

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Lilliar Stevens is at home for the holidays.

There is always some one to answer the 'phone at the Chronicle office, No. 139.

Mrs. Bates and little son, of Urbana, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Peters.

Mrs. Leroy Davidson, with her little son, is visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. H. W. Stevenson.

Dennison's Paper Clips 10c per box of 100. Stricklin Printing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rivers and children, of Lumberton, N. C., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Rivers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knight, near town.

Mr. Julian Webb has rented the Bradshaw residence on third street and will move there the first of the year.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will have its Christmas tree on Thursday evening, Dec. 24, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Session room.

The League Hall was formally opened last Friday evening by the ladies of the Civic League, with an oyster supper, which proved quite a success, financially and otherwise.

Rev. Marvin Auld, the new pastor of the Methodist church, has arrived and filled his pulpit for the first time Sunday morning, preaching to a large and well pleased congregation.

We believe it would be a good idea for the Cheraw Board of Trade to offer prizes for a corn growing contest to be participated in by the farmers of Chesterfield county;

Dance in Masonic Hall.

Tuesday night, Dec. 15, the young folks of our city enjoyed an impromptu dance in the Masonic Hall. The couples participating were as follows:

Miss Bessie Harrell with Mr. Wilson Malloy.

Miss Laurie Harrall with Mr. Crigler.

Miss Helen McIver with Mr. Alex Harrall.

Miss Louise Meiklejohn with Mr. Joe Lindsay.

Miss Margaret Malloy with Mr. Lem Boykin.

Miss Edith Nettles, of Darlington, with Mr. Robt. Tomlinson.

Miss Harriett Godfrey with Mr. Louis Meiklejohn.

Miss Gussie Watts with Dr. Royal.

Miss Courtney Watts with Dr. Funderburk.

Miss Bessie Watts with Mr. Purvis.

Stags—Mr. C. K. Waddill, Mr. Lee Carway, Mr. Plunkett.

Chaperones—Mrs. Lem Harrall, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pollock.

Others present were Misses McIver, Pearl Walke, May Reid,

Susie McIver, Lottie Harrall, and Messrs. Josiah Evans and Will Wannamaker.

Music was furnished by the Italian band of Greensboro, N. C.

For fine Oysters phone 69—J. F. Hunter.

The Sunday School Scholars of the Episcopal Church will have gifts on their Christmas Tree for the Children of the Church Orphanage at Charleston.

While out playing in the yard yesterday one of Mr. Thos. Funderburk's little boys chopped off two of his little brother's fingers with an ax.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
stops the cough and heals lungs

Subscribe for The Chronicle—1 year $1

Gaskins Ogburn.

The following invitation, which has just been issued, will be read with interest by a large circle of friends of this popular young couple:

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gaskins requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Viola Geneva,

to
Mr. L. E. Ogburn,
Wednesday evening,
December twenty-third,
nineteen hundred and eight,
at half past six o'clock,
Hopewell Baptist Church,
Custerfield, S. C.

Barbie Nelson.

The following invitation has been issued:

Mrs. Elizabeth Barbie requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Mary Maloppe,

to
Mr. Robert Hall Nelson,
Wednesday evening, December thirtieth,
nineteen hundred and eight,
at eight o'clock,
Methodist Church,
Cheraw, South Carolina.

The Sunday School scholars of St. David's Episcopal church will celebrate Christmas this year by giving instead of receiving presents.

All the children, and their friends are invited to the Town Hall at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 24 and asked, are to bring each a gift with them to tie on the Christmas tree for the poor children of the Orphanage.

After the tree has been decorated in this way, there will be carols and recitations.

On Christmas morning all these gifts from the tree will be packed up and sent to rejoice the hearts of the orphan children who have no homes and no loving parents to give them presents and make this joyous Christmas season a happy time for them.

The only Pressing Club in town run by a white person is Harry F. Jones. He guarantees all work.

Cheraw is going to have a new bank. It will be ready for business about the first of February, we learn. Mr. S. G. Godfrey, now cashier of the Bank of Ruby, is to be the cashier, and Mr. Luther Raley, teller in the Bank of Cheraw, will be cashier of the Bank of Ruby.

Judge Pritchard has granted the receivers of the Seaboard the right to issue $4,250,000 in bonds for improvements on this road.

Miss Ella Pollock is suffering with a broken arm, caused by a window falling on it.

The President made a ringing attack on the editor of the New York World in his special message to congress yesterday and the reading of the message created a good deal of laughter and in its reply the World brands the president as a reckless, unscrupulous Demagogue.

Shannon, Stevens, Boykin Co.

Almost every freight brings something new. In a few days our stock will be complete.

Remember we make a specialty of such goods as the people will have.

The staples, the necessities are our strong point.

Our Grocery Stock is Complete.

One of our specialties in the grocery line is Best Patent Flour $5.40 per Bbl.

Our line of Men's Work Shoes is stronger and more comfortable than ever before. They are made on lasts that fit, made of leathers that are soft and pliable and very durable, and in shapes that look well on the feet. Single, half double and full double soles. Plain and cap toes, with full bellows tongues that exclude dirt and water. Pegged, nailed and sewed bottoms. Line and unlined. Vamps that extend to the end, not being cut off at the cap. Large eyelets that enable you to lace them quickly. They run in price from $1.50 to $4.00

We warrant the workmanship and stock used in our shoes and with the tremendous variety of shapes and weights you may be reasonably sure of a fit in the style you want if you come to us.

Your Fall Suit, Sir.

One of the satisfactory things about our Clothes is that there is a style, or rather a number of styles for every type of man. The young fellow who likes to spread himself to the limit, is well provided for and so is the man who is quiet in his taste. Dignity, tone and character serve to keep our garments within the gates of good judgment, though in every line they are indicative of clever tailoring and the latter day innovations of fashion. We call special attention to our suits at $8.50

$10.00

$12.50

$15.00

We are showing unusual values for these prices.

Men's Shirts.

Every dealer in furnishing goods tries to get the best shirt he can to sell for the price. We have always felt that we had as good as any one because most dealers have carried the same brand. But now we know we are offering the best value in shirts for the money ever offered in Cheraw. We sell you a regular $1 shirt for 89 cents, a regular $1.25 shirt for 98 cents, a regular $1.50 shirt for $1.19. How can we do this, you ask, because of the large quantity we have contracted for.

See the Display in our Show Window.

SHANNON, STEVENS, BOYKIN CO.,

Cheraw, S. C.