THE GREAT MADAM ELDON.

The World's Greatest Clairvoyant,
Palmist and Dead-Trance
Medium—At Cherau,
This Week Only.

Knowledge of the future is power for the present. Only to know is the great desire. Madam Eldon gives that knowledge. Remember, your prospects today may be your fortune tomorrow, if properly handled. If you are in doubt about anything consult Madam Eldon.

Do You Wish to Know?

How can I have good luck?
How can I succeed in business?
How can I make my home happy?
How can I marry the one of my choice?
How can I conquer my rival?
How can I hold my husband's love?
How can I conquer my enemies?
How can I make any one love me?

How to make distant ones think of me?
How can I hold my wife's love?
Ask Madam Eldon Today.

Are we not in a world of advancement? Has not every other mental science advanced also, and why not this gift which the One above bestowed upon him whom He desires? There are many so called clairvoyants, mediums, phys. ehologists, etc., but there must be some real ones.

Madam Eldon is gifted with this wonderful power which God has bestowed upon her. Consult her.

We here present a few of many letters which show for themselves:

Box 35, Concord, N. C.,
June 4, 1907.

Dear Madam Eldon:
As you were so successful in restoring lost articles, and in telling persons their past as well as their future, I want to apply to you once more for help.

My son's wife has lost her engagement ring, a diamond solitaire, and I want you to tell her if possible, as you are so far away, where it is. She is the same girl whom you told where her mother's watch was after it had been lost six months, so I feel sure you can tell me where this ring is. She doesn't think the ring was stolen, but that she simply lost it. She and my son have been married six months and as they are not housekeeping she rides out with him often to the farm, brickyard and so on and it is possible as the ring was quite loose that it was lost in that way. I have great faith in you and feel sure that your wonderful mind will enable you to write me just where it is and if so you shall be liberally rewarded. You certainly told me some things concerning my life which were as wonderful to me as the finding of this ring would be.

Please write me and oblige,
Mrs. E. A. Brown,
Box 35, Concord, N. C.

Madam Eldon,
Dear Friend:
I am so happy. My Jack is home after three year's absence. The reading and advice you gave me were the means of his return. May God bless you,
Mary A. Joyce.

Dear Madam:
Your predictions all came true. My wife has entirely recovered from her illness. You are certainly a wonderful psychic.
George Olds.

Madam Eldon:
When I called on you I was truly a skeptic, but your predictions have all come true. I am now convinced of your wonderful powers.
Julius Rathbone.

Madam Eldon,
Dear Friend:
My husband has returned. After two clairvoyants failed you have succeeded. I wish to commend you with my heartfelt thanks and may the Lord bless you in your work as you are certainly a deserving prophet.
Your sincere friend,
Mrs. G. E. Moore.
July 12, 1906.

Madam Eldon, Clairvoyant,
Dear Friend:
Your prediction of the San Francisco earthquake and your warning in regard to my carrying heavy insurance on my property saved me great financial loss. All my property was destroyed by fire, but I have just received my insurance which is $58,000 through your wonderful advice. I enclose check for $500 as a reward. Without your advice I would be penniless today.
Your most sincere friend,
M. J. Sheppard.

Death of Little Girl Hurdley.

Ruby, S. C., Dec. 14, 1908.
Fell asleep in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hurdley, Dec. 11, 1908, Mary Lillian, aged five months. She was very seriously ill on Tuesday evening and all that loving hands could do was done for her but on Friday morning she peacefully passed twelve God's angels for her and carried her to the home of God. She was in the home for two months and was a joy and blessing to all who knew her.

Her remains were buried in the family cemetery and were tenderly and gently laid to rest beneath a beautiful mound of flowers to sleep till the resurrection morn.

Weep not dear mother, father and loved ones, God only lent her to you for a while but she might draw you nearer to Him and beckoning hands across the river wait your coming to part no more." God has called her to be forever
Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe on His gentle breast,
There by His love overshadowed,
Sweetly her soul has rest."

Miss Elizabeth Waddill, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dillingham, in New Jersey, is at home for the holidays.

The Two Kinds.

(By Elbert Hubbard.)

In every business house there are two distinct classes of employers. One we may call the Bunch, and these are out for a maximum wage and a minimum service. They are apt to regard their employer as their enemy, and in their spare time they persistently "knock." They keep bad hours, overeat, overdrink, overdraw their salaries, and are "at their feet" at least one day a week.

The other kind get their sleep, take their cold baths, do their Emersonian, join no cliques, and hustle for the house.

If I were a youth I would not compete in the twelve-dollar-a-week class. Like George Ade, who left Indiana and went to Chicago in order to get away from mental competition, I'd set the Bunch a piece. I would make myself necessary to the business.

No matter how "scarce" times are, there are a few employees who are never laid off, nor are their wages cut down. These are the boys who make the wheels go round. And it is isn't Brains that counts most; it is Intent. The difference is this: the Bunch plot and plan for personal gain—for ease and a good time. The other kind work for the house, and to work for all is the only wise way to help yourself.

A Word to the Wise.

(Merchant Journal.)
Are you laying up stores in these good years against the poor ones which may come?

during the harvest, a drunken of old age will catch you without provender.

No matter who you are, where you are or how old you are, it is your duty to save money.

Are you rich now? You may become poor if you don't save.

Are you poor? You may become rich if you save. You will always remain poor if you don't. Without economy you can't be rich; with it you need not be poor.

To have a surplus—capital in reserve—is simply throwing an anchor to windward.

It will prevent your drifting into the rocks of penury.

If you already have capital, economy will preserve it for your use in times of greater need. If you have none you can acquire it by the same means.

But you must have capital if you would get ahead financially.

Youth is emphatically the time to begin to save, but it is never too late while your earning capacity is greater than the needs of yourself and those dependent upon you.

But saving is a habit, and like most habits of life, in the great majority of cases it must be acquired early if at all.

Indeed, the main object of saving in early life, is not so much the actual amount saved, which may be very small, as it is the formation of the habit of economy.

It is an important moment when a young man or young woman begins to lay aside part of his or her earnings, because from that moment the person ceases to be a slavish dependent and becomes free, independent, and self-reliant.

If you have not begun to save, get started.

Supervisor Knight was out at Pleasant Grove church Monday according to announcement and a contract was awarded for the working up and claying of that stretch of road known to all travellers along the road as the Hortenville sand bed. Mr. C. K. Pegues secured the contract.

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—
