Tillman's Condition Still Improving.

Senator Tillman was seized with an attack of dizziness on the steps of the capital on Wednesday. He was taken to his room by two capitol employees and was later taken to his apartments. It was stated that his illness was a recurrence of his old trouble—hardening of the arteries, resulting in partial paralysis. For a time his life was despaired of, and it was stated that the aphasia—loss of the power to articulate—which had resulted, would deprive him of the power of speech, even if he should survive the attack.

Dr. J. W. Babeock, superintendent of the State hospital for the insane, has been Senator Tillman's personal physician for nineteen years. When he arrived in Washington on Saturday he proceeded at once to the senator's home. He found the patient in better condition than he had surmised. Upon leaving the Tillman apartments shortly after 12 o'clock on Saturday, Dr. Babeock at once sent a telegram to Columbia for the benefit of Governor Ansel and the legislature, then in session.

No sooner had the word of the senator's serious condition gone forth than messages of sympathy began to pour in.

When Senator Tillman suffered the first stroke of paralysis about two years ago, he canceled all his engagements and practically retired from active public life. He went to Europe, accompanied by Dr. Babeock, and enjoyed several months of thorough rest. Last summer Senator Tillman returned to the platform but only for a few engagements in Ohio.

The following despatch was sent out on Sunday night from Washington:

"H-lo, Dr. Babeock" These were the first words Senator Tillman had spoken since early Thursday morning.

He greeted thus his friend and physician this afternoon. Dr. White came in a moment later.

"Do you know who it is, senator?"

The single eye gleamed. "Dr. White," he said.

The physician shut off further efforts at speech, directing that the patient should not exert himself. Nevertheless his returning speech was a source of great gratification.

MUST REST HIMSELF.
 There is no hope that the senator will be able to retain his seat in the senate this session, and even if he is able to do so, his physician will oppose it. Whether he ever will or not one can be safe in predicting. Dr. Babeock who has long been thoroughly familiar with the physique of Senator Tillman, after two days at his bedside, gives to the following summary of the whole of his present condition. His active life was raised when he had an attack of apoplexy. He is mild, as compared with his present illness.

"By rest he almost recovered the effects of the former illness, of which was at the time of his brain. Recently his condition have thought he was looking unusually well but he himself has been apprehensive that another attack was impending. This apprehension he has shown frequently to his family and friends. But no one, not even the senator himself, has anticipated that the second attack would soon to strike him.

"The blow fell almost without warning, following upon a period of unusual worry and anxiety. The symptoms that developed last Wednesday appeared trivial at first, stimulating a fainting attack which came on while in an elevator.

"Following this he was quite cheerful. But Thursday morning the symptoms of a hemorrhage at the base of the left half of the brain became so serious that his physician was called. This apoplectic condition was clearly the result of a ruptured blood vessel, followed by a slow oozing of blood into the brain.

"The center of the brain controlling speech and the right half of the body were involved.

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN
 "His condition became very alarming to all his friends. In the first 24 hours there was little change for the better. In the second day no new symptoms developed. Saturday his mind was clear and he was able to write. To-day his power of speech has returned and there is less paralysis. Of course, this is much more encouraging than was to be expected so soon after an attack of apoplexy apparently so severe.

"The outcome is still doubtful. No one can say what may take place in the next few days.

"Much depends upon rest and quiet. His condition is easily under control of the doctors.

"To-night the senator is propped up in bed. If all goes well, he may sit up in a day or two. His heart is acting normally and he is free from fever. Should the favorable condition continue, however, and the unfavorable symptoms yield to favorable ones, it will at best be a month before the senator can be taken to his home at Trenton."

"The Balfour apartment house, where the Tillmans reside, continues to attract hundreds of callers. President Taft has sent a beautiful token of regard. Cabinet officers and numerous senators have done likewise. Senator Bacon of Georgia says he has never before known a sick senator to receive as much attention from his colleagues or such warm and sincere sympathy.

More money behind each individual policy than in any other company in the United States. Our dividends are as LARGE or LARGER. Some companies estimate that the accumulation of dividends equal four premiums and that a 20 payment life policy is paid for with a sum equal to 16 annual premium payments. Why take an estimation when the Reliance Life guarantees you an amount, on a 20 pay policy, equal to more than 5 1-2 premiums, if allowed to accumulate at 3 1-2 per cent.

On $10,000 policy, 20 payment life, age 30, premium $347.60. Guaranteed accumulation of dividends $1,927.10. Guaranteed cash value end 20 years $7,007.10 or paid up policy $13,380.40. If dividends are used to reduce premiums annually, $41.50 is the first and $173.10 is the 19th dividend guaranteed. Compare these figures with the policy you now have or write for information regarding any policy you would like. Reliance Life policies are second to none. Men of ability wanted to write life insurance on liberal commission contract or straight salary. Golden opportunity.

No young man starting out for himself being dependent upon his own exertions can afford unnecessary expenses. He must always deny himself extras or always remain poor. Even a five cent cigar each day will amount to $18.25 in one year; and one who saves that sum will be much ahead of the one who spends it. And the habit of saving will be worth everything.

$18.25 each year, only putting it at six per cent simple interest, it would in twenty years amount to $570. So much for one little trifle of indulgence. He who would in a few years be independent, and not envy the "capitalist" must start right.

President Taft says that the solution of the negro problem lies in the prosperity of the south.

In the case of Seligan against the city of Anderson the supreme court decided that a mayor of a city has the right to impose a fine for gambling.

Look for the sunshine, and it will come. The clouds are transient, as things of earth; the sun is always behind them, and sometimes when we least expect it the glorious light will shine through.

It is awful nice to sit down and read pretty writing, but the Chronicle is not here for pretty writing. It doesn't know how to hand out literary essays to its readers. Its object is to accomplish something for its readers and its town and its county. It stands for progress and improvement, and every time a proposition comes up that is calculated to help the town or county The Chronicle can always be found in the thick of the fight.

And the senate let the resolution providing for an investigation at Clemson die on the calendar.

An item in the Yorkville Enquirer of Friday states that the competitive examination for the United States Naval Academy was held at that place Thursday, and that the scholarships were won by Mr. Wm. Bell, of Gaffney, and a young man from Winnsboro. There was no applicant from Chesterfield county.
