

$18,151 Is Bid On Sewer Line Project

Spartan Construction Co. of Spartanburg submitted a low bid of $18,151 to City Council here Friday night for installation of sewerage lines to serve the new city-owned industrial park on U. S. Highway 76.

Three bids were submitted to council. The bids will be sent to Harwood-Beebe Co. of Spartanburg, engineers for the project, who study the bids and recommend the awarding of the contract.

Mayor J. J. Cornwell broke a 3-3 tie vote of council on a motion to assist Presbyterian College with painting the college library. The mayor voted in favor of providing $2,000 to be applied on the cost of the project.

Aldermen George Bagwell, L. W. Cooper and Harry C. Layton voted for the project, with Aldermen Boyd Holtzclaw, S. A. Pitts and Talmadge Sanders opposing.

Council passed an ordinance regulating the maintenance of stables in the city limits. The ordinance makes it unlawful for any person who owns or maintains a stable to locate it within 150 feet of a residence.

It also regulates the sanitary conditions of stables and provides a penalty of $100 or 30 days for violation of the ordinance.

Alderman Pitts opposed passage of the ordinance, with the other five council members favoring it.

Representatives of a TV cable firm, which is in the process of being organized, asked council to consider awarding their company a franchise for cable TV in Clinton. Council took no action on the request.

Moses A. Guerrini Joins Torrington

The Torrington Company, Clinton Bearings Plant, has announced the addition of Moses A. Guerrini to the staff as data processing manager.

Mr. Guerrini was born in Meriden, Connecticut, and attended schools in Torrington. After two years Army service in Georgia, Mississippi, and Alabama, he attended college at Mexico City College, University of Connecticut, and the University of Hartford. He also received additional data processing training at Ward School and various IBM schools.

He is married to the former Rosemarie Fador and has two daughters — Lisa, age 4, and Lauren, age 9. The Guerrinis have moved to Clinton and will reside at 110 Hickory Street.

Rites Held Monday For A. B. Blakely

Augustus (Gus) Byrd Blakely, 60 died Saturday night at 11:30 p. m. at a local hospital after several months of declining health and an illness of three weeks.

A lifelong resident of Clinton, a son of the late A. B. and Mamie Addy Blakely, he was a member of Providence ARP Church, where he was chairman of the board of deacons. He was street superintendent for the City of Clinton. He attended Presbyterian College.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Margaret Copeland Blakely; a daughter, Mrs. Earl (Mona) Barron, Jr., of Barium Springs, N. C.; four sisters, Mrs. J. A. Harker of Lynchburg; Mrs. H. K. Neely of Columbus, Ga.; Mrs. Bonner Harvley of Greenwood; and Mrs. John T. Young of Clinton; a brother, Lee Add Blakely of Clinton; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 3:30 p. m. at Providence ARP Church by Rev. Zeb Williams and Dr. C. Bynum Betts. Burial was in Rosemont cemetery.

Pallbearers were B. B. Blakely, J. Sloan Todd, William D. Adair, Robert Plakico, Jr., Earl Stewart, Sidney R. Bryson, Earl C. Rice and Marvin S. Turner, Jr.

Strom Transferred To Joanna Plants By Greenwood Mills

J. Grady Strom, assistant superintendent of the Ninety Six plants of Greenwood Mills has been transferred to Joanna as assistant superintendent of the plants there.

Robert A. Limer, vice president for manufacturing at Greenwood Mills, made the announcement.

Strom is a native of McCormick. He was educated in the public schools there and at Clemson University, where he received a degree in textile engineering.

Strom has been employed by Greenwood Mills since 1950. He completed the company's management training program, and has held several supervisory positions.

John G. Akins, Jr. To Join English Staff at College

John Glassey Akins, Jr., a Harvard graduate from Gadsden, Ala., is joining the Presbyterian College faculty this fall as an instructor in English.

Dean Joseph M. Gettys announced today that Akins will succeed Sarah Smith, who has taught at PC for the past two years and is now returning to graduate school to complete work on her doctorate.

