JACK AND JOE.

I have to get a suit and overcoat,
Says Jack to his friend Joe;
And with but little cash to spend,
Where had I better go?

This buying clothes just bothers me,
The smartest man can't tell
From looking at a coat, just, if
The goods will wear real well.

And lots of these here clothing men
Are that keen on a trade,
They'll lie like sixty, anyhow,
About how clothes are made.

And some they stick the dollars on
And then you have to jew
'Till they take off what they put on,
Whisperin': Just for you.

Now I don't like that kind of way
And it puzzles me to know,
With just the little cash I've got,
Where it is best to go.

Says Joe to Jack, I know your fix,
For I've been that way too,
But you'll get over that right quick
If you trade where I do.

Just you try Purdy and you can tie
To every word he says
And lay your money out dead sure
That your investment pays.

His prices are way down below
The prices others ask,
The folks that try to sell with him
I tell you, have a task.

Low prices, quality the best,
Large stock and goods all new,
It's plain to see that Purdy's the man
To sell to me and you.

A job lot of Men's Hats reduced to 25 cents and placed on our bargain counter to close out.

1 dozen Men's Stiff Hats (lined) reduced to 25 cents. Also a few odd hats of fine quality same style at 50 per cent. less than value to make room for new stock. You will lose money if you buy a hat before seeing this lot.
