

Awarded Joanna Service Pins

T. M. Boyce (left) and J. E. Holsonback receive congratulations from General Superintendent E. W. Roberts, Jr., on completion of 35 years of continuous service at the Joanna Plant of Greenwood Mills. Other employees receiving service pins during March were: Twenty-five years—J. P. Morgan. Twenty years—Alda Rae Price, Demsey Morris, Charlie Simpson, F. D. Bodie, James Sanders, Mildred Norris, D. A. Madden, C. C. Shealy, W. P. Crawford, E. A. Whitsel, Lila Gresham. Fifteen years—W. C. Copeland, Harry Senn, G. L. Boland, W. P. Kinard, W. E. Wooten, Erskine Lindsay, Runette Banks. Ten years—T. E. Morris and J. H. Fulmer. Five years—David Booker.

Last of Concert Series

Dance Duo to Present Performance Tuesday

The classical and the popular of the dance will be presented at Belk Auditorium at 8:15 p. m., April 5, when Colleen Corkre and Michael Maule appear in a performance entitled "Two Go Dancing." This will be the final concert in the current series, and a bonus for the more than 100 new members who bought tickets for the 1966-67 season.

During the evening, ballots for new board members will be distributed to adult ticket holders who will choose replacements for outgoing members of the board.

The combined talents of Mr. Maule and Miss Corkre add up to many achievements. The two met while she was appearing in Broadway's "My Fair Lady," and they later formed their own concert program. Both were trained in classical ballet and Mr. Maule has become a well-known choreographer.

He also has danced with Maria Tallchief, Dame Alicia Markova, Alexandra Danilova, and in several companies including the New York City Ballet, Metropolitan Opera and Jerome Robbins' "Ballet USA" in which he was the principal male dancer. He has been guest artist with the American Ballet Theater and a number of foreign ballet groups, as well as television shows, including the Bell Telephone Hour.

Broadway audiences have seen Miss Corkre in several shows and she has frequently appeared on television. The

On USC Honor List

Students from the Clinton area earning listing on the academic honor roll for the fall semester at the University of South Carolina include:

All "A" grades—Samuel F. Morris of Clinton, sophomore, and Sandra A. Merchant of Kinards, junior.

Others were Mark King of Clinton, and Terry J. Merchant of Kinards, both freshmen.

Roads In County To Be Surfaced

Awarding of a $109,905 contract for road work in Laurens County was announced this week, by the State Highway Department.

The contract was awarded to Wham Construction Co., Inc., of Anderson, on the basis of a low bid, according to S. N. Pearman, Chief Highway Commissioner. Bids entered ranged as high as $145,217.

Included in the program are 1.3 miles of U. S. Highway 76 Bypass, 5.2 miles of South Carolina Highway 14, 9.4 miles on South Carolina 56 and one mile of secondary Road S-3, a total of 16.9 miles.

The contract calls for resurfacing with hot laid asphaltic concrete.

Registration For New First Graders Slated For Friday

Pre-school registration for children who will enter the first grade next fall will be conducted between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon Friday, April 1, in all elementary schools of Laurens County School District No. 56.

In order to enter school a child must be six years old on or before November 1.

Parents are asked to bring their child's birth certificate, if possible. State law also requires that a child be vaccinated against smallpox before entering school.

If it is impossible for any child to enroll at the above time, parents should contact the principal of the school of their choice.

Muralist to Lecture, Do Mural at College

Internationally known muralist ULRICO SCETTINI will visit the Presbyterian College campus through next week, lecturing on his art form and executing a mural that will remain in possession of the college.

On next Wednesday, he will give a public lecture, illustrated by color slides, on the subject "Aspects of Rome through the Centuries, from Prints and Photographs." It is scheduled for 10:00 a. m. in Belk Auditorium, and the public is invited.

Scettini is appearing at PC as the 1966 Newton G. Hardie Memorial Lecturer while on a ten-week tour of campuses in all parts of the United States. An Italian in his early 30's, he abandoned legal studies at 16 to dedicate himself completely to his art. He studied in Paris under a French Government Scholarship in 1957, a year later returned to Rome under the first Roberto Fasola Scholarship and then took up residence in London as the best environment for the calm development of his work.

The young artist began a new series of 100 drawings called "Letters for an Ideal Alphabet" in 1958, and his progress toward recognition was accelerated by three group shows in Italy. Since then, he has shown in galleries at London and Newcastle, Paris, and at the Contemporary Art Society in Sydney, Australia. He has shown for the first time in America the exhibition "Trends in Watercolor Today" at Brooklyn Museum. In addition to these showings, he has executed commissions in fresco, tempera and encaustic for several public and private buildings.