Akins received his BA degree from Harvard University in 1961 and then taught English at Aiken Senior High School for three years. He has just earned his MA from the University of South Carolina, where he has been a graduate assistant with teaching responsibilities in freshman English for the past two years.

Free Golf Lessons At Lakeside Club

Children of Lakeside Country Club members will be able to take free golf instructions Monday, and Wednesday mornings.

Earl Tinsley, the golf pro, asks that all interested girls be at the club at 9 a. m. and the boys at 10:30 the mornings of July 11 and 13, with their clubs.

The Junior golf tournament will be played in two or three weeks, he stated, and now is the time to get ready for it.

Greenwood And Clinton in 9-4 Tie

Clinton and Greenwood American Legion teams are in a 9-4 tie in League Eight play, which includes games through Tuesday.

The Week's Play Tonight (Thursday) Clinton will go to Ware Shoals, and on Friday night will take on Greenwood at Greenwood.

Saturday night will see a make-up game for the Clinton - Ware Shoals tilt that was rained out both Friday and Saturday of last week.

Clinton posted a victory over Newberry at Clinton last Thursday, 7-2, with Spearman on the mound.

Clinton Wins, Loses Monday night, Clinton again took a win from Newberry, 3-1, with Erskine Thomason on the mound.

Tuesday night, Greenwood came to town and took a 3-1 victory from Clinton. Highlight of the game was the relief pitching of Tommy Elrod, who relieved Spearman in the fourth inning. Elrod struck out six, allowed three hits and one run.

Plays Ends Next Week Games scheduled for next Monday and Tuesday, the 11th and 12th, will end play for the season unless Clinton is in a playoff with Greenwood.

On Monday, Newberry comes to Clinton, and on Tuesday Clinton will go to Ware Shoals.

Revival Services At Faith Tabernacle

Evangelist Rose Tezzino will lead revival services at Faith Tabernacle Church beginning Friday, July 8 and continuing thru July 17, at 7:30 each evening, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. John C. Martin. The public is invited to attend.

Defendant In Kidnap Case Be Tried in S. C.

Chicago — A Chicago woman school teacher accused of kidnaping an infant from his Greenville, S. C. home was ordered returned to South Carolina Thursday.

Mrs. Helen Lucille Isaac, 30, a physical education teacher, waived a hearing before U. S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike. Pike ordered her held for removal to the Columbia, S. C., district court.

Mrs. Isaac was arrested in Chicago Sunday night by FBI agents. The kidnaped child, Kenneth Bryson, 6 weeks old, was found in the home of a baby sitter where, FBI agents said, he had been left by Mrs. Isaac.

The baby was 2 weeks old when taken from his Greenville home May 31.

Greenville police said the child's mother, Jesse May Bryson, told them a woman came to her home, struck her on the head with a bottle and fled with the child.

Mrs. Bryson came here Tuesday of last week and returned the child home.

Harold Morris of Greenville an attorney, appeared at the hearing Tuesday. He said he had been retained by Mrs. Isaac's husband, Henry W. Isaac, Jr., and her foster mother, Clacie, to represent Mrs. Isaac.

Services Today For Mrs. Dobbins

Mrs. W. C. Dobbins, Sr., 86, widow of W. C. Dobbins, Sr., died Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Forrest Adair, 509 North Adair Street, after several years of declining health and a serious illness of four weeks. She was a native of Watauga County, N. C., but had made her home in Joanna and Clinton all of her married life.

She was a daughter of the late John Barker Matney and Elizabeth Harrison Matney. She was a member of the Episcopal Methodist Church in Joanna, and served as postmistress at Goldville before her marriage.

One son, Henry Weston Dobbins, died in service during 1944.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Forrest (Elizabeth) Adair, Clinton; Miss June Dobbins, Clinton; Mrs. Norman K. (Elliott) Wright, Greenville; one son, Senator William C. Dobbins, Jr.; Joanna; three half-sisters, Mrs. Ernest Hartley, Boone, N. C.; Mrs. George Cook, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mrs. Alvin Story, Matney, N. C.; two half-brothers, Lon Matney, Mountain City, Tenn.; Charles Matney, Matney, N. C.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held Thursday at 5:30 p. m. at Rosemont cemetery, conducted by Rev. Ross Pickett and Rev. E. W. Rogers.

