

The People.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1884.

We have "turned the rascals out!" Pay your preacher and the printer. New Fall Prints at Forsythe & Son's.

The 27th inst. will be Thanksgiving day. Mr. S. J. Hartzog has removed from Barnberg to Barnwell.

The Prohibitionists carried Alken county on the 4th inst. by a 3 majority.

"Now's the time to give Smith's Worm Oil."

Some persons seem to believe that newspapers are run for the fun of the thing.

The editorial columns of our exchanges last week show an abundance of game cocks.

D. Wyatt Alken, Esq., Stenographer of the Second Circuit, paid us a pleasant call on Tuesday.

W. C. Forsythe & Son, Dry Goods and Clothing, Charleston, S. C.

John Robinson's circus took in 153 registration certificates from colored circus goers in Columbia.

Mrs. Mohr has just received a new lot of hats, latest styles. Come at once before they are picked over.

The cheapest store in Charleston, Forsythe & Son.

Mr. Michael Willis raised this year a sweet potato that weighed 3/4 pounds.—Who can beat it.

At least a hundred chickens were thrown on our market on Tuesday morning. All true Democratic stock.

Medicated Red Flannel Shirts and Drawers for $1.00, Forsythe & Son.

Gov. Hagood has sent six bales of Bermuda hay from his Seaside farm to the New Orleans Exposition.

Major Theo. DeHon, State Agent for the News and Courier, is in town in the interest of that admirable journal.

Black Silks and Satins, Dress Goods of all descriptions at Forsythe & Son's.

Rev. P. J. Hens killed, a few days ago, four home raised hogs that netted twelve hundred pounds of pork.

The greater portion of the cotton crop has been marketed, but very little more is floating around.

Blankets! Blankets! Blankets!—at Forsythe & Son's.

Just received at Mrs. Mohr's, a nice stock of silk thread, all shades, for embroideries and crazy patch work.

The Farmwell Berber has been re-enforced by the removal of Messrs. J. M. Sklauer and Longest out of the village.

The best 40 cent Corset in the world, Forsythe & Son.

Married at Barnwell on the 5th inst., by the Rev. Arthur Huist, Mr. U. B. Hagan and Miss Ella, daughter of H. M. Myers, Esq.

Oil Cloth, Velvet Bags, Hemp Carpeting and Oil Rugs at reduced prices at Forsythe & Son's.

Mr. John R. Hair and Miss Sallie Killingsworth of Williston were married on Friday last. THE PEOPLE offer its best congratulations.

Fall Suits of Gentlemen's Clothing as low as $4.00 at Forsythe and Son's.

The County Treasurer's elections on Monday night amounted to $3,800, leaving a balance of $3,000 to be collected under execution.

We sell Bedding's Spool Silk at 8 cents, Forsythe & Son.

After a long rest, two venerable cannon on the square has been re-erected on early sleepers for several nights since the election. Give us a try.

We sell the Diamond Shirt—the best—Forsythe and Son.

At this time last year green fields of growing corn could be seen on nearly every side, but this far we have not seen a single green field of any kind of growing grain. The drought is the cause of the famine.

Four ply Linen Collars at 12 1/2 cents at Forsythe & Son's.

A celebrated philosopher says: "Any young man is made better by a sister's love." Most of the young men around here are not satisfied with the sister's love only, but they want some other fellow's sister to love them.

There are many partridges in this section, and we have never a sporter and several good bird dogs in our town. The result is a good trade for our merchants in ammunition and a slight decrease in the number of birds.

Call and see us and be convinced that we are the cheapest. W. C. Forsythe and Son, 400 and 408 King Street, Charleston, S. C.

A colored horse thief from Georgia was captured in Blackville on Monday and lodged in the Barnwell Jail. The mule which he had stolen was recovered. It is a fine animal worth a hundred and seventy-five dollars, but was valued by the thief at one hundred and twenty-five. William Stephens is the name of the gentleman.

