Miss Alva Lee And John W. Kennedy Marriage Of Interest

The First Baptist church of Columbia was the scene of a lovely wedding at 5 p. m. July 24, when Miss Alva Lee, daughter of Mrs. E. E. Lee and the late Mr. Lee of Camden, became the bride of John W. Kennedy of Asheville, N. C. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Robert E. Naylor, pastor of the bride.

Palms, with oregon fern, cootie fern and myriads of white lighted candles in tall candelabras effectively decorated the church.

A program of nuptial music was presented by M. Berry Seay, organist, and Mrs. Roy Garrett, vocalist.

The bridegroom had for his best man, Gay W. Valentine of Knoxville, Tenn., his brother-in-law. Ushers were Thomas R. Barringer of Florence, Thornwell Lee, brother of the bride; Rev. B. C. Tschudy and Jake McIlhenny, both of Columbia.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Edward Eugene Lee, Jr., chose for her wedding a gown of white dutchess satin with sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. The gown was styled with a center panel extending into a graceful train. The long sleeves ended in points over the wrists. Her double-tiered veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of pearl orange blossoms and was finger tip length. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, white asters, and tuberoses interspersed with white net and white satin ribbon. The bouquet was centered with a purple orchid.

Miss Deedie Blalock of Columbia was the bride's only attendant. Her dress was of lavender mouseline de soie and shatin fashioned with full skirt, round of the shoulder neckline and bustle back. Her bouquet was of deep rose asters interspersed with lavender net and tied with lavender satin ribbon.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue crepe with white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink flowered mesh dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple greeted friends in the vestibule of the church.

During the evening the couple left for their wedding trip. For traveling the bride changed to an aqua faille suit with brown and white accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her bouquet.
