MORE FEDERAL AID FOR CHESTERFIELD

Hope to Build Section of Road in County.

Prospects for the construction of the section of the Washington-Atlanta highway in Chesterfield county that has not been rebuilt to conform with the other sections of this road in the state appear to be much better now. A stretch of about 30 miles in that county has been giving considerable trouble this year and efforts to get the county to reconstruct the stretch have been without result, it is said. Yesterday Charles H. Moorefield, state highway engineer, addressed a letter to G. W. Duvall, chairman of the Chesterfield county commission informing him of the action of the state highway commission allotting an additional $20,000 of federal aid to be used on this road in the county. If the county matches this sum, there will be available $40,000 and this will reconstruct nearly half of the 30 miles.

If the county matches this $20,000 it is very probable that more federal aid can be procured from the new appropriation to be applied on the remaining stretch. Highway authorities and travelers are in hopes that the section in Chesterfield can be reconstructed, as it is said to be the worst link of the highway in South Carolina.

In Saluda county a four mile stretch remains to be completed and the highway commission has allotted $6,000 federal aid to this project. With $6,000 from the county this four mile stretch can be put in excellent condition, the department believes. When this section is completed the road from Columbia to Augusta will be finished and will be one of the best highways in the state.

Mothers Club to Hold Story Hour.

As know the mothers in town will be interested to hear that the "Mothers Club" is to have a Story Hour for the children one Friday afternoon in each month at the School Auditorium. The first Story Hour will be conducted on Friday, Nov. 4th at 4 p. m., to last one hour.

It gives us great pleasure to announce that Mrs. W. T. Thrower has consented to tell some of her best stories at this time, and this assures the children an hour of splendid entertainment, for everyone knows Mrs. Thrower's gifts along this line.

All children in town, from the 1st to the 5th grades, are cordially invited to be present, and any of the parents who desire may come. All are urged to be on time.

Funeral of Arthur J. Polson.

Arthur J. Polson, 21 years of age, died in Germany on June 10th, 1st of pneumonia and his remains were brought to Cheraw and buried Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. W. E. Hurt officiating.

Young Polson is the son of Mrs. Sallie Polson of Cheraw. He joined the army since the Armistice. He was sent direct to Germany where he was serving with the army of occupation at the time of his death.

WEEKLY COTTON LETTER.

By Savannah Cotton Factorage Co. (All inquiries answered promptly.)

In our Cotton Letter of October 18th we advised everyone to margin their cotton to safe figures and hold for higher prices. January contracts in New York closed that day at 17.80. The same month closed today at 19.14 and we expect to see still higher figures by Tuesday, November 1st.

While the railroad strike has not been definitely settled, it is reported that not more than 25% of the workers will really go out. This means that business will not be paralyzed, and the strike will probably be of short duration.

The Ginnings Report to October 18th was published at 10 o'clock this morning as follows:

Ginned to Oct. 18th

1921, 5,477,397 bales.
1920, 5,754,582 bales.
1919, 4,929,104 bales.
1918, 6,811,351 bales.
1917, 5,573,606 bales.
1916, 7,303,183 bales.
1915, 5,708,730 bales.
1914, 7,619,749 bales.

Private estimates have been around 5,500,000 to 5,700,000 bales, and today's official figures showing only 5,477,347 bales ginned had a Bullish effect on the market. New York futures advanced sharply, closing steady, 71 to 85 points up.

In view of the fact that exports, domestic mill takings and all other statistics are Bullish, we feel it our duty to advise owners of cotton to hold at least a portion of their stocks for prices above 20 cents.

Sherrill Poulnot.

The people of Cheraw witnessed a beautiful church wedding at the Methodist church here on last Wednesday at six o'clock when Miss Ora Oneita Sherrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sherrill, of near Cheraw, became the bride of Dr. Frederick S. Poulnot of Charleston.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and yellow and white chrysanthemums. A white trellis work covered with smilax and chrysanthemums was placed just in front of the choir loft with ferns banked on both sides and a row of lighted candles along the rail of the choir loft which showed above the trellis made a wonderful background for the wedding scene. On both ends of the Chancel rail were white columns about six feet high, capped with baskets, artistically filled with white and yellow chrysanthemums. Half way from the door to the altar an arch spanned the aisle in which swung two gates made of material which matched the trellis mentioned above.

