a wrought iron candelabra with twelve tapers, held appetizers, and hors d'oeuvres which were served with punch and coffee.

Records and group singing were enjoyed by the guests.

A number of close friends and invited guests including Mr. White's mother, Mrs. Vera White and the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Spillers called during the evening.

Powells Entertained While Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steven Powell of San Diego, Calif., were complimented with a reception Monday evening at the Hotel Mary Musgrove by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Powell. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Powell's first visit here since their marriage Sept. 4, at the St. Elizabeth Episcopal Church in San Diego. The recent bride is the former Miss Patsy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Corning N. Y. and San Diego.

Receiving guests with the honored couple and Mr. and Mrs. Powell were Robert D. Powell and Miss Carolyn Bundrick.

The hotel lobby was decorated in a Christmas theme of red, gold, and green. Gracing individual tables were arrangements of magnolia blooms, gold Christmas balls, glittered leaves, gold nuts, and candles. To one side of the room an arrangement of red velvet roses with white and gold leaves was most effective. On the other side of the room, a gold fantasy Christmas tree was used. Leading the way into the ballroom were decorated columns of magnolia leaves centered with two gold bells and red velvet bows. Gold Christmas wreaths graced each of the entrance doors.

The elegantly decorated ballroom where punch, coffee, and party dainties were served carried the gold and white color notes. The coffee table was arranged to the back of the room. A white embroidered cut-work cloth was used with a single silver candle holder with white taper and miniature bouquet graced one end of the table with the silver service at the other.

The punch table decorated was covered with white satin overlaid with an organdy skirt. Two silver punch bowls were used at each side centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli, and boxwood, tipped with gold glitter in a Swedish six-branched candelabra.

The refreshment table from which party dainties were served was placed to the front of the room before a background of palms. A dotted-swiss skirt was used over white satin with a mint green swag to each of the sides caught at intervals with miniature bouquets of chrysanthemums, boxwood, and white satin bows. A tall arrange-

PRESTIGE CANNOT BE BOUGHT

Yet, it is easily earned. That is, if you set building a good reputation above all else. We've found it well worth the effort. And folks really appreciate it. They send their friends to say make selling easier and infinitely more pleasant. We enjoy selling quality. You'll enjoy buying it.
