CALHOUN HIGHWAY GETS ATTENTION

Three Big Bridges to be Constructed on Road-Makes Fourth

Route.

Considerable progress has been made on the Calhoun highway since its incorporation into the state system by the highway commission and reports from officers of the Calhoun Highway association, which is promoting the road, indicate that this road will be rapidly built and every possible effort to speed up the work will be made. This highway has now been recognized by the Georgia and South Carolina highway departments.

The route runs from Cheraw across Chesterfield county to Lancaster, thence to Chester, Carlisle, Whitmire, Clinton, Mountville, Cross Hill, Coro-Falls, Elberton and Athens, Ga. 1t will probably reduce the mileage of tween Raleigh and Atlanta by about 40 or 45 miles, and will be a strong gram was as follows: competitor for recognition as a short route of the Bankhead National high-

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the assiciation authority was given for the development of a branch line, Cheraw to Wilmington, N. C., which would give a short route from Wilmington to Atlanta and the West. This road will be a complete top soil road early in 1922 across Chesterfield county. Lynches river bridge is now about to be built.

Lancaster county expects to have the road finished across that county by the middle of 1922. A portion of the road has been built in Chester county, but the section from two miles west of Chester to Broad river has given for a bond issue which will pronot been built. Authority has been given for a bond issue which will produce funds to complete the route when the bonds can be sold at par. One township in Union county has also provided for a bond issue, with which it will build the Calhoun highway across the township where it comes within three miles of the Appa. lachian highway, aready constructed into Whitmire.

Counties at Work.

Newberry county requires only to improve the Appalachian highway and to build one mile to the Laurens county line. Laurens county is now with a force of 85 laborers between Whitmire and Clinton, and has already built the greater portion of the road from Clinton to Mountville. This section has not yet been top soiled, but wil be topsoiled during the winter.

Federal aid will be sought for the three large bridges and possibly for the Saluda bridge. Other smaller bridges will have to be improved later. May Reopen Next Year.

It is highly likely that the route will be declared open for traffic not later than July 1 1922, though three of the rivers will have to be crossed by ferry at that time. It is the desire of the association to have no tolls, but to have free bridges and free roads throughout ultimately. Temporarily, however, toll ferries will be depended upon for the three large river crossings.

The Calhoun Highway association has several thousand members, and is organized in local highway clubs along the route, each local association having a president, secretary and are county vice presidents, and also B. REMEMBER THE ORPHANS ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Work Day Thanksgiving Appeal Is Made For the Orphan Boys and Girls in the Four Church Orphanages of the State. Need is Urgent.

As your thoughts turn towards Thanksgiving, think of the orphan boys and girls of the State, and through your contribution help to make their lives happy on this oc. casion, remembering the words of the Master, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

There are in the four church orphanages of the state, 988 fatherless children, who must be cared for. They are divided as follows: 100 in the Church Home, Episcopal, York, S. C., 223 in Epworth Orphanage, Methodist. Columbia, S. C., 350 in Connie Maxwell, Baptist, Greenwood, S. C., and 315 in Thornwell Orphanage, Presbyterian, Clinton, S. C. These bright, sweet children must be fed, support for their maintenance must be provided entirely by the church and individual gifts. All of the institutions, due to the financial depression of the past few months, have suffered from a lack of funds and their needs at present are urgent.

A state-wide appeal is therefore being made for a Work-Day Thanksgiving offering in their behalf. You are asked to contribute at least one day's wages, or the proceeds therefrom, to the orphanage of your preference. This is a small request we are making for these orphan children, and one day donated to the "homes of the fatherless" will work a hardship up-Day Thanksgiving Appeal. The Intosh. Methodists in South Carolina are asked to turn their help to Epworth Orphanage, the Baptists to Connie Maxwell, the Episcopalians to the Church Home, while the Presbyterians will give their aid to the Thornwell Orphanage. The appeal is urgent. The orphans must be remembered. Send in your contribution, thereby helping to pro vide for the care of these boys and girls and bringing happiness and joy into their lives.

"BE SQUARE" CONFERENCE AT LYRIC NOV. 20th.

Much interest is being shown in the "Be Square" Conference to be held at four o'clock on the afternoon of November 20th at the Lyric Theatre and attended by Marshall Woodson, the popular young people's Superintendent of the State Sunday School Convention.

The two teams in the attendance contests, "The Reds" led by Miss Sue Francis Lytton and "The Blues" led by Miss Belle Hurt are busy at work getting the various young people pledged for attendance. Each person who promises to attend is promptly tagged with the color of the side go ting his promise. At the meeting a call of colors will be made. The side that is able to show the greatest number of persons wearing their color will be given an attractive "Be Square" pennant. In the absence of the local superintendent of the young people's division of the County Sunday School Asso. ciation L. M. Evans and Joe Lindsay are in general charge of arrangements but the meeting will be worked up

Bennettsville, Nov. 14.-Tom Watson, a young negro, about 19 years old, is in jail here, charged with criminal assault upon a young white girl about 14 years old near Sunset. This girl and her younger sister were on their way home. The negro called and the children ran. He overtook them and they called for help. He is alleged to have assaulted the larger girl. The slarm was given. Rural Policeman Chavis lives near and in a few hours he had a negro answering the description. The negro was taken before them. The children identified him as the negro wanted. Chavis rushed Watson to jail before a large crowd gathered. Bloodhounds were put on the track at the scene of the assault and they followed a trail leading to the house visited by Chavis in his pursuit and to the house where Watson was arrested. The ne gro's clothing indicated his guilt. Rural Policeman Chavis, by being near and by quick action, prevented a possible lynching. The negro being in jail, no violence is now expect-