Beginning the ceremony Miss Evelyn Smith played several beautiful organs numbers. Mrs. G. F. Kirby sang "I Love You Truly" and "O, Perfect Love" and Dr. Bunch, accompanied by Miss Smith on the organ and Mr. Sumwalt on the violin, sang "Somewhere a Voice is Calling". As the choir sang Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus the attendants assembled in the following manner:

First came the page, Master Wilton Poulnot of Charleston, dressed in a black velvet suit, who opened the gates for the entrance of the procession. Then came the four ushers, Messrs. Claude and Frank Sherrill, brothers of the bride, Chas. Poulnot of Charleston and Westley Muckenfuss of Aiken. Following the flower girls little Misses Katherine Funderburk and Kathleen Sherrill came the bridesmaids, Misses Lucy Poulnot of Charleston, Sadie McElveen of Lake City, Ruth Laney of Cheraw and Flora Thompson of Titusville, Fla., all gowned in handsome dresses of yellow taffeta trimmed with lace and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Tillman came next and wore a beautiful tomato colored satin gown over laid with yellow maline and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The tiny ring bearer, little Miss Bruce Sherrill, in her little bridal attire, was followed by the bride, bewitchingly pretty in her wedding gown of white satin, short, with the train caught and suspending from the shoulders, a capped veil fitting closely around her head, on the arm of her father, Mr. G. A. Sherrill. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Joe Poulnot, of Charleston. Rev. G. F. Kirby performed the ring ceremony.

After a large reception held at the home of the bride's parents at Liberty Hill Farm, the happy couple boarded the northbound train at 7:58, their destination being unknown.

Fire Destroys Home of B. F. Pegues.

Early this (Thursday) morning Mr. B. F. Pegues lost his home and entire contents by fire. Mrs. Pegues was away on a visit and when awakened by someone outside Mr. Pegues found the house almost entirely enveloped in flames and only managed to save a trunk and some few pieces of silver.

The origin of the fire is unknown but when first seen by neighbors it was burning the roof of the dining room on the opposite side of the house where Mr. Pegues was sleeping. The fire department were a little slow in responding to the call and were handicapped by the pressure engine on the truck being out of commission.

It was with difficulty that the house of H. W. Wannamaker on the lot adjoining was saved.

Mr. Pegues had $1000.00 insurance on his house and $1500.00 on his furniture which covers only a small part of his loss.

Auction Sales a Success.

On Wednesday Oct. 19th a number of small farms were offered for sale at auction by Mr. J. B. Bundy. About six farms containing a total of 35 acres were sold averaging about $200. per acre.

On Tuesday of this week Mr. S. T. A. McManus offered a number of business lots located in front of the A. C. L. freight depot at auction and sold 10 averaging $700 per lot.

Both sales are considered successes and were conducted by Crosland-Tyson Realty and Auction Co. of Bennettsville.

GRAVES IN ST. DAVID'S CEMETERY

Near the fence between the church and Church street is the grave of W. H. H. Richards. Died Feb. 29, 1884.

He came to Cheraw as a federal soldier in the garrison which was posted here immediately after the Civil War. He married in Cheraw and settled here and for some years prior to his death he was chief of police of the town. In February 1884 he was shot by Capt. Bogan Cash at the corner where the knitting mill is now located. He died from his wounds a few days later.

Cash in firing at him, missed the first shot and accidentally killed Mr. Coward, a brother of Mr. A. B. Coward.

This affair led to the death of Capt. Cash, who was killed by a posse in the swamp below Cash's depot the following May.

Offers Five Dollars for A Name

At a recent meeting of the Local Post American Legion the following self explaining resolution was adopted. Moved and adopted that Post Adj. be directed to offer a $5.00 cash prize through Cheraw Chronicle for best suggested name for the Local Post of the American Legion which shall be accepted by said body. The suggested name to be such as to pay individual honor to each of the following heroes of the World War:

Daniel O. Spencer
William A. Mulloy
Hubert P. Terrell
Thomas J. Bundy
Walter McIntosh

That the Adj. W. C. Coward receive all suggested names keeping secret the applicants for the prize until after the award of same. That the Post Commander appoint a committee of three to receive the suggested names from the Adj., said committee not presenting for a vote of its members such names as clearly do not conform to conditions. That the Adj., file suggested names as received by him together with names giving only the suggested names to committee. In case the same name is presented twice the first applicant presenting receive the prize.

OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN COLUMBIA

The third annual Older Boys' Conference of South Carolina will be held in Columbia December 2nd, 3rd and 4th. The Columbia people are already preparing to entertain two hundred and seventy-five boys from over the State. Not only will boys be invited from organized associations, but each high school in the state will be asked to send from four to six boys to attend this conference.

A very strong program is being set up, and any association or high school that does not have representatives at this conference will be the loser. In addition to the number of boys who will themselves participate in the program, a strong group of speakers has been secured among them, C. C. Robinson, New York, International Secretary of Boys' Work, who is considered one of the strongest speakers in the country, having spoken not only in every State in the Union, but has also visited many of the Associations in foreign fields; Dr. C. V. Aiken, of Columbia, who is connected with the State Board of Health, has a message that every high school boy in the State ought to hear; J. E. Johnson, Student Secretary of the State Committee of South Carolina, who has just returned from a trip to Europe, has a message of importance to the boys of our State. W. L. Chandler, of New York, one of the International Secretaries for Religious Work, will conduct the devotional periods throughout the conference. Mr. Chandler was located for a number of years in Atlanta as the Southern International Boys' Work Secretary.