The County Commissioners of election, State and Federal, on Tuesday the precinct returns on Tuesday. For State and county officers 8,032 votes were polled. Governor Thompson received 3,000. Lieut.-Gov. Sheppard 2,998 and the other candidates on the State ticket 3,003 each. Col. Youmans received for Senator 2,975 and the Democratic candidates for the House, for Probate Judge, Clerk, Sheriff and County Commissioners ran together, receiving 2,988 votes each. For Coroner, M. G. Tobin, and for Supt. F. Hay Gantt, received 2,998 each. In favor of Constitutional Amendment: Yes, 1,282; No, 77. For Congress, Hon. G. D. Tillman received 3,322, Parson E. J. Dickerson 1,046, and scattering 129. The Democrats' Electoral candidates received 3,247, the Republican 1,038 and scattering 72 votes. Total, 4,385.

SHERIFF'S DECEMBER SALES.—J. W. Furse and A. E. Thompson vs. S. S. Furse. The Furse plantation containing 1180 acres bounded by lands of W. A. Martin, Thomas Baynard and George Rhoads.

Joseph Ashley vs. L. A. Ashley: 450 acres, more or less, bounded by lands of James Dicks, A. N. Bush, Annie V. Ashley, Win. Parker and Stephen Bush. Also, the Ready place, containing 200 acres, more or less, in Richland township, bounded by lands of J. J. Zubanks and others. Also, all that tract partly in Aiken and partly in Barnwell containing 447 acres, more or less, known as the Flowery Gap place, and bounded by lands of John P. McElhenny, C. G. Tutt, Amanda M. Bush and the Savannah River. Also, the Martin place, containing 50 acres, bounded by land of W. R. Poyton, E. T. Bush, G. Foster Holland and James Glover.

AT THE BARNWELL DRUG STORE.—A large stock of the most popular Patent Medicines will be sold at first cost by Dr. A. B. PATTERSON.

The Barnwell Five Cent Store is now in full blast again. It is receiving fresh goods every day of all kinds. Go and see them and if they do not sell you everything cheaper for the cash down than any other store in the county do not call again.

THE COURT.—The Court of General Sessions convened on Monday morning and addressed itself to the work before it.

The following is a list of true bills found by the Grand Jury on the 10th inst. found on press on Wednesday. We publish no list of cases in which no bills were found as the action of the Grand Jury shows the charges had no probable cause.

True Bill.—The State vs. Mose Prophet and Jeffrey Tillman, robbery.

The State vs. the same parties, assault and battery with intent to kill and assault and battery of a highly aggravated nature.

The State vs. Calvin Kennedy and Milo Robinson; larceny of live stock, a hog.

The State vs. C. B. Swan; carrying a deadly weapon, to wit, a pistol, concealed about his person.

The State vs. the same; assault and battery with intent to kill and assault at a battery of a highly aggravated nature. In this indictment the accused was tried and acquitted.

The State vs. Oscar Huggins; burglary and larceny.

The State vs. Geo. C. Varn; for selling liquors without a license.

The following parties were tried and acquitted: Jack Patterson, larceny from the field. J. F. Kease, assault and battery with intent to kill and an aggravated assault and battery.

The following convictions were made: Susan Pressy, housebreaking and larceny. Sentenced to one year at hard labor in the penitentiary.

Moses Prophet and Jeffrey Tillman guilty of an assault and battery of an aggravated nature. Sentenced to eight months at hard labor in the penitentiary.

FRANK MOSES TRIPS TO HANG HIMSELF.—Detroit, October 30.—Franklin J. Moses, Republican Governor of South Carolina in the days of good stealing, who is in jail here for swindling a number of clergymen by representing himself as Rev. Dr. W. W. Hicks, of Washington, tried to hang himself in his cell to-day. Moses was afterwards brought into the police court, charged with swindling. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months in the House of Correction. His lawyer hopes to effect his transfer to an insane asylum.

FELLS PRETTY MUCH ALIKE.—Bill Atp in Southern Cultivator: I have been traveling a good deal of late and mixing up with people in their distant homes, perusing a country all new to me, and, after all, I don't find much difference—not much, either in the way they live, or in their measure of happiness. Folks who move about in the same circles and have the same culture are pretty much alike everywhere. Their trials and tribulations, their joys and sorrows are the same old story. Even the land and climate are governed by the same law of compensation and make the average of good and bad about equal. There is no Eldorado—to Paradise in this sultry, loamy soil, and folks are fools who think so, and are always longing to move somewhere. 'Tis home where the heart is, and we would all be happier if we would quit looking over the fence and longing for what somebody else has got.