ULRICO SCETTINI

In addition to hearing Scettini lecture, Presbyterian College students will have the opportunity to follow his work process as he executes the special mural for PC. The artist also proposes an informal conversation on the composition of images and the theory of ornamental colors.

Forest Fire Rages In Cross Hill Area

At press time last night, a forest fire which began Wednesday afternoon about 3:00 o'clock, was still raging, having destroyed some 150 acres of timber land south of Mountville on State Highway 560 between Mountville and Cross Hill, near Mudlick Creek.

The property destroyed, said Forester Morris B. Seymour, with Catawba Timber Co., who was the first to arrive at the scene, was that of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co., and Jake Rasor. The cause of the fire was not known.

Only one home was destroyed by the fire, that of a colored occupant, whose name was not known. Forester Seymour stated that no injuries had occurred and that foresters from other paper companies and state rangers had arrived with equipment to control the fire.

Traffic Island At South End of City To Be Landscaped

Plans are in the making for landscaping and beautification of the traffic island at the end of S. Broad Street between Highways 56 and 72, according to Mrs. Judson Brehmer, president of the Yellow Jessamine Garden Club.

The work will be done under the direction of club members and the project will be financed by the Gulf Oil Corporation, of which H. M. O'Kelley is area manager.

"We are happy to have this firm sponsor such a project," Mrs. Brehmer said. "Work has been under way for sometime leading up to completion of preliminary plans, and residents are looking forward to the beautification of the south entrance to the city."

Holy Week Services At Broad St. Church

Holy Week services will begin Sunday evening at 7:30 at Broad Street Methodist Church and continue through Thursday evening. The pastor, the Rev. E. W. Rogers who will bring the messages will use as his theme "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked."

Sunday evening he will use as his topic, "Back To Bethany"; on Monday evening "Weeping Over Wrong"; Tuesday evening "Arguments About Authority" and Wednesday, "Religion And Relaxation." The service on Thursday will end with the sacrament of Holy Communion, at which time his topic will be "Gardens Of Loneliness."

Special music by the choir will be rendered at each service under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Burnside, choir director and Mrs. James Pitts, organist.

Florida Negro Fined For Starting Fire

A Florida Negro hobo pleaded guilty in magistrate's court here Friday to setting a fire Thursday which burned five acres of land beside a railroad track three miles west of Clinton.

The man, James Edward Green of Tallahassee, was charged with carelessly setting a fire. He was sentenced by Magistrate James Copeland to pay $25 or serve 30 days.

Green was arrested Thursday after a trainman told Clinton police he saw the Negro light a cigarette and drop a match into a patch of grass which caught fire.

The trainman, W. H. Poole of Greenwood, testified that Green tried unsuccessfully to put out the fire and that as the train started to move the Negro boarded an empty boxcar.

PTA To Meet On April 12th

The regular meeting of the Hampton Avenue Parent-Teacher Association, scheduled for April 5, has been rescheduled for April 12, due to a conflict with the Community Concert Association, according to an announcement made by the president, Mrs. Lewis Hay.

Registration Board To Be In Session

The Registration Board of Laurens County will be in session at Baldwin Motor Company on April 12 and at Clinton Mills Community Center the 13th. Hours for the sessions will be 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

J. ROBERT COX

Cox Is Chairman Of Merchants Unit

J. Robert Cox is the new chairman of the Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce for the fiscal year beginning April 1.

Mr. Cox is owner of Cox Home and Auto Supply, Inc. He is a member of the First Baptist Church and the Kiwanis Club.

Cox announced the following committee chairmen to serve during the year: Clean-Up and Beautification, Carl Leonard; Parking and Traffic, W. C. Baldwin; Legislative Affairs, J. C. Thomas; Promotions and Special Events, D. B. Smith; Education, Joe S. Holland; Welcome Newcomers, Mrs. R. P. Hamer; Publicity, Mrs. Naomi Seymour; Holidays and Store Hours, I Mac Adair; Christmas Parade, Charles Buice; Christmas Street Decorations, Mrs. P. M. Moore; Christmas Project, W. C. Baldwin; Finance, Ed Perry.

Each chairman is requested to call a meeting of his committee to make plans and recommendations to be presented to the group for approval at the next meeting.

Meetings of members of the Merchants Division are held on the second Tuesday of each month at Hotel Mary Musgrove at 10 a. m.

Dedication Services At Baptist Church

Special dedicatory services are being planned at the First Baptist Church for April 17. The program which will carry the same theme for both morning and evening services will include out of town speakers, the pastor, the Rev. J. H. Darr states.

At Community Building

City Democratic Club To Reorganize Monday

PC and Harvard To Meet in Tennis Monday, Tuesday

Presbyterian College will have one of their biggest challenges of the 1966 season when they entertain Harvard in two tennis matches here next Monday and Tuesday.

The matches are scheduled to start at 2:00 p. m. each day on Callaway Courts, and the public is invited to attend.

