VOL. 26

HON. W. P. POLLOCK PASSES

On last Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock the death angel dealt this community a staggering blow when Hon. William Pegues Pollock was removed from our midst. Mr. Pollock had been in ill health since he suffered a violent attack some months ago, but recently he had recovered to such an extent as to raise hope for his ultimate recovery. However, Friday morning he raised up in bed and fell back, dying in a very short time.

Mr. Pollock was 52 years of age and was the son of the late Capt. Alex and Rebecca Pegues Pollock. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Bessie Salley, of Orangeburg and the following sisters: Mrs. Henry Rogers, of Rockingham, N. C., Mrs. Charlotte Harrell and Mrs. T. E. Wannamaker, Sr., of Cheraw, Mrs. T. T. Brooks, of Greenboro, N. C., Mrs. Waddill Pegues, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Rathburn, of Providence, R. I.

Mr. Pollock was a prominent figure in South Carolina politics, having gained special prominence in the campaign of 1914 for the U. S. Senate and later in 1918 when he was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator B. R. Tillman. He represented Chesterfield county several terms in the legislature and served his county many times as a delegate to the State Conventions.

Mr. Pollock's love for Cheraw always prompted him to take special interest in the affairs of our town and he could always be counted on to help in any enterprise that was for the good of this community.

His generosity was known and felt by many people, both white and black, and his numerous deeds of kindness and mercy will be remembered, though he is gone. He was a member of St. David's Episcopal Church.

The funeral services were held at this church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In spite of the very inclement weather the large church was crowded to the door. Numbers of out of town relatives and friends came long distances to be present at the last sad honoring of a much admired friend. The honorary pall bearers were Judge Edw. Melver, Sen. Geo. K. Laney, Judge M. J. Hough, Sen. D. D. McCall, F. P. B. Pegues, Col. T. C. Mamer, Wm. Godfrey, Willis Pegues, Major J. J. Evans, Mayor C. L. Humley, J. A. Spruille, R. J. Little, Tyler Watson, Joe Lindsay, E. W. Duvall, J. W. Brasington, B. F. Pegues, R. T. Caston, C. L. Prince, Laboste Evans, L. M. Evans, W. D. James, Mr. Kilgo, A. F. Hilliard, P. B. Huntley, M. W. Duvall, J. R. Harrall and D. S. Matheson.

The active pall bearers were C. K. Waddill, L. C. Wannamaker, E. H. Duvall, R. R. Hickson, of Cheraw, Dr. Bruce Edgerton and Rutledge McGee of Columbia, S. C.

Many beautiful floral tributes covered the grave.

The Rev. O. T. Porcier of Bennettsville, conducted the services and Messrs. H. L. Powe, G. A. Bunch, E. J. Cooper, J. D. Smith, E. Malloy, T. G. Matheson, W. T. Powell and Dr. O. H. Purvis sang the hymns.

DEATH OF SENATOR POLLOCK THREE PALL OVER CONGRESS

Special to "The State." Washington, June 2.—News of the death of ex-Senator W. P. Pollock of South Carolina threw a pall around congress today. Senator Pollock served only a few months following his election to complete the term of the late Senator Tillman. In that time he made many friends in senatorial circles. "Senator Pollock was a most lovable man," said Senator E. D. Smith, when informed of his death. "I am grieved at his passing."

Senator Dial said: "Senator Pollock was a representative South Carolinian who served the state splendidly in many particulars."

Representative J. F. Byrnes said: "Senator Pollock took a conspicuous part in one of the political crises of the state and his earnestness on the stump contributed greatly to the safe passage of the state out of that crisis."

Others than South Carolinians were affected. Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democratic leader, said: "Senator Pollock was a real Democrat, a strong man and an effective legislator. He won the hearts of his colleagues during his brief service in congress."

Career in Public Life

The congressional directory gives the following sketch of Mr. Pollock: "William Pegues Pollock of Cheraw, son of Alexander A. Pollock, of Abbeville county, Virginia, and Rebecca Irby Pegues, of Marlboro county, South Carolina, born near Cheraw, Chesterfield county, December 9, 1870. He was educated at the private and public schools and at the University of South Carolina; taught school for two years; won appointment to West Point in competitive examination, but was rejected on physical examination; served two years as clerk of District of Columbia committee in Fifty-second congress. Commenced practice of law

CHERAW'S GOLDEN RULE SALES DAY JUNE 19TH

Cheraw merchants who adopted the Neosha Plan brought to Cheraw by Mr. G. R. Lowe, of Missouri, under the auspices of the S. A. L. R. R., have named Monday, June 19th as the date of the first Golden Rule Sales Day. The farmers of this community should realize that the men who form this advertising club are spending considerable money in order to make this day a success for the farmer.

