License Drive Starts Friday

Ben R. Stroup, director of motor vehicle division of the South Carolina highway department, announced last night that enforcement of the drive on 1934 licenses would be postponed until 5 o'clock Friday morning. The drive was scheduled to have started today.

Mr. Stroup said that enforcement was being postponed to give the motor vehicle division time to "clear up" all orders for licenses already placed with the department. Thru Saturday night the division had registered approximately 145,000 vehicles, while orders for 5,000 to 10,000 licenses were in the mails unfilled. The director added that the department was hopeful of catching up with mail orders within the next couple days.

The windows of the division will open at 8:30 this morning and remain open until 5 o'clock. After today the regular hours of 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon will be observed.

Mr. Stroup explained that the department had been delayed in filling orders to a certain extent due to a number of applicants having failed to include an additional 50 cents along with the regular charge for the plates to cover late registration fee. The regular period for placing applications closed October 31. Since that time the late fee has been chargeable.

PLAY FRIDAY EVENING AT PINE TREE SCHOOL

On Friday evening at seven o'clock at the Pine Tree Hill (Mill) school, the curtain will rise on one of the most spectacular performances in the annals of Camden history. Rehearsals for the musical comedy, "Peggy Breezes In", produced by the Jeffnell Producing Company is underway, and by Friday evening the public is assured of a polished and finished production.

The leading role of Peggy is being played by Miss Daisy Gordon, the leading man is Mr. Rhodus. Eugene Dority takes the part of Pop and Harvey Davis takes the comedy lead of "Spasm", a perfect take off of Stepin Fetchit. The other parts are those of "Tissy", the feminine comedy lead, a blushing bride and a stuttering groom, and many other varied characters.

A baby show will feature the evening's performance a prize being given to the baby who has been given the most votes.

Tickets are 15 and 25 cents, so come out and bring your whole family.

Pine Tree Hill School, Saturday evening, November 17, at 7 o'clock.

COTTON MARKETS

Camden Spot Market
Present Prices	Last Week
Short Cotton	12.50	12.33
Inch Cotton	13.25	12.75
Inch and 1-16	13.50	13.40

These prices are approximate on middling basis.

Cotton seed on local markets. Present prices, in car lots, per ton $40.; in wagon lots $37; last week, in car lots $40, wagon lots $37.

Number of bales sold in Camden for week 315; for last week 525; for season 6,489.

Cotton trading was quiet in New Orleans on account of the election and the government crop estimate and prices had eased off moderately, but improved steadily after the estimate came out and the election was over. The figures for the number of bales was 9,634,000 which was 100,000 over commercial expectations but this did not break the market. The gain for the week was 25 to 27 points and holders of spot cotton seem to be looking for higher prices. Exports are good, demand favorable and offerings are light.

The length of staple this year in South Carolina continues to show a pronounced improvement over last year, about 57 percent has been an inch or longer, against 36 percent last year. The figures are seven eighths 18 per cent., fifteen sixteenths 25 per cent., inch 34, over an inch 23 per cent.

Colleges and Health

A survey made by the Illinois department of health indicates that four years of college life add two years to a person's life. It was found that the life expectancy of male college graduates is more than two years greater than the general average, while honor students have an extra two years.

Samuel McGowan Dies Suddenly

Laurens, Nov. 11.—Rear Admiral Samuel McGowan, 64, World War paymaster general of the United States navy and first chief state highway commissioner, died here at 9:25 a. m. today at the Laurens hotel after a brief illness from an heart attack. Admiral McGowan, who was a native of Laurens, arrived Friday from Washington and New York for one of his two or three annual visits, having last visited here in May. During Saturday he was on the stress greeting friends as usual.

Lieut. Comdr. W. R. Ryan of the Charleston navy yard came to spend the weekend with the admiral at the hotel. Shortly after 11 o'clock last night Admiral McGowan, who had been entertaining several callers in the lobby, complained that he felt a numbness in one of his arms. Dr. R. P. McGowan, his kinsman, was called at midnight and remained with him until 2 o'clock. Meantime a nurse was called. He rested very well for several hours but shortly after 9 a. m. he suffered a collapse and soon expired.

Camden Wins 5th and 7th Dist. Title

The game opened with Camden kicking off to Andrew's 30 yard line. The opposing team tried 3 line plays in succession and lost 15 yards. They then tried a pass which was not successful but which was recovered by one of their own players, and then they kicked to Camden's 40 yard stripe. Halsall, Branham, and Flowers made gains, a first down and a pass to Flowers netted the first touchdown. A line buck failed for "the extra point and the score was 6-0. The next touchdown was also made by Flowers on a pass, after gains by Branham, Nettles and a 20 yard run of his own. Again the score was 12-0.

Then almost the whole second team was put in the game and they did very well, Andrews threatening them once. Andrews was penalized 15 yards for clipping. An incomplete pass and the half ended with the score 12-0.

The second half started with Nettles receiving the kickoff. Halsall, Nettles, W. H. Branham, and Flowers all made gains. Nettles made the other touchdown and this time the point failed also.

During the fourth quarter the visitors resorted to passes, one of which gained 25 yards. They were unable to make much headway and the game ended with the score 18-0.

CAMDEN AND BEAUFORT TO PLAY FOR LOWER STATE TITLE

The high schools teams of Camden and Beaufort will meet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at Camden for the B Class Championship of the lower state.

These two teams met in 1932 for the same title, Camden winning a thrilling game. Since this battle Beaufort has won seventeen games without a defeat. They were not in the league last season, but are back with a vengeance this year.