Pallbearers will be Hubert Adair, Rueben Lanford, Ralph Dula, Edgar Taylor, Tom Ramage and Mabry McCrary.

The body is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Forrest Adair, 509 North Adair Street.

Visiting Minister At St. John's On Next Sunday

The Holy Communion will be administered at St. John's Lutheran Church next Sunday, both at the 11 o'clock service and at a briefer and less liturgical service at 7 p. m.

The Rev. Dr. R. R. Syre, professor of Old Testament at Central Seminary in Nebraska, will present the communion and will assist Pastor Keisler in the administration.

Hinton Attending Music Camp in N. C.

Wayne Hinton, Thornwell High School student, is attending the session of St. Andrews Presbyterian College Music Camp, Laurinburg, N. C. He is a piano pupil of Miss Luva McDonald, music teacher at Thornwell.

At St. Andrews, Hinton is studying under Paul Jones. The camp began on June 19 and will close July 10.

Wallace Abercrombie

C. D. Benjamin, Jr.

J. Wilbur Traynham

Sheriff R. Eugene Johnson has promoted to the rank of lieutenant these deputies who will have charge of the shifts on which they work. From left are Wallace Abercrombie, C. D. Benjamin, Jr., and J. Wilbur Traynham.

Three Deputies Named Lieutenants

Mrs. Jones Attends Library Institute

Mrs. Bobby Jones, the former Jane Todd of Clinton, is attending an N. E. D. A. Institute for school library personnel at the University of Georgia in Athens.

Mrs. Jones, an Erskine College graduate with a master's degree in education from George Peabody College for Teachers, is employed at Hughes Junior High School in Greenville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Todd of Merrie Oaks.

The institute is supported by a grant from the U. S. Office of Education to offer six weeks of advanced training to 30 school librarians selected from the southeast.

Mrs. Jones is the only one selected from South Carolina. Selected participants receive stipends from the program. It lasts from June 13 to July 22.

CHS Students At USC Music Camp

Carolyn Bundrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bundrick, Jacobs Hwy., and Joey Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lee, of Baldwin Heights are among 76 junior and senior high school band students who are having a well-blended musical experience during the two-week summer music camp at the University of South Carolina.

During the annual music camp, each student performs with the concert band, attends a band musicianship class, and participates in ensemble class, drum majoring or stage band. Private lessons are also available.

Carolyn plays clarinet, and Joey plays trombone for the Clinton High Band. They are both rising juniors.

They participated on a partial scholarship from the Clinton Music Club.

Laurens — Three members of Sheriff R. Eugene Johnson's force were promoted to the rank of lieutenant this week, Deputies J. Wilbur Traynham, Wallace Abercrombie and C. D. Benjamin, Jr.

Lt. Abercrombie is a veteran of 10 years with the department. Lt. Traynham and Lt. Benjamin joined the force when Sheriff Johnson took office January 1, 1961.

All three officers have attended local and state training sessions for law enforcement officers. Lt. Traynham completed a two-week course in fingerprinting at the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) Headquarters in Columbia in 1963.

The rank of lieutenant is a new post in the sheriff's department. In the past, only a chief deputy had been appointed. This was abolished in January of this year on the retirement of the then Chief Deputy Sam Reid.

The new appointments were made by Sheriff Johnson after the new 1966-67 county appropriation bill became effective July 1.

Lt. Traynham is married to the former Omega Plinson and they live in the Ekorn community. They have one daughter, Linda, who now lives in Atlanta, Ga.

Lt. Benjamin is married to the former Rachel Holtzclaw and they live in the Long Branch community north of Clinton. Their 14-year-old daughter, Sarah, attends Clinton High School.

Lt. Abercrombie lives in the Gray Court area. He is unmarried.

Floyd Named To New Joanna Post

Gene G. Floyd, 104 Florence St., Clinton, has been named research and development engineer for Greenwood Mills.