They are hiring an auctioneer to be placed at the disposal of the farmers on that day to sell his surplus farm implements, machinery, produce or anything he cares to offer.

They will offer bargains from their stores that will be real guaranteed bargains. Every farmer should come to town on that day whether they buy or not to help boost the proposition. See next week's paper for full particulars.

COTTAGE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSN. ORGANIZED

The Cottage Building and Loan Association will collect the first payment on the stock sold on June 13th.

This Association promises to be a great help to the building up of Cheraw. Their by-laws stipulate that no loan shall be made for more than $1500 and that the money shall be used for a new building or for remodeling. The officers and directors elected are: J. O. Raley, president; W. E. Duvall, vice president; L. S. Gibson, secretary and treasurer.

The directors are: J. W. Maynard, J. O. Raley, B. F. Pegues, W. E. Duvall, T. B. Davis, L. S. Gibson.

Another director will be elected by the stockholders.

BIG MEN ON PROGRAM OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Spartanburg, S. C.—Announcement has just been made here that a number of "big men" of several denominations are to have a place on the programme of the State Convention of the South Carolina Sunday School Convention which meets at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, for a three day session, beginning June 20. Among those who are to be convention "head-liners" are Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College, one of the leading Methodists of the State and Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, president of Furman University, Greenville, who is also president of the general board of the Baptist State Convention. Dr. McGlothlin is also vice chairman of the Educational Committee of the South Carolina Sunday School Association. Among the other prominent religious leaders who will address the convention are: Bishop Kirkman G. Finlay of the Episcopal Church; Dr. W. H. Hudson, returned missionary from China and moderator of the Presbyterian Church Synod of South Carolina and Dr. S. J. Derrick, president of Newberry College (Lutheran) Newberry.

In 1893 in Chesterfield county and has practiced law and farmed ever since. Elected to legislature in 1894 at the age of 23 and reelected in 1896, serving until 1898 when he made the race for congress and was defeated.

"He was Democratic presidential elector in 1900. Was reelected to legislature in 1902 and again in 1905, serving until 1906. Has been delegate to practically every county and state Democratic convention from Chesterfield since 1894 and president of county Democratic convention many times. Delegate at large to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis in 1916. President of South Carolina state convention in 1918. Nominated in Democratic primary in competition with Senator Benet and Attorney General Peoples in 1918, and was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator B. R. Tillman. Mr. Pollock married Miss Bessie Salley of Orangeburg."

Governor Harvey's Comment
Governor Harvey yesterday spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Pollock "I have always had a very high admiration for Mr. Pollock," Governor Harvey said. "He was a man of manifested public spirit and served his state well. In his death the state suffers a loss that cannot be easily replaced." The governor sent messages of condolence to the grief stricken family.

"I have known Mr. Pollock for many years and his worth can not be estimated. He was a man of fine character, a smart and shrewd thinker," Gen. Willie Jones said. "His death is of the state."

General Jones has for many years been an officer in the Democratic party of this state.

The flags over the State House were at half mast during the day in respect to Mr. Pollock.

Mr. J. B. Isgett has returned from several days stay with his mother in Macon, Miss. He was accompanied home from Atlanta, by his wife, who has been visiting there for several days.

BACKWARD GLANCES

News Our Great Grandfathers Read in The Charleston Courier May 30, 1822

Navigation in the South

Cheraw, May 25.—A little swell in the Pee Dee river has brought safe to this place; the Maid of Orleans with our shore both of the steamboats of her cargo, and the Pee Dee with her two two boats—we may, therefore, thank Providence, and not the Board of Public Works, for the continuance of our navigation thus far.

It is to be feared the navigation must soon cease on the Pee Dee river, if not for want of water, yet on account of the perils attending northern constitutions in this climate, especially when exposed on the water in the summer season. It is a reflection upon our state, that so great and so useful an art as that of engineering, should not be more cultivated by native citizens of this climate. Thousands of natives are found, whose constitutions enable them to sustain the noxious air of the river and swamp in the occupation of overseas. If such could be taught the art of engineering, they might render great advantages to navigation. While we are compelled to employ persons who cannot with safety remain here longer than the first of June, we must be contented to lose nearly one-half the year's navigation.