Camden's record is not so impressive, having lost to Charleston, Sumter, B. C. and Porter Military Academy this season, but they have showed improvement in each game and hope to give Beaufort a real scrap

A NEW epoch in maritime history was begun when the North German Lloyd liner BREMEN arrived in New York harbor five years ago and immediately established, not merely a record for speed, but also a new standard for transatlantic travel. Curiously enough, this achievement became more than a "seven days wonder," and the BREMEN has not only retained her reputation in the maritime world, but has been a source of admiration by her consistent and noteworthy performance from that day until the present. Her record of an enviable record of service and today, upon completing the first half of her one hundredth round-trip, she is pointed to as an outstanding example.

With her arrival at New York on November 8th, the BREMEN will have finished the first lap of her century voyage. This, in itself is no extraordinary achievement, were it not for the fact that she has maintained, during all these years, a schedule of arrivals and departures or clock-like regularity, in all weathers, through all seasons and under all conditions. This record is due in no small measure to the man on the BREMEN'S bridge, Commodore Leopold Ziegenbein, who brought her over on her maiden voyage.

By an odd coincidence, Commodore Ziegenbein celebrates not only the one hundredth voyage but also his sixtieth birthday which occurs on November 16th, the date of the BREMEN'S arrival in her home port, Bremerhaven, on the completion of this century voyage.

In these past five years, the BREMEN has run up a mileage of 755,000 miles; has transported 232,195 passengers, among whom were included the president of the United States, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who accompanied by his son, Elliot, crossed on her.

An analysis of the BREMEN'S performance involves figures running into many ciphers—whether referring to the number of passengers or the number of dollars spent on her in this country for her maintenance. A survey of expenditures incurred in New York from the time the BREMEN made her initial appearance on July 22, 1929, until now, discloses the startling fact that almost $11,000,000 has been disbursed. Of this enormous sum, an amount of $982,500 (the major portion of which represents actual payments of wages) was spent for miscellaneous items including pilotage, wharfage and stevedoring; overtime for customs officers; policing; tug boat services; electric current; steam and telephone services; fresh water; $7,039,625 paid the fuel bill; while the amount of the world's finest foods purchased for the ship's larders cost many hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In addition, appreciable outlays were made for office rent, advertising and agents' commissions.

Commodore Ziegenbein was born in Celle, Germany, November 16, 1874, he first went to sea in 1890 on the bark FUERST BISMARCK, later on the bark NOMIA, entering the services of the North German Lloyd in 1900. Leopold Ziegenbein commanded the S. S. KONGBENG. He served as Second Officer on the KAISER WILHELM II, and the KRONPRINZESSIN CECILIE. In 1920 he became First Officer on the S. S. SEYDLITZ and in 1924 the S. S. COLUMBUS.

In 1927 he became master of the S. S. BERLIN. He supervised the building of the BREMEN. In December, 1932, he was appointed Commodore.

Armistice Day Exercises Held

Very appropriate Armistice Day were held at the high school auditorium on Monday morning.

Songs "Over There", "Pack Up Your Troubles" and "There's a Long, Long Trail" were sung by the assemblage.

A reading "In Flanders Field" by Minnie Sue Bruce and a reading "Yellow Butterflies" by Carolyn Cantey were well rendered, after which the following songs were sung "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "The Rose of No Man's Land".

Mrs. S. C. Zemp, Americanism Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, spoke on the Preamble to the Constitution of the Legion and Auxiliary. Mrs. Zemp next introduced the new president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. A. C. McKain, and the new Commander of the Legion, L. L. Wallnau.

Mrs. J. B. Zemp very delightfully rendered a solo, "Let Us Have Peace".

The speaker of the occasion was the Rev. Brice Herbert, Methodist minister, of Bishopville, who was introduced by Mrs. S. C. Zemp in a few well chosen words.

Rev. Herbert spoke on "Peace" and the Youth of Today. His address was most inspiring and interesting and listened to with the keenest attention by those present.

Mr. T. J. Trotter presented the Annual Red Cross Roll Call.

The program closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner".

At 11 o'clock at the intersection of Broad and DeKalb Streets a short memorial was held by the Legion in memory of those who sacrificed their lives in the World War. As the names of the World War honor roll was read flowers were placed at the foot of the honor roll. A detachment from the Kershaw Guards fired volleys and taps was sounded.

Forest Towers Are Now Manned

With the beginning of the fall forest fire season, District Forester, H. Y. Forsythe, Florence, S. C., has announced that the two forest fire towers located in Kershaw County at Camden and Liberty Hill are manned and towermen and Rangers are on active duty, organizing their forces to aid in putting out forest fires. The two fire towers which are located in the County were previously constructed from Association funds, and the telephone lines which were constructed, connecting the towers, were made possible through the cooperation of the State Forestry Commission with the Emergency Conservation Work program at no cost to the County or landowners.

W. C. Perry has been appointed Ranger for the Camden Unit and C. D. Cunningham has been appointed Ranger for the Liberty Hill Unit of the Kershaw County Forestry Association. This Association is cooperating with the State Forestry Commission in forest fire prevention and extinction and over 45,000 acres are included in the Camden unit and approximately 38,000 acres are cooperating with the Liberty Hill Unit for intensive fire protection. The membership of this Association is voluntary on the part of the landowners who are paying 2c an acre a year for protection. However, Mr. Forsythe said that the lack of sufficient state funds for reimbursement purposes will prohibit the expansion of the service which can be received from the fire tower, and the Kershaw County Forestry Association until such time as more funds are made available for the State Forestry Commission.

GARDEN LETTERS

Anyone interested in receiving the monthly "Garden Letters" from Clemson College are requested to file their names and addresses at the County Agent's office. We will also be glad to furnish interested parties with Garden Bulletins and other material to help develop better all year gardens.—Henry D. Green, County Agent.
