NOW PAINT

Strick when the iron is hot and paint when the property needs it.

Their paint ships a dozen times a year; yes, some of them, every voyage. What for, do you think? To look nice and get business.

A livery keeps its carriages painted and varnished and washed, to look nice and get business.

A man, with a house for sale or let, "does it up," and Devoe is the paint.

There's more in paint than to keep-out water. Paint for looks and you needn't think about water. A fresh coat of paint once a year is about as good for his credit as paying his debts. But the man whose buildings and fences look new, very likely, has no debts.

DEVOE

Don't forget the ball game tomorrow afternoon, Dillon high school plays Cheraw high school. Game called at 3:30 sharp.

It is said that thorough soaking in sea water lengthens the life of telegraph poles.

MRS. ELLA McCREIGHT DEAD.

The End Came Tuesday Evening but Was Not Unexpected.

Tuesday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, Mrs. Ella McCreight fell on sleep like a tired child, at her home in this city.

It was just as the shade of evening was falling, when the hustle and bustle of the day were hushed—surely a most fitting time for a pure spirit to take its flight heavenward.

After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, trusted and loved. She reared her own monument in the hearts of all who knew her while she was on earth. Her life was completed if work all done and well done constitutes completion. Her Christian life was beautiful from its beginning to its close, and though all the vicissitudes and sorrows that she met in the way her faith never wavered. She was a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. McCreight was the widow of the late William C. McCreight. She leaves, besides hosts of friends, two sons, Mr. Wilson McCreight of our city, and Mr. Robert McCreight, of Ruby, to mourn her loss.

The funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in St. David's cemetery.

LEG CRUSHED WHEN HE TRIES TO SWING TRAIN.

The little son of Tim Braxton, colored, fell under the wheels of the C. & L. train last Thursday and his right leg was so badly crushed that it had to be taken off at the knee. The boy was attempting to "swing" the train, a habit he was addicted to and which he had frequently been warned against. A peculiar coincidence in this case is that the boy's father lost a leg in his young days in the same manner.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the state of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.
