We had a pleasant call on Monday from Cleveland and Hendricks, the twin boys of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Pate, If the Democratic standard bearers, for whom they are named, are as certain of success at the November election as the crowing youngsters ere to make good men then the Democratic goose hangs high and all is lovely. Their visit gave us a clearer idea of the growth of the country than we had ever entertained before and we return the promising young gentlemen our best thanks for their -bstinence from vocal music while in our bachelor sinclum. They are only five months old but have bravely put on the red shirt and emisted for the war. Hurrah for Cleveland and Hendricks,