J. B. Holschlag, director of engineering and services, who made the announcement, said Floyd would research new process methods and techniques for improving manufacturing operations. His work will place him in close association with equipment manufacturers and other research organizations, Holschlag said.

Floyd has been director of the Joanna Plants Laboratory for Greenwood Mills.

A graduate of Clinton High School and Clemson University, Floyd has been employed in Joanna since 1962. At Clemson, he received a B. S. degree in textile science. He was a top honor graduate of the Institute of Textile Technology at Charlottesville, Va., where he received a master of science degree.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Floyd of Joanna, he is married to the former Betty Caughman of Clinton. They have two children, Norma Jean and William.

Floyd is a member of the American Society for Testing Materials, the American Society for Quality Control, Phi Psi Textile Fraternity and is a member of the Board of Governors of the Textile Quality Control Association.

Second Term Of College Summer School Begins Friday

The second term of Presbyterian College's summer school will get underway Friday with registration in the library building.

Sixteen courses in ten departments are being offered in this 5½ week session which extends through August 16, with classes meeting five days weekly, Monday through Friday.

The Friday registration will be conducted at 11:30 a. m. 1:00 p. m., and second term classwork will begin at 8:00 a. m. next Monday.

Presbyterians Have Services at Fellowship

During the month of July, members and ministers of the churches of the South Carolina Presbytery will gather each Sunday night for "Christian worship, fellowship, inspiration, and spiritual growth in grace" at Camp Fellowship at Lake Greenwood.

This year's theme for the eighth annual religious emphasis month is "The Church in the World Today."

The services, beginning each Sunday at 8 p. m. are for informing the members of the churches of the South Carolina Presbytery of movements "in our denomination and in the church in the world."

Outstanding church leaders will speak at each of the five services.

The series began last Sunday, with Dr. Ernest Stricklin, director of the department of Christian family education of the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., as the speaker. His subject was "The American Family in Confused Transition."

On Sunday, July 10, Dr. T. Watson Street, executive secretary of the Board of World Missions, will be the speaker.

DR. STREET

Dr. Street, a native of Alabama, 1938 graduate of Davidson College, received his bachelor of divinity degree from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary. He did further graduate work at Union Seminary of New York. He served four years as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Fulton, Mo., and from 1947 to 1961 was professor of missions and church history at Austin (Texas) Theological Seminary. Since 1961 he has held the World Mission Board post.

Clinton Man To Preside Over State Association

Joe S. Holland, Clinton grocer, is president of the Food Retailers Association of South Carolina, and will preside over the annual convention of the association to be held in Columbia July 18-19.

Approximately 900 grocers and their wives are expected to attend the session.

Speakers include Frank Brown, merchandising director of the National Association of Retail Grocers of the United States.

Pfc. Harold Johnson Serving in Vietnam

Marine Private First Class Harold N. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Johnson of Joanna, was advanced to his present rank while serving with a Marine Wing Headquarters Group at Da Nang, Vietnam.

His promotion was based on time in service and rank, military appearance, and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

It is the battalion's job to make sure that the soldiers above the Da Nang air base and surrounding area remain free of any enemy aircraft.

Dairy Field Day At Finley Farm, Mountville, July 15

Judging contests for youths and adults will feature the field day of the S. C. Federated Breeding Association at the Hance Finley dairy farm near Mountville, July 15.

W. A. King of Clemson University will conduct the hay judging contest and Hap Houston, NOBA representative from Tifton, Ohio, will conduct the cow judging contests. W. L. Northern, Clemson, will talk on dairy problems, and Max Drake, a NOBA representative, will report on the bull stud.

Activities will begin at 10 a. m. with C. T. Smith, Knicks, presiding. A free barbecue luncheon will be served at noon. Interested livestock farmers should see their county agents concerning group travel and meal reservations.

Long-Time Joanna Employees Get Service Pins in June

Eighteen long-service employees of the Joanna Plants of Greenwood Mills were honored with service pins during the month of June.

