Neeley and little son G. in Rock Hill are spending a while at the home of Mrs. Neeley's sister, Mrs. E. M. Workman here. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gardner and daughters Misses Maude and Edgar spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fulmer, pastor of Swift Creek church, spent Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Annotts. Mr. Boyd Workman from DeKalb spent a few days last week with his uncle Mr. E. M. Workman. Mrs. Mattie Shiver is visiting relatives down at Oswego. The ice cream festival given for the benefit of Swift Creek Church at the Stockton School House last Thursday night Sept. 6 was a success in every detail. The weather was delightful and a large crowd attended. The sale of the cake and ice cream brought $22.25. We wish to thank all those who contributed towards making it a success. Mr. Henry Owen from DeKalb spent last week with friends and relatives here. Mr. W. A. Rush from Lugoff spent Sunday here. Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Owens and children from Blair, S. C. are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pearce. Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner and Mrs. Fannie Blackwell from Hartsville spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pearce. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pearce and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Belton Owens at DeKalb. There will be an ice cream festival given at the home of Mr. Jesse Gillis near Pisgah Friday night September 14th for the benefit of Swift Creek Church. The public is cordially invited.

Waterloo Mill Village Notes. On last Monday evening from 7 to 10 p. m. at the Club House we had the pleasure of having with us Miss Selma Parrish, Emergency County Demonstration Agent. Miss Parrish organized a Women's Home Demonstration Club with Mrs. T. J. Trines as president; Miss D. L. Corneli vice president; Miss Sallie Rogers secretary. A good crowd of the young ladies and their keepers were present and had a very successful evening. Several of our young men were there to assist with great interest. We feel that it is ripe to have a Home Demonstration Club. After closing Miss Parrish gave a demonstration in grape raising during which she made a very interesting talk on Home Demonstration with references to the many good things that can be made from grapes. Our next meeting will be on next Monday night in October. Just what will be taken up that evening will be announced later.

Rev. Tucker to Rock Hill. Rev. J. P. Tucker of Kershaw has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of this city and will be here for services Sunday week. Mr. Tucker is a native of North Carolina and a graduate of Wake Forest. He attended Yale University with a view to practicing law, but later entered the ministry. He then took a course at the South Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville. He was pastor in Kentucky after finishing at the seminary and two years ago accepted the call to Kershaw, where he has done a great work. A new house of worship has been built and the membership greatly increased. Those who heard Mr. Tucker when he preached here some Sundays ago were greatly impressed with him. Rock Hill Record.

First to Plead Unwritten Law. London, Sept. 11.—Lionel Douglas Malcolmin, who was being tried for the murder of Anton Baumburg, a pseudo count, was today found not guilty by a jury at the Old Bailey Police Court. The case which had been characterized as a "dream of passion" was the first to be tried here in which the unwritten law was the sole defense. A coroner's jury had returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide" after hearing Lionel Malcolmin's plea that he had killed Baumburg "in defense of his wife's honor." The case was one of the most sensational seen in London in many years.

Dr. Jacobs Dead. Dr. William Jacobs, aged 75 years, died at Clinton Monday morning. Death came suddenly. Dr. Jacobs was known as the "Father of Clinch" and was the founder of Thornwell Orphanage at Clinton. He is survived by the following children: One daughter, Mrs. W. J. Bailey, of Clinton; the Rev. J. D. Jacobs, of Clinton; the Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Jacobs, of the Rev. Thornwell Institute of Atlanta, Ga.; and the Rev. W. S. Jacobs, of Houston, Texas, as well as a large family of grandchildren and other relatives.

In Memoriam Sadie Baum. Sadie young, pretty and bright. First last passed away from us. We only know you are here no more. Sadie we meet on the eternal shore? I am a question of just some will I know. Please don't over "think" mind dis- tress. I am so glad His work that we can- not forget. Do not go beyond what is here below. Susan A. Wirkowsky. Camden, S. C., Sept. 6.

Messrs. Herbert Young and B. J. Horton are going to take their vacation next week. They state they are going to spend the most of their time at Wimsboro.

Rembert News Notes. Rembert, Sept. 11th.—From summer to winter is what we now have. This day is a real winter one. The drought was broken here Sunday by a fine rain which will help the late crops such as peas, potatoes, and some corn. The cotton got the worst from the severe heat and dry weather and the crop will be short. Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Hatfield of Cassatt, were in our midst a few days last week and their many friends were glad to see them. Mrs. T. M. Rodgers returned home yesterday from Columbia. Miss Nellie Sparrow, one of the pretty young ladies of Mizpah section of Lee county was at Pisgah church Sunday and to see her friends Misses Ethel Watson and Annell Elmore. While here she made many friends and hope she will come again soon. Mr. Jim Rodgers of Mizpah attended church Sunday at Pisgah. Indications point that a pretty young lady was the drawing card here. Good luck to him. Rev. J. W. Kenney, who has been quite sick for some time is improving. Miss Vanray Kenney who has been visiting at Camden came home last week. Rev. E. A. Liles preached a fine sermon at Pisgah Sunday. A number of our people are getting automobiles and soon buggies will be things of the past. Mrs. Alice Annotts and Mrs. Mattie Shiver of Stockton visited relatives and friends here quite recently.

MAY BE CIVIL WAR If Korniloff Wins Russia Will Be Under Powerful Dictatorship.

Washington, Sept. 11. — Whether Russia faces anarchy and a reign of terror as the fruit of General Korniloff's revolt against Premier Kerensky's provisional government depends largely, in the opinion of officials and diplomats here, on the speed with which the situation develops. If the deposed commander in chief, now reported marching on Petrograd with troops personally loyal to him, makes a spectacular show of strength within the next three days, it is believed strong political influences, now secretly wavering in allegiance to the government, may swing over and give him a preponderance of assistance and pave the way for a powerful dictatorship.

Notice is hereby given that one month from this date, on Saturday, October 13th, 1917, I will make to the Probate Court of Kershaw County my final return as Administrator of the estate of J. E.
