Andrew, The Man Who Brought Others

MEET Andrew, brother of Simon Peter, fisherman of Galilee. Follow his career and you will account him one of the truly great men of the ages...

WHAT ANDREW TOLD HIS FRIENDS WHEN Andrew met Jesus, and discovered in him the Saviour of men, he went and found his brother, Simon, and said unto him...

HOW ANDREW KNEW ABOUT JESUS ANDREW got his impressions of Jesus firsthand. When he heard John the Baptist say, "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world..."

THE MAN WHO BROUGHT OTHERS LET'S look for a moment at some of the people Andrew brought to Jesus. We begin, of course, with Simon, his brother. Here, I think, is the highest test of his ability to tell others about Jesus...

And now we see Andrew yonder in the multitude, finding the lad with the leaves and fishes, and bringing him to Jesus. That is the test of seeing the right person at the right time. And again this is the acid test of introducing people to Jesus.

come a long way to see Jesus. He knew how to help them. In this incident we see the final example of winning people to Jesus—cultured Greeks, who were familiar, we may assume, with the current thought of the world...

THEY WAIT FOR THE ANDREWS TODAY THE world waits for some Andrew today. I fully believe that most people could be won to Christ if only there were enough Andrews.

Andrew did not rely upon his own resources. He went in the might of the Lord. He knew what Jesus had done for him. He yearned to see all men enjoy their blessing.

Philosophy A little philosophy inclineth man's mind to atheism, but depth in philosophy bringeth man's mind about to religion.—Bacon.
