference game the following Monday. All three games will begin at 8 p.m.

And even though the Hosemen have lost their only two home engagements thus far, the young Presbyterians have high hopes for better sailing during the second semester than the rough treatment they suffered before the holiday break. They carry a 1-7 record into the new-year wars.

Ken Martin, guard from Wayland, Ky., and Chester guard-forward Jimmy Bankhead are expected to carry most of the scoring load for the Hose, with 14.5 and 14.0 averages respectively. Senior Doug Allen, 6-6 center from Myrtle Beach will shoulder the bulk of the rebounding duties — he has pulled down 62 in 8 games.
