KING FREDERICK OF DENMARK DEAD

PASSED AWAY IN GERMANY.

Dead King Was Very Popular With His Subjects and Was a Brilliant Man.

Copenhagen.—Christian X was proclaimed king of Denmark from the balcony of the palace in the presence of a huge concourse of people who had gathered in the square in front of the royal residence. Enthusiastic cheering broke out as the monarch in the uniform of the Royal Guard stepped into the balcony. In his brief speech he paid a tribute to his father and pointed out the difficulties of succeeding such a ruler, concluding: "May God give me strength rightly to rule my dear old country and may it live forever."

Hamburg, Germany.—King Frederick VIII of Denmark died at the Hamburger Hof Hotel.

Christian Frederick was proclaimed king of Denmark as Frederick VIII on January 29, 1906, after the death of Christian IX, the aged king, who was dean of the crown heads of Europe, father of King George of Greece, of the Queen Mother Alexandra of Russia, and of the Emperor Nicholas II of Russia. He was popular with the people of Denmark and was his father. By the wish of his subjects he was brought up with great simplicity. Frederick saw his young brother and his wife become reigning monarchs of Greece and Norway, respectively, while he himself was still an heir apparent.

The bill amends the law to prohibit the issue of injunctions without notice being served on those affected. Such injunctions would be effective for seven days only and renewal would be possible only when the court was convinced such action was necessary. "John Doe" injunctions would be impossible and the rights of "peaceful picketing" would be recognized.

THE FLOWER SHOW A SUCCESS.

The Display of Flowers Were Beautiful—Prizes Were Awarded.

(Contributed.)

Upon Tuesday afternoon, May 7th, 1912, the Semi-Annual Flower Show was given by the women of the Civic League in League hall.

The hall was such a mass of gorgeous bloom that it was quite a few moments before it were possible for the observer to take in all of the beautiful details.

Hanging in the doorway was an exquisite design of a ball of flowers. Immediately in front of the entrance was a large, round table with smaller tables surrounding it. These occupied the central position and were a mass of sweep peas. To the right were the potted plants of all kinds and slips for rooting, which were for sale. Then came the vegetables such as asparagus, lettuce, peas and so forth and also a fine basket of prize strawberries. All around the rest of the room were masses of ferns, geraniums, cacti and roses displayed in the shelves one above the other. There were also magnolias—the first of the year from the garden of Capt. Malloy. Taking the display as a whole it is impossible to conceive of a more beautiful sight.

FLOYD ALLEN CONVICTED.

Trial of Others Now in Progress. Prisoner Defies Law.

Wytheville, Va., May 17.—Floyd Allen's jury today found him guilty of murder in the first degree. Death in the electric chair is the penalty.

After a night of deliberation, which at one time threatened a disagreement, the jury filed into court this morning and delivered its verdict. Sentence was deferred, as Allen may be called as a witness in the trials of his kinsmen, who are also charged with the five murders in Carroll county court.

The other prisoners probably will be tried immediately. Claude, Friel and Victor Allen, Byrd Marion and Sidna Edwards, are under indictment for the murders, while Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, two other members of the gang, are still at large.

On the first ballot taken by the jurors the vote stood ten for murder in the first degree, and two for murder in the second degree.

The verdict came as a distinct surprise, as it was thought the jury was hopelessly divided. One of the twelve men is known to have said previous to being summoned for jury that "you can't always get justice in courts and maybe the Allens were not far wrong," and the attorney for the Commonwealth had arranged to arrange for the arrest of more persons charged with the crime.

N. O. & N. EXPRESS HELD UP AND ROBBED

EXPRESS SAFE DYNAMITED.

It is Believed the Robbers Escaped With More Than $150,000 After Blowing Open Safe.

Hattiesburg, Miss.—Two masked bandits boarded the New Orleans Limited on the New Orleans and Northeastern railroad, eight miles south of this town, dynamited the safe in the express car and escaped.

The robbers did not molest the passengers, but one trainman received serious injuries as he lay bound near the safe when the dynamite blew it to pieces.

The two men boarded the flyer as crowded with passengers, it was about to halt at Okolona to take on water.

The safe was shattered and the bandits had an easy time collecting their loot, most of which was government funds consigned from New Orleans for the East. After collecting his loot and placing it in a leather bag, the bandit who had done the dynamiting joined his companion. Then, warning the train crew not to follow or to give any alarm, they made off in the darkness.

Estimates as to the amount of the loot differ, ranging as high as $150,000. Officials of the Wells-Fargo Express company admitted that the train robbers secured at least $35,000.

The men are believed to be the same who held up a Mobile and Ohio train near Corinth, Miss., in February.

NOTED ANARCHIST IS TARRED

Vigilantes Make Emma Goldman's Partner Kiss the Flag.

San Diego, Cal.—Dr. Ben Reitman, known as "king of the tramps," who has traveled for some years with Emma Goldman, the Anarchist, was kidnaped from the U. S. Grant Hotel here, taken to the LaPesquimitas ranch twenty miles north, forced to kiss the American flag and then tarred and feathered.

After he had been tarred and feathered Reitman was driven northward. Miss Goldman had come to San Diego from Los Angeles to assist in the crusade of the Industrial Workers of the World for "free speech." Reitman has been traveling with Miss Goldman.

The tarring and feathering was a climax of the fight the citizens here have been waging against the industrialists. Reitman sprang into prominence some years ago, when he organized the "hoboes" of Chicago and, with himself as king, marched first to the mayor's office and later to the board of trade.

Georgia Leads in "Moonshining."

Philadelphia.—That in many prohibition states the authorities make little effort to enforce the law against the manufacture of liquor, and that the United States revenue laws need a general revision to capably cover changed condition, was stated by Royal S. Cabell, commissioner of internal revenue. Of the 2,471 illicit stills unearthed last year he said, 901 were in Georgia, 426 in North Carolina, 249 in Alabama, 375 in South Carolina, and 300 in Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.