The Blue Hose are led this year by Bob Harris, South Carolina's best and one of the South's top college players, and by Pete Collins.

Named by Lions Club

Citizen of the Year Title Goes to J. B. Templeton

Joseph Bee Templeton, local textile executive, has been named Clinton's Citizen of the Year for 1966.

The selection, sponsored each year by the Clinton Lions Club, is an award based on the religious, professional, and civic contributions of the recipient to the community.

Mr. Templeton, a Clinton Mills vice president, has been active in church, community and youth work for more than a quarter of a century.

A native of Clinton, he attended local schools and is a graduate of Clinton High School and Clemson University. His textile career includes managerial positions with the Springs Cotton Mills, Greenwood Mills, Brandon Corporation and Abney Mills. For the past 13 years he has served as vice president of manufacturing for Clinton Mills.

Active in the Blue Ridge Council of Boy Scouts of America for more than 20 years he is presently serving as a member of the council's executive board.

For many years he has been instrumental in forming and directing youth athletic teams and leagues. The athletic field at Pointsett Mills in Greenville is named in his honor for his contributions to youth and athletics in the greater Greenville area. Much of his benevolent health and educational assistance to the youth in the Clinton area has been done anonymously.

Mr. Templeton is an elder in the Presbyterian Church and active in the work of the Men of the

The Clinton City Democratic Club will hold its biennial reorganizational meeting Monday night at the Community Building, Clinton Mill, at 7:30, according to Leaman D. Jones, secretary-treasurer.

The club will elect officers, including an executive committee, to set machinery in motion for a city Democratic primary to nominate a mayor and six councilmen.

Officers to be elected are a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and an executive committee member from each of the six wards.

Also to be determined are the dates for two primaries.

Present officers are Roy Holtzclaw, president; L. S. Reddeck, who died during the past year, served as vice-president; and Jones.

Committeemen are: J. J. Clark, ward one; V. Parks Adair, ward two; L. Ray Pitts, ward three; Milford Smith, ward four; Joel Cox, ward five; E. P. Taylor, ward six.

The dates for the primaries probably will be set for late May, with the general election coming sometime in August.

Easter Services Planned in City

The Kiwanis Club and the Clinton - Joanna Ministerial Association have announced plans for community services in celebration of Easter next week.

On Good Friday, April 8, a three-hour-long service will be held from 12 o'clock noon until 3 o'clock, divided into 30-minute sections. Seven different ministers will lead the service, based on the 7 last words of Christ on the Cross. Worshippers may come on the hour and the half-hour and remain for as many of the sections of the service as they wish. This service will be held in the First Baptist Church.

On Easter Sunday, a Sunrise service sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis Club and the Ministerial Association will be held on Johnson Field at Presbyterian College. Special music is being planned, to be announced next week, and the preacher for the service will be the Rev. J. H. Darr, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Clinton.

Various churches of the city are planning services to be conducted in their sanctuaries on Thursday night, commemorating the Last Supper of the Lord with His disciples, and His subsequent arrest and crucifixion.

The public is urged to participate in as many of these services as possible.

Lutherans Slate Special Services

In observance of Christ's last week upon earth in the flesh, St. John's Lutheran Church will hold a special Holy Week service each evening next week, Sunday through Friday, beginning at 7:30, consisting of fitting hymns, the reading from the historic Passion History and an appropriate meditation by Dr. E. B. Keisler, interim pastor.

On Thursday evening the Holy Communion will be administered. On each of the other evenings the briefer order of vespers will be used. An offering will be received only on Thursday evening.

Dr. Keisler states that while naturally the services are provided primarily for the devotional life of the members of his congregation, both he and the congregation have been genuinely delighted heretofore to welcome visitors at similar services and that the public is cordially invited to worship at St. John's next week or at any other time.

Supper and Film Scheduled Sunday

A film, "Conversion Plus," will be shown at Epworth Methodist Church, Joanna, Sunday night, following a family night covered dish supper which will begin at 6:00 o'clock.

The event is sponsored by the Commission on Evangelism, Mrs. J. L. Abrams, chairman.

Thornwell Racks Up 111 Points in Meet

Thornwell scored 111 points to sweep to victory in a four-way high school track meet here Friday over Spartanburg Day School, Ninety Six and Lockhart.

Other scores were Spartanburg Day, 16, Ninety Six, and Lockhart 8.

Local Camp Fire Girls See Governor

Governor Robert E. McNair, left is shown receiving a box of Camp Fire Candy from Jenny Rice. Others in the picture (left to right) are Mary Roberts, Peggy Locklear, and Laura Nye. As part of Birthday Week the group visited in the governor's office and capitol building last Thursday. The group was accompanied to Columbia by Mrs. Earl Rice.