Miss Margretta Little Announces Plans For Her Wedding April 10

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Margretta Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Lee Little, to Luther James Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Watts of Charleston.

The ceremony will take place Monday evening, April 10, at 8 o'clock in Bethesda A. Douglas church with the Rev. A. Douglas McEan, pastor, officiating at the double ring service. The wedding music will be presented by Mrs. A. D. McEan, organist, and Edward Thompson, vocalist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. The best man will be Edward Watts of Charleston, brother of the bridegroom.

Usher-groomsmen will be Thos. L. Little, Jr., brother of the bride-elect, Benton Sheorn, Jr., Bill Burns and Elliott Sheorn, brother-in-law of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Wm. D. Nettles, sister of the bride-elect will be the dame of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Elliott Sheorn, sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Benton Sheorn, Jr., Mrs. John W. Brown, Rural Retreat, Va., sister of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Hughey Tindal, Jr., of Bishopville.

Flower girls will be Mary Margretta and Ellen Hamilton Nettles, small nieces of the bride-elect. A reception will be given immediately following the ceremony by the parents of the bride-elect at their home, 1509 Lyttleton street.

The rehearsal party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Sheorn and Mrs. John W. Brown on Sunday evening, April 9, in the Colonial Room at Thomas Tavern.

Numerous social affairs have been planned for this popular young couple before their wedding.

Miss Betty Lewis and Stuart E. Burnett United in Marriage

The marriage of Miss Betty Edwards Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lewis, of Camden, and Stuart E. Burnett of Winston, Ga., was solemnized at 12:30 p. m. in the Chapel of Lyttleton Street Methodist church on March 19.

The Rev. Herbert L. Spell performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of the family. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. M. Gandy, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music.

Mrs. Burnett's only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles W. McCaskill. Mrs. McCaskill wore a street length dress of navy blue crepe with red accessories and a corsage of Tallam rose.

The bride chose for her wedding dress a smartly tailored gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of brides roses.

Chas. W. McCaskill of Camden, acted as best man. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was given by the bride's parents at the Thomas Tavern, after which the young couple left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Burnett was graduated from Camden High school and Converse College. She has recently completed a Laboratory Technician course at Emory hospital and is now a member of the staff there.

Mr. Burnett, a student at Alabama Poly-technic Institute, will receive his degree in Veterinary medicine in June. He is a member of Alpha Psi Fraternity. He served several years in the army in the past war.

Federal Number Is Asked For Highway

Camden people will be interested to learn that the Highway Commission has instructed the chief highway commissioner to apply to the Bureau of Public Roads for a federal number of State Highway No. 26.

This highway cuts off from Highway No. 1 just this side of Gus Ward's food emporium and runs through St. Matthews and Orangeburg into Georgia.

Silver Wedding Is Celebrated By Mr. And Mrs. Frank Mayer

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Mayer celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening, March 15, at their home.

Invitations printed in silver had been issued earlier, which read: "1925-1950. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayer request the pleasure of your company at their 25th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, March 15, from 8 until 10 o'clock, 208 York street, Camden, S. C. Informal."

Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mayer and presented to the receiving line which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Mayer, Mrs. Hattie Hipson, mother of Mr. Mayer, and Mrs. Ernest R. Frietas, sister of Mr. Mayer.

Mrs. Mayer was lovely in a navy blue crepe frock and wore a white orchid corsage, the gift of her three grandchildren, Gloria Jean and Danny Outlaw and Ellen Rae Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdy Lee and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Mayer, Jr. received in the gift room, where the array of gifts were on display and the guests register was in charge of Jimmy Mayer and Sarah Rhodus.

The guests were invited into the dining room by Miss Sadie Frietas where the punch bowl was presided over by Miss Susie Watkins, assisted by Mrs. Virginia R. Campbell, Mary Elizabeth and Kate Francis Lee, Mrs. Will Ziegler and Mrs. Douglas Waites of Columbia.

The entire house was thrown en suite for the occasion and was beautifully decorated.

White gladiol and King Alfred daffodils were used in the living room, red and white potted azaleas and carnations in the gift room and in the dining room a bridal green and white with silver motif was carried out in the table appointment and room decorations.

An elaborate arrangement of white roses and carnations in a silver bowl centered the dining room table which was covered with a handmade lace cloth and garlanded with green and white satin ribbon and bouquets of white flowers.

Silver candelabra and the three tiered cake completed the table decorations. The cake was embossed with the silver numerals "25" and surrounded with white roses, an arch with a miniature bride and groom, and silver wedding bells. Fancy iced cakes, sandwiches, green and white mints and salted nuts were served the hundred guests who called at the appointed hours.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. W. J. Hoffman, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Crolley, pianist. "The Anniversary Song" was sung by Mrs. Wallace Smith (Jean Mayer), daughter of the hosts, who with Mr. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Outlaw (Margie Mayer) assisted their parents in entertaining.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. E. D. Outlaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Outlaw and children, Gloria Jean and Danny, of Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waites, Mrs. Bessie Wiggins, Miss Sadie Frietas of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith and daughter, Ellen Rae, of Gordon, Pa.

Annual Hospital Ball A Delightful Event

The Women's Auxiliary of the Camden Hospital, sponsored their annual ball on Friday night, March 11, at the recreation hall at Woodward Airport.

Tables were placed cabaret style around the dance floor and music was furnished by Guy Hutchins and his orchestra.

Austin Sheehan was the efficient master of ceremonies and conducted the various activities. In the drawings Mrs. A. C. McKain won a ham, Douglas Montgomery a delicious home-made coconut cake, which he returned and which was afterwards sold to Mrs. Granger Gaither. Dr. J. L. Willford was the winner of the Balloon dance, where each gentleman having a balloon tied to their ankle, endeavored to keep it from bursting during a square dance.

A St. Patrick's Day motif was used again this year and the dance was called the "Shamrock Ball." Huge chamois decorated each mantle and quantities of evergreens were placed around the walls. The tables were covered with white cloths and centered with bowls of ivy.

Camden debutants served as cigarette girls and during intermission assisted at the Snack Bar, catered by Thomas Tavern.

A capacity crowd consisting of Camden social set, visitors and school girls were present for this delightful affair.

Mrs. Ripon LaRoché was chairman of the ball and was assisted by members of the auxiliary. Mrs. Van Wagoner and Ned Beard were in charge of decorating.

Many cocktails and dances were given before the afterglow.

The proceeds from this ball will be used by the auxiliary in their work at the hospital nurse's home.
