Lingerie Shower And Card Party for Miss Rosborough

First in the pre-nuptial parties being planned for Miss Dottie Rosborough, bride-elect, who will be married to Benton Shearn, Jr., on November 20th, was the lingerie shower and card party given by Miss Charlotte Boykin and Miss Sara June Rozier at the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. Wm. R. Watkins, on Laurens Court Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

A profusion of multi-colored dahlias and chrysanthemums were used in the living room and hall where three tables of bridge and two tables of rummy were played.

A corsage of yellow rose buds marked the honor guests chair and at the conclusion of the card game prizes were awarded Miss Sara Grubbs for high score in bridge and Mrs. J. A. Rosborough for top score in rummy. The floating prize was last held by Miss Virginia Stokes.

A huge decorated basket filled with the gifts brought by the guests was presented Miss Rosborough. A salad-course, ribbon sandwiches and Russian tea was served by the hostesses, assisted by Misses Kate, Susie and Mary Watkins, to the following: Mrs. J. A. Rosborough, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Benton Shearn, the bridegroom-elect's mother; Misses Virginia Stokes, Sara Grubbs, Laura Brown, Peggy Funderburke, Margaret Smith, Myre Rast, Molly Ruth Redfeard, Edna Strak, Dot Sowell, Susie, Kate and Mary Watkins.

Also, Mesdames J. A. Hagins, Mrs. Ned McDowell, Mrs. Robert DuBerry (Mildred Rosborough), Mrs. Wm. R. Watkins, Jr., of Columbia and Mrs. Wm. R. Watkins.

Master Buck Smith Has Tenth Birthday

Master Buck Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary H. Smith, N. Broad street, was honored on last Saturday with a buffet supper party given by his parents in celebration of his tenth birthday.

A Hallowe'en motif was carried out effectively in the decorations and favors and the buffet supper was served from a beautifully appointed table centered with the two-tiered birthday cake. The many arrangements of fall flowers, and the attractive evensong gowns of the "young ladies" made this a very festive occasion.

The Smiths were assisted in entertaining by Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarkson Rhame and daughters, Catherine and Jerry, Mrs. Wm. G. Smith of Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Speaks, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Murphy of Myrtle Beach and Miss Bessie Patrick of Columbia.

Huggins-Floyd Wedding Of Interest

Of cordial interest is the wedding October 2, with Mrs. Alma Pate Huggins became the bride of Herbert Lee Floyd, of Mullins. The wedding took place in Camden, with the Rev. Herbert Spell, pastor of the Lyttleton Street Methodist church, officiating, in the presence of members of the immediate family.

For her wedding, the bride wore a light gray fall woolen suit, with wine accessories.

Mrs. Floyd is the daughter of Luther Thomas Pate and the late Mrs. Vermeile Stokes Pate, of Camden. She has made her home in Camden for the past few months with her sister, Mrs. Louise Pate McLeod.

Mr. Floyd is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. June Floyd, of Mullins. During the war years he served three and a half years in the European theater. He is now connected with the Jones Motor Company, in Mullins, where is and his bride will make their home. They are stopping temporarily at the Vaughan hotel.

D.A.R. Notes

(By Mrs. George Barnes)

Hobkirk Hill chapter, D.A.R., will hold its next meeting on Friday, October 29, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Stratford Barnes, 1307 Mill street, at 4 p. m. The change from the regular date of meeting is on account of the absence of the regent, Mrs. vonTresckow, who is attending the Founders' Day celebration and board meeting at the Tamassee DAR school, with the president general, Mrs. Roscoe C. O'Byrne, and the state regent, Mrs. Manerlyna, who is presiding. Vice president general, Mrs. Marshall P. Orr, is offering the tribute to the Founders of this fine school for under-privileged children.

State superintendent of education, Jesse T. Anderson, is a guest speaker. State chaplain, Mrs. Arch Smith, will give the invocation.

Hostesses will be: Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, 2nd, Mrs. Guy and Mrs. Davidson. All visiting Daughters are welcome.

Deadline For Bazaar Friday, November 5th

Friday, November 5th is the deadline for articles and contributions for the bazaar being given by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Lyttleton Street Methodist church.

Please leave all articles with Mrs. Jas. Gandy, 1115 Lyttleton street.

The bazaar will be held at the Farm Home Market, W. DeKalb street, on Wednesday, November 10th, from 10 until 10 o'clock.

House Party Given At Hermitage Lake

"Aldac", the summer cottage on Hermitage Lake of the Donald Campbell's was the scene last weekend of an enjoyable house party given by their son, Donald Campbell, Jr., for the following girls and boys: Misses Lucy Eaddy and Jean Varn of Columbia College, Evelyn Plyler, USC, and Margaret Smith, Burke Campbell, Bruce McIsaac and Jim Alexander of Kershaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Campbell chaperoned this young group from Friday night until Sunday evening.

Garden Notes

The horticultural committee of the Camden Garden Club suggests that everyone with a back yard can assist with the world movement of conservation. Save your leaves, grass cuttings, dead flowers, garden waste and kitchen waste and manure. Sprinkle lightly with dirt and lime and water it. Repeat. Turn to pile occasionally and you will have a fine comfort heap.
