SUBSIDY PAYMENTS

Every farmer that made a Bankhead application and has sold cotton this fall should get all bills of cotton sold on his farm, whether sold in his name or his sharecropper's name, and carry them to the town that he sold the cotton in and get a certificate of sale before November 16, 1935. All cotton sold up to November 1, 1935 will have to have this form filled out by November 18th or he will lose his part of the subsidy.

We have arranged to set up offices in the different towns to aid the farmers in making these forms. You Mrs. A. A. Arthur and Mrs. R P Klugh and son of Union and Mrs E Graham of Columbia were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson.

don't have to sign this form and when you get this form you are not obligating yourself to sign next year. Please go to one of the towns and get this done before it is too late. It is not necessary for you to bring your sharecroppers.—W. C. McCarley, County Agent.

Hallow'en At Wimberly Hall

Among the many pleasurable events of the 'ghostly night' celebrated in our city; one of the most enjoyable was celebrated at Wimberly Hall by Mrs. Ethel Merritt's 'Willing Workers S. S. Class' A group of girls and boys came early in the afternoon and decorated all the rooms with an autumnal air - native corn stalks, pumpkins with grinning faces and witches, cats, broomsticks, and much colorful draperies.

The lads and lassies began to arrive about 8 P. M. and for two hours things went in high gear-it was all innocent fun, but noisy at times, but so more they could be expected from a group of 35 or 40 youngsters who are out for a good time. All kinds of games, fortune telling, dark room apparitions were in the fun.

About 9:30 they were all served a delicious plate of goodies, and when eaten, they took their departure, and voted a royal good time. Mrs. Merritt is doing great work among those young people-they love her, and she enters sympathetically into all their affairs.
