JayCeets Gave Christmas Party Last Wednesday

Santa Claus travels in many unusual ways but when he arrived via "scooter-bike" at the party the JayCeets gave for the JayCeets last Wednesday evening that made news.

Over a hundred JayCeets and their ladies attended this Christmas affair the first in a series planned by this newly organized unit of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The recreational hall at Woodward Airport, which has been leased to the JayCeets, was beautifully decorated in the Yuletide spirit with an 18-foot Christmas tree lavishly adorned with colored lights and ornaments and piled high with humorous gifts for everyone. At each end of the lounge Yule logs blazed in huge fire places. Holly, pine and Christmas berries were used in profusion on the mantels and on the tables, and colored lights in all the chandeliers made an attractive scene.

Supper was served buffet style from the snack bar and the menu included baked Virginia ham, cold roast of beef, beaten biscuits,
