MASS MEETING OF CITIZENS CALLED

FOR FRIDAY NIGHT, MARCH 29

For the Purpose of Nominating Three Citizens to Serve as a Board of Public Commissioners

The following letter to the Southern Christian Advocate will be read with interest by a great number of our readers who are not readers of the Advocate:

It is late, but not too late, to say that a most cordial welcome was given us when we arrived in Chesterfield, and further, to express our appreciation of great kindness of the good people of the town. We have never served a more thoughtful and liberal souled people. May they richly be rewarded for their goodness to this humble itinerant and his family during last year.

But as to our present work: The Lord has blessed us in our labors. A few weeks ago we raised the debt on St. Paul's church. The debt was nearly $1,300. Then Mr. W. D. Craig gave the church a splendid piano. So we are in better position to do good work.

We began a meeting at St. Paul's the fourth Sunday in March and continued nine days; though the rain interfered so that we missed a few services. The meeting would have continued for some days had I not gotten sick. Also my good co-laborer here, Brother T. B. Owen, was sick. So there was nothing to do but close the meeting. However, I am sure much good was done. The Spirit was manifestly present. Two joined the church, with possibly others to follow.

At Shiloh and Zoar I have missed some appointments on account of snows and rains, and consequently feel that I have done but little so far in those congregations.

I must mention also the surprise given us recently by the St. Paul's congregation. They brought many good things for the inner-man. Not only at this time, however, but all along we have been the recipient of many kindnesses. We shall try to do better service.

The outlook is bright, but there is much to be done. Better Sunday schools, a deeper and more general missionary spirit, a closer fellowship with God on the part of Christians, and a soul-saving rivalry at each church, is the burden of our heart.

Our presiding elder, Brother Massabeau, was with us during the last big snow, and no service was held Sunday. However, those who were present at quarterly conference on Monday were most favorably impressed and helped by his inquiry into and discussion of the Sunday school work.

BLEWETT'S FALLS ELECTRIC POWER

COMING TO "CHARMING CHERAW"

Representatives of the Company Were Here Tuesday—A Proposition Made.

Mr. W. D. Craig, of the Blewett's Falls Hydro Electric Plant, were in Cheraw Tuesday and had a long conference with the town council with the view of arranging for the coming to Cheraw with their electric power.

A proposition was made to buy the town electric lighting plant, and a schedule of charges to be made to consumers was submitted. This data is all in the hands of the council and can be seen by any one interested—we suppose.

As explained to us we think the proposition made by the Blewett's Falls people a most liberal one and one we would not hesitate to recommend the acceptance of.

On motion of Warden Evans the entire matter is to be submitted to a mass meeting of the citizens to be called for one night next week—a night on which President Johnson, of the electric company can be in Cheraw.

PATRICK ITEMS.

Farmers are very busy now hauling out their fertilizer. We are glad to note however that there is not as much going out from here as was last Spring.

Messrs J. Polson and Sam Boan, Jr., are very sick with pneumonia, at this writing.

Miss Nina Gillespie is visiting in Fitzgerald, Ga.

Mr. Quincy Campbell, of Route No. 2, who has been going to school here has returned home.

Mr. Thomas Campbell spent Tuesday last in Chesterfield.

Mr. F. S. Gillespie spent Monday in Cheraw.

Rev. A. W. White, of Jefferson, will preach at the Baptist church Friday night, at the Methodist church, Sunday morning and at the Baptist church Sunday night. All are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Rouena Smith visited relatives in Cheraw last week.

Deputy Sheriff McLaurin passed through town Tuesday with another crazy colored woman, carrying her to the asylum.

Old Uncle Neil Campbell, a colored man in the asylum, died last Wednesday. His remains were brought home Thursday afternoon. He was carried over there about a year ago, and at the time of his death, efforts were being made to get him home, he having recovered his mind. He was a good negro and respected by every one, both black and white.

John Arbuckle, the coffee king, died yesterday at the age of seventy-four.

INCENDIARY FIRE NEAR RUBY

BARN, FEED AND STOCK BURNED

Some Mischief Fires Barn of Mr. J. W. Crowley and His Loss In Very Heavy.

By some unusual noise and called to her husband who immediately arose to investigate. On reaching the door he discovered that one of his barns was on fire. He rushed out and by almost superhuman effort succeeded in rescuing five mules and three horses. The fire, feeding on rough feed, made such headway that one mule and one fine milch cow were burned to death. Besides the mule and horse, about 900 bushels of corn and 11,000 bundles of fodder were burned besides numerous farm utensils. Mr. Crowley estimates his loss at from $3,000 to $3,500, with only $900 insurance.

L.oodhounds from Columbia were sent up on the Saturday morning train. They readily took the trail and within a very short time came to a place in the road, about two miles from the fire, where the trail ended. At this point it was seen that some one had entered a buggy or some other kind of vehicle. It was impossible to follow the trail further as so many vehicles having passed along the road during the morning, there was nothing to show the direction taken by the firebug.

We sympathize with Mr. Crowley and sincerely hope he may be able to apprehend the dastardly coward responsible for the deed.