MRS. SILER ENTERTAINS THE BOOK CLUB

(Maxton "Scottish Chief")
On last Monday evening the members of the Book Club and their husbands—those fortunate enough to possess them were most delightfully entertained at the Manse by Mrs. E. L. Siler. Wild fern, bamboo vines and wild hunchucks, blended beautifully with roses in the decorations.

Each person present was asked to represent some book, and much amusement was afforded by the efforts—some successfully, and some woe of the mark—to guess the name of the book. Not many knew that "Son of Battle" meant "Bob, Son of Battle," though worn conspicuously by Mr. Robert Croom. Some of the other good ones were a burnt match, signifying "The Light that Failed," a rose inside of a large circle meaning "The Rose in the Ring," and who would know that a figure 8 on one arm and a 9 on the other was meant to be added together to spell "Seventeen"—specially when these were worn by one who was supposed to be just "sweet sixteen."

Another great treat given the guests was some delightful music by Miss Anita Ast, of Fayetteville, who came over for the occasion and charmed every one of her marvelous violin music, sweetly and artistically accompanied by Miss Ruth Siler. Some said they could not find words to express their enjoyment of the music.

The guests of honor were Mrs. Siler's sister, Mrs. C. P. Johnson, and Miss Carrie Lee Prince, of Washington, D. C. Each was most tastefully and eloquently gowned, added much to the pleasure of the evening by their presence and personality.

At the request of some of the guests Miss Ruth rendered, in her sweet way, some vocal and instrumental solos. Miss Ast was extremely generous with her encore and seemed to love to play as much as her audience enjoyed listening.

At the close of the entertainment Mrs. Siler served delicious brick ice cream and cake. All went away feeling they were indebted to Mrs. Siler and her charming sisters for one of the most delightful evenings they had spent in a long while, and even the men who were present and who do not ordinarily enjoy such social functions, felt they would have indeed missed a rare treat if they had remained at home.

CHERAW VOTING PRECINCT DIVIDED

The Chesterfield County Democratic Executive Committee has divided Cheraw Precinct into two boxes so that the Eastern precinct will be known as Precinct No. 1, and the voting place will be at the Cheraw Town Hall.

The Western precinct will be known as Cheraw No. 2, with voting place at H. B. Pollock's Store in Kinland, the dividing line between the two precincts is the A. C. L. R. R. near Gainey's store to the "Y".

Mr. H. T. Caulder has the Club Roll for Cheraw No. 2, and he with the other two members of the enrollment committee will make every effort to enroll all voters.

Mr. Joe Lindsay has the Club Roll for Cheraw No. 1.

MRS. LILLIE D. JOHNSON

Mrs. Lillie D. Johnson, wife of P. C. Johnson, died Wednesday May 30th, about 2 o'clock A. M., after an illness of several months of chronic nephritis. Funeral services were conducted at Oak Grove at 10 o'clock Thursday by her pastor, Rev. J. B. Prosser.

Mrs. Johnson was about 27 years old, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Driggers. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church of which she has been a member since before her marriage about nine years ago. She was a woman of strong christian character, one who loved the work of the Sunday School and all christian work. It was such an inspiration to her many friends and neighbors who visited her during her long illness to see how patiently and well she bore her sickness, and how thoughtful of others and appreciative she was of any little thing they did for her. She will be sadly missed by her Christian friends, the members of the Sunday School and all who know her.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by her husband, P. C. Johnson, two small sons, Odell and Joseph, age seven and five years, also her father and mother, three sisters and five brothers.

May God's richest blessings rest on the bereaved family and may the memory of wife so true and Mother so kind to husband and children left behind. Her gentle, thoughtful and loving way. Be a guide to them every day.

A Friend.

NOTICE OF RE-ENROLLMENT IN CHESTERFIELD COUNTY

Under the rules of the Democratic Party a re-enrollment is required for each election year and this is mandatory. The enrollment books will be open at the various clubs on Tuesday, the sixth (6th) day of June, 1922 and will close on Tuesday, July 25th, 1922.

The Democratic Executive Committee respectfully urges every democrat to enroll and under the rules of the Party, unless your name is on the club roll of your precinct you cannot vote and must enroll in the club nearest your residence, calculated by the nearest practical route.

The rules of the party further provide:

"Each applicant for enrollment shall in person write upon the club roll his (or her) full name and immediately thereafter his (or her) age, occupation and postoffice address, and if in a city or town shall write the name of the street number of the house in which applicant resides, if such designations exists in such city or town."