Receiving the highest award was Thomas W. Brown of 407 Pitts Street, Clinton, who received his 35-year pin on June 28.

Others honored were: 25-years: M. J. Davenport, Desa Holsonback, Constance Davis, and W. R. Senn.

20-years: George Childers and J. D. Butler. 15-years: R. J. Stockman, Dorothy Lollis, H. D. Gray, Eula B. Shealy, and E. M. Crouder.

Five-years: Juanita McManhan, Sara B. Price, Kay F. Donald, Sara Hughes, Ivory Bouknight, and L. J. Brock, Jr.

James Vance Does It Again—Produces First Cotton Bloom

James Vance, perennial "bringer-in" of the first cotton bloom of the season, did it again this year.

A familiar purple bloom was brought to the Chronicle office last Thursday, June 30, the color indicating it was several days old.

In this area, a cotton grower is said to be a good farmer if he has blooms by July 4. So, Vance is continuing his reputation.

He is a tenant on the Reese Young farm.

Carter Receives Grant to Attend Summer Course

Dr. K. Nolan Carter, chairman of the Presbyterian College chemistry department, has received a National Science Foundation grant to attend the Conference Course on Electronics for Scientists during the next few weeks.

The course, scheduled for July 17-August 6, is part of the Foundation's summer conference program. It is to be held at Oregon State University, Corvallis, Ore.

Moses A. Guerrini Joins Torrington

The Torrington Company, Clinton Bearings Plant, has announced the addition of Moses A. Guerrini to the staff as data processing manager.

Mr. Guerrini was born in Meriden, Connecticut, and attended schools in Torrington. After two years Army service in Georgia, Mississippi, and Alabama, he attended college at Mexico City College, University of Connecticut, and the University of Hartford. He also received additional data processing training at Ward School and various IBM schools.

He is married to the former Rosemarie Fador and has two daughters — Lisa, age 4, and Lauren, age 9. The Guerrinis have moved to Clinton and will reside at 110 Hickory Street.

X-Ray Survey Finds Seven Suspected TB Cases in County

Findings of the recent chest X-ray survey in Laurens County included seven cases of suspected tuberculosis; 24 persons with cardiac pathology; and 17 with other chest pathology.

There were no new cases of definite tuberculosis diagnosed from the 3,274 X-rays made in the county from May 17 to June 24 by the mobile unit of the S. C. State Board of Health.

The findings, which are confidential, are reported by the public health nurses to the patient's physician for follow-up.

The mass survey was jointly sponsored by the Laurens County Health Department, and the Tuberculosis and Health Association.

This case finding effort was focused on the rural communities, and on the portion of the county at the greatest distance from the health department where free chest X-rays are available each Friday.

Miss Black Studies Music in New York

Miss Amy Lou Black has won a scholarship for study of music at Chautauqua Institute, N. Y., where she will be for the summer.

Miss Black participated in a piano audition at Sherwood Studios in Chautauqua on June 30 and July 1 and was one of the five winners chosen to study at the institute.

At Converse College, Spartanburg, where she is majoring in music, Miss Black studied under Ozan and Patricia Marsh, being sponsored by The Clinton Music Club, and competed for the opportunity to enter the New York auditions.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Black.

Community Chest

Gen. Godfrey Heads Budget Committee

General Ansel B. Godfrey will serve as chairman of the Admissions and Budget Committee of the Community Chest of Greater Clinton for 1966, it was announced today by Reese H. Young, president of the organization.

General Godfrey, an active civic and religious leader of the community, is manager of the local office of the South Carolina Employment Service. In addition, he has had a distinguished military career which closed several years ago upon his retirement as commanding officer of the 51st Infantry Division, Army National Guard, with the rank of major general.

A native of Clinton, General Godfrey has served the Community Chest in numerous capacities through the years. He is past president of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce and an active layman in the First Presbyterian Church.

GEN. GODFREY

General Godfrey and Mrs. Godfrey, the former Emmie Young, reside on South Adair Street. They have one daughter, Mrs. Callie Gault, and three grandchildren.