The boys from over the State will be entertained in the homes of the good people of Columbia. The Chamber of Commerce will furnish a banquet on Friday evening, the 2nd, free to the boys. This banquet to be served by the Mother's Club of the Columbia Association.

Information will be sent at an early date to all of the Associations and high schools in the State. Any one desiring information regarding this conference should write to B. A. Schnell, 205 Association Building, Columbia, S. C., who has the program in hand.

THEY ARE WEARING

Pinafore collars and cuffs made of crossbar toweling were worn with a navy jersey dress.

Brown suits trimmed with black fur and various combinations from black and brown are being worn.

A long bloused coat was worn at luncheon this week, the skirt section of black Marvella and the entire top of moleskin.

Even the flapper is remembering that she has ears and is decorating them with pendant earrings.

A great deal of red was noted at one of the restaurants after the theatre hour. In many cases red hats were worn with dark costumes, and there was one striking costume of Spanish genre with black lace posed over red silk, the hat a straight brimmed Spanish sailor with a red rose tucked under the brim to correspond with the corsage rose, and a huge lace scarf falling off the back to below the knees.

Among the new fall garments recognized on wearers along Fifth avenue have been coats with big sleeves which are all over embroidered and box type suits with pockets of fur to match the collars.

Paisley trims are evidently coming to the fore; two navy dresses, one in cloth and the other silk, worn on Fifth avenue, was trimmed with it.

At one of the important local football games the preponderance of hats in vivid orange tones made the crowded stands very brilliant.

Among the diners in the new Green Room of the Plaza the majority of the evening wraps were of metallic fabrics and fur combined.

One of the first Kreue Nnit dresses to be observed on a consumer was seen on a smartly dressed woman at Staten Island last week end. The black knitted fabric was combined with what appeared to be gray crepe de Chine, used for facing of flying panels and for other trimming details.

A small black duvetyne hat had its upturned brim circled with coral chenille in the shape of star fish.

Remember you can get your Wheat, Rye, Vetch and Oats from THE PURE SEED CO., they keep the best on the market.

Mr. Charlie Brock visited Mr. W. T. Wallace Sunday.

Miss Mary Rivers spent Sunday with Miss Aletha Johnson.

The Kimberly Orchard Co., is making progress clearing land for a peach orchard. Mr. Ed Reid of Marburg is overseer of the work and is a fine business man.

CLOGGED BLOOD WITHERS THE BODY

Workers Sick and Weak from Exertion Take Gude's Pepto-Mangan

Men and women who toil, either physically or mentally, use up energy. When they overwork they use up more energy, and sometimes the blood gets in a run-down condition. Without rest the blood cannot get back to normal so that it becomes clogged with waste matter from over-exertion. The clogged blood virtually withers the body. The strained looks on pale faces, the thin, bloodless arms, the sunken cheeks and necks, the dead-tired feeling, are the results of stale blood depriving the system of life-giving oxygen.

Workers go to the drug store and get Gude's Pepto-Mangan when they feel weak and run down. They take it in either liquid or tablet form. That makes the blood rich and red and drives out the poisons. Life-giving oxygen, carried by the little red cells, renews the strength and builds up the entire system. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. Advertisement.

Billy Boll Weevil.

Billy Weevil isn't coming. For, by jings, he's ready here. Get tuned up and keep a-humming. Be prepared another year.

'Tis one thing can't be forgotten. That more grain you'll have to sow. There's pay in other crops than cotton. Those other crops you'd better grow.

Plan right now to do more fencing. Try your best at home to live. The situation's so convincing. Your time and talent you must give.

Resolve this day to do much canning. Of your produce in '22. Now's the time to do your planning. It will bring success to you.

Start an orchard without delay. November's the proper time, you see. Let fruit and profit come your way. A source of income, soon 'twill be.

Ever co-operate with your neighbor. Help him plan to do his best. It will save both time and labor. Plan to give Billy Weevil a rest.

Make your home a place of beauty. Let "King Cotton" take a seat. Grow food crops—for 'tis your duty. To grow such crops as Billy can't eat.

To the South's great fleecy staple crop. You cannot say "Good-by". Grow what you can, but do not drop. Your plan to diversify.

The all-cotton farmer's sun has set. His day is past and gone. Billy Weevil's on the job, you bet. He will surely hold his own.

Familiar's the record of Billy Weevil. He doesn't have to advertise. Is he here for good or evil? Perhaps a blessing in disguise. Calvin Brock, R. F. D. 1 Cheraw