"If the name be illegible the Secretary shall write the name beneath the signature of the applicant. In the event of the inability of the applicant to write he (or she) may make his (or her) mark upon the roll, which shall be witnessed by the Secretary or other person then having the custody thereof, and if the Secretary shall fill in other requirements."

Under the laws of the State and the rules of the Party the women have the full right of suffrage and they are most respectfully invited to enroll for the elections and their failure to enroll and vote would give other sections of the State a voting advantage.

All democrats who are properly enrolled and who have reached the age of TWENTY-ONE YEARS, or shall become so before the general election in November, and who have been in the State TW OYEARS and in the County SIX MONTHS and in the voting precinct 60 DAYS prior to the first primary to be held on 29th day of August shall be entitled to vote, provided, of course, they are citizens of the United States and of South Carolina.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Supreme Judge of the Universe has decreed that the earthly labors of our beloved friend and fellow member of the Chesterfield County Bar Association, William Pegues Pollock, should cease, and,

WHEREAS, the United States of America has lost a statesman of high ideals and broad vision; the State of South Carolina has lost one of her brightest jewels, a gifted and loyal son; the bar of the State an earnest and honorable lawyer and advocate; and the members of this association a true and loyal friend, a devoted and kind co-worker and counselor, whose unflinching courtesy and kindness, and whose consecrated zeal in the paths of honor and righteousness shall ever remain and be treasured in our memories;

NOW BE IT RESOLVED by the Chesterfield County Bar Association, in meeting assembled, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the association, a copy thereof sent to the family of our deceased member, and a copy thereof published in the newspapers of Chesterfield County.

CHESTERFIELD COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION.

BEST METHODISTS OF DEVELOPING CIVIC PRIDE

Civic League's Prize Winning Essay Won by Miss Polly Harrall.

"Civic Pride" means that each individual should take an interest in and promote anything that tends to a betterment of our town, be it physical, mental, moral, or spiritual. Our next question is: "How can we get our citizens to take a personal interest in the welfare of our town?" While a few have realized this need and are exerting every effort, there is still a vast number whom the spirit of community welfare has not reached.

Our ancestors so wisely layed off our town with its broad streets and rows of beautiful trees which have been handed down as a heritage to us. When we think that many of our grand old trees were planted by loving hands, we should guard them carefully.

In developing civic pride, first, we must look at our homes, and see that they are made more beautiful. This we can do at little expense. The native grass, if kept mowed, is beautiful. What more beautiful flowers could we wish for than mountain laurels, azaleas, yellow jasmines, fringe-trees and dog-woods? These and many others can be gotten from our woods. Some may say, "how can we encourage people to beautify their homes?" It might help to have printed in the paper at intervals a list of those whose appearance comes up to par—a certain standard set by the civic authorities. If our homes are beautiful, we take more civic pride in our town.

Our competent mayor, his assistants and the Civic League have done wonderful work to develop civic pride. In spite of the efforts of these faithful workers, there are still people who persist in throwing papers in public places and in scattering rubbish where it may be seen. A good remedy for this is one which has just gone into effect. That is, to make one person on each block responsible for the appearance of his block. Another great benefit to the town would be the covering up of our open, mosquito-breeding ditches. This would not only add to the beauty of our town, but also improve the health conditions.

How can civic pride be developed in our school? Shrubby could be planted around the building, each grade being responsible for a certain part of the work. This would help cultivate civic pride among the children.

Another way to develop civic pride is to make our stations more attractive. If they are ill-kept, strangers are apt to get a wrong impression of Cheraw. Let us try to make our stations as attractive as possible, for who does not wish one's town to appear to the best advantage?

Last, but by no means least, we should show in some outward way the pride which we so deeply feel for the brave boys who gave their lives for a cause that was just. We have planted trees in their memory; a park has been suggested, also a community house. But let us all get-together and make some beautiful memorial for Our Boys, for there is no one who does not love, honor and revere them.

In order our civic pride to show, we must rake and mow before our door; And after this is thru, we must look around.

And help with the good work all over the town; Our labors finished we'll take a rest, And know that our town is among the best!

Let the word go out to all the voters so that there will be no reason for anyone in the County being deprived of his vote in the coming election. The Executive Committee at all time will be glad to give any additional information.

M. J. HOUGLH,
Secretary.

D. F. BROCK,
Chairman.
