MISS SHEALY AND MR. GRONSKI WED IN SWITZERLAND DEC. SIXTH

Miss Carol Margaret Shealy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Otis Shealy of 204 Elm Street, Clinton, became the bride of Sgt. John Edward Gronski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter Gronski of 8909 Broadway, Everett, Washington, on Tuesday, December 6, in Basel, Switzerland. Carlotta Gackwind, registrar of Basel, performed the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Gronski chose a three-piece white wool suit with short white veil and black accessories for her wedding. Her corsage was three red rose buds.

After a short stay in Switzerland, the bridal couple returned to Gelnhausen, Germany, where Sgt. Gronski is stationed.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Clinton High School and attended two years at the University of the South Carolina for two years. The groom is a 1962 graduate of Soap Lake High School in Washington and attended two years at Eastern Washington State College.

Church Group Given Dinner

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Copeland honored the Sunday school teachers and officers of the Associate Reform Presbyterian Church with a dinner at the fellowship room of the church. The dinner was served buffet style from a large table centered with an arrangement of white carnations and red berries. Guests were seated at a u-shaped dining table, decorated with traditional greenery, red candles and berries. Poinsettias, holly, greenery and a Christmas tree added to the Christmas spirit of the room.

After dinner the guests were entertained with games, di-

Hortons Give Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Horton complimented neighbors and friends with a crop-in on Christmas Eve night, December 24, at their lovely home on Walnut Street. Guests arrived after 7 o'clock.

In the living room a huge lighted Christmas tree accented the entrance to the stairway. The mantel was decorated with greenery with clusters of gold and silver balls centered with a madonna. Smaller arrangements were used at other points of interest.

The entrance arch into the dining area was decorated with mistletoe balls. The buffet table was overlaid with white linen centered at the back with a silver tree adorned with bells and balls. Fruit arrangements also added a festive note in the room.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Horton were Mr. and Mrs. William Davis.

Directed by Mr. Zeb Williams, pastor.

Crowe Family Gathers Christmas

On Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cannon were host at dinner for members of their family at their home on 209 S. Woodrow Street.

Following dinner, the family gathered around the tree for singing of Christmas carols and opening of gifts. A special highlight of the day was a call from Airman Steve Crowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crowe, who is stationed in Anchorage, Alaska, with the Air Force.

Those present for the occasion were Mrs. J. H. Crowe; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holland; Mrs. Sara Jenkins and daughter Lynn; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crowe; Mrs. Beverly Werts and Beth; Mrs. D. W. Bagwell and Toni; Johnny Cannon of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Orion Perrell of Laurens; and Mrs. Douglas DeYoung and Jane Jones of Fountain Inn.

Given Party On Sixth Birthday

Little Merri Christine Benjamin celebrated her sixth birthday with a party, December 22 at her home in Mountville.

After playing games the children joined hands and sang "Happy Birthday" around the table centered with a large cake decorated with red frosting, six white candles and Frosty-The-Snowman. Individual cakes topped with candy canes, ice cream and Pepsi Cola were served.

Moving pictures were taken of little Merri and the group opening the gifts near the lighted Christmas tree. Souvenirs of balloons, Santa sleigh with reindeer were presented the little guests as they departed.

Merri Christine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Benjamin and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Owens
