Form, September 19.- The Walter Phelps takes the responsibility of giving to the public the following private letter addressed to him nearly two weeks ago:

Augusta, Mr., September 8, 1884. My Dear Mr. Phelps: I have your favor of the 4th advising me that the continuous invention and wide circulation of evil reports render it advisa-ble (in your judgment) not to wait the slow process of law, but to speak di-rectly to the public in my own vindi-cation. In this opinion many others on whose judgment I rely concur. I shrink instinctively from the suggestion, though I feel sure I could strengthen the confidence of all who feet friendly to me by bringing to view the simple thread of truth which is concealed in this endless tissue of falsehood. You can imagine how inexpressibly painful it is to discuss one's domestic affairs in the press, although I think with you that under the circumstances I could count upon the generosity of the public to justify the statement which otherwise might seem objectionable. I can in any event eafely commit the facts to you for personal communication to those friends who have taken so delicate and so considerate an interest in my affairs. The leisure hours of to-day, when our campaign is ended and we wait only for the election, give me the opportunity for this prompt reply, and the following essential details:

At Georgetown, Kentucky, in the spring of 1848, when I was but eighteen years of age, I first met the lady who for more than thirty-four years has been my wife. Our acquaintance resulted at the end of six months in an engagement, which, without prospect of speedy marriage, we naturally sought to keep to ourseives. Two years later, in the spring of 1850, when I was maturing plans to leave my profession in Kentucky and estab. lish myself elsewhere, I was suddenly summoned to Pennsylvania by the death of my father. It being very doubtful if I could return to Kentucky, I was threatened with an indefinite separation from her who possessed my entire devotion. My one wish was to secure her to myself by an indissoluble tie, against every possible contingency in life, and on the 13th of June, 1850, just prior to my departure from Kentucky, we were, in the presence of chosen and trusted friends, united by what I knew was in my native State of Pennsylvania a perfeetly legal form of marriage. On reaching home I found that my family, and especially my bereaved mother, strongly discountenanced my business plans as involving too long a separation from home and kindred. I complied with her wish that I should resume, at least for a time, my octions-"In that private Charles H. cupation in Kentucky, whither I Buck, company, 'G.' IN THE FIELD, August 13 1878. the laws of Kentucky made a license certified by the clerk of the county court an indispensable requisite of legal marriage. After much deliberation and with an anxious desire to guard in the most effectual manner against any possible embarrassment resulting from our position, for which I alone was responsible, we decided that the simplest and at the same time the surest way was to repair to Pennsylvania and have another marriage service performed. This was done in the presence of witnesses in the city of Pittsburg in the month of March, 1851, but was not otherwise made public for obvious reasons. It was solemnizvalidity, the first marriage being by my wife and myself always held as sacred. At the mature age of 54 I do not defend the wisdom or prudence of the secret marriage suggested by the ardor and inexperience of youth, but its honor and its purity were inviolate as I believe in the sight of God, and cannot be made to appear otherwise by the wicked devices of men. It brought to me companionships which have been my chief happiness from boyhood's years to this year, and have crowned me with whatever success I have attained in life. My eldest child, a son, was born in his grandmother's house on the 18th day of June, 1851, in the city of Augusta, Me , and died in her arms three years later. His ashes repose in the cemetery of his native city beneath the stone which recorded his name and the limits of his innocent life. That stone, which had stood for almost an entire generation, has been recently defaced by brutal and sacrilegious hands. As a candidate for the Presidency I knew that I should encounter many forms of calumny and personal defamation, but I confess that I did not expect to be called upon to defend the name of my beloved and honored wife, who is a mother and grandmother, nor did I expect that the grave of my little child BALTIMORE, September 18 .- The

With this information at hand, a file of general court martial orders of the licket. department of Dakota for the year 1878 was obtained, and in looking over the index it was found that Buck's trial and sentence was published in court martial orders No. 77. A corrected copy was made by your correspondent for the Times readers, and is appended hereunto:

The sentence was remitted by Colonel Gibbon, at the time in command of the department, to one year.

He served his sentence partly at Camp Sturgis and Fort Meade, Dakota. Afterward he enlisted under the assumed name of Chas. Buck Fort Sidney, Neb., from which he was keeping with his former acts.
