Wm. Jennings Bryan Dorn

Candidate for U. S. Senate
I have been abused on the stump, and false rumors have been circulated against me but I have conducted a clean campaign, seeking at all times to uphold the dignity and honor of public office in South Carolina. I have no money with which to hire cars and workers on election day but, in spite of this, I have the utmost confidence that you will vote your convictions on the 10th of August. All over America political machines are being defeated and public office is being returned to the people.