A SIMPLE STYLE AND COMMON SENSE.—My sensible people who have lived a retired life, or have been engaged in business, make a mistake when they enter society by aping the airs and graces of the duds. When they do this they succeed only in making themselves contemptible. Perhaps Benjamin Franklin has left us the best social example. He was a plain man. He had been a mechanic and was the son of a mechanic. At one time in his career he was sent as an ambassador from this country to France. He found himself suddenly plunged into the most brilliant society of the world. Instead of trying to imitate what he saw, Franklin kept his simple grave dignity, his Quaker dress and plain language. The result was that the Parisians made a demigod of him. Men of the highest rank paid him homage, and beautiful women cut off his buttons for souvenirs. Franklin became the central figure of the most splendid court in Europe, and the French capital is still full of his traditions. This shows how far common sense will go.

The Baptist State Convention will meet at Marion on Thursday before the fourth Sunday in November.

Mr. Fred Grant hopes to make a frugal living by selling roses this winter to New York florists from the green-houses in Morristown, N. J., which he erected when he thought he was rich.

Mr. Blaine reminds us of the colloquy between two young ideas. One said, "Sammy, I didn't know that your teacher whipped you last Tuesday," and the other sadly answered, "I guess if you'd been in my trousers you'd know'd it!"

The final report of the National Cotton Exchange, issued November 10th, estimates the cotton crop of the United States for the current year at 5,726,000 bales, or a trifle larger than last year. If the prospect of the top crop in certain sections should be realized some 76,000 bales may be added; in Texas there was a large decrease, and in the Mississippi Valley the crop is not quite up to last season, but the Atlantic States and Alabama show gains sufficient to offset these deficiencies.

"Well, old friend, which way?" said a lean individual to his fat friend at a railway station not long since.

"I am off for a little trip to see what has been going on in the world since I have been in bondage."

"What do you mean by being in bondage?"

"Well, just this: 'You and I traded for many years with the same firm, paid the same ruinous prices and were always in debt. That's what I mean by being in bondage.'"

"How did you manage to get out?"

"I sold off all the surplus stock, &c., that I could spare, economized at every point and traded this year on a cash basis with Ben Davies in Barnwell. You have no idea what a difference it makes—some merchants don't seem to realize that the war is over, and think they have a government contract to keep the farmers poor. When I first commenced trading with Ben Davies I presented the same 'shadowy' appearance that you do at present; but look at my proportions now—and I am the leanest one of the family. It is not always good feeding that makes a man fat; peace and contentment, the satisfaction that you will reap the benefits of your labor and no fears of the sheriff's levy to disturb your peaceful slumbers. I am fat, healthy and happy, owe no man a dollar and am going on a little free excursion of my own as a compliment to myself. I fear that the March winds will carry you hence if you don't make a change. Ben Davies keeps everything you need—Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Fresh Groceries, Hardware, Tinware, Canned Goods, in fact anything you need, and for the cash he will astonish you. Take my word for it, trade with him next year and in the winter we'll enjoy a trip out West on our surplus cash."

A complete stock of General Merchandise for the Fall and Winter of 1884 at

MORRISON'S

Corner Near the Court House, Blackville, South Carolina

Bought for cash, selected with great care and adapted to the tastes and wants of the people of this section J. L. MORRISON confidently expects this campaign to be more helpful to himself and more beneficial to his customers than any of his predecessors, which have made his name a household word in Aiken, Barnwell and Orangeburg counties. Without specifying articles or quoting prices he contents himself with assuring his friends that he can and will give them better bargains than any other merchant within forty miles of Blackville. The man, woman or child who buys elsewhere will waste hard earned money. An inspection is all that is asked. Purchases are sure to follow.

J. L. MORRISON, BLACKVILLE, S. C.

The Randall Harrow.

The most Convenient, Effective, Durable and Reliable Harrow Made. Economical in time. Saves labor and money. Secures the greatest yield of crops by the most perfect tillage. Unrivalled for its power, incomparable rapidity, and efficiency for surface tillage of all tenacious and tough soils. It often a substitute for the plow. Five different sizes cutting from six to twelve feet in breadth.

WHAT IT WILL DO—It will thoroughly pulverize the soil. It will thoroughly cover up seed rain. It will thoroughly cover up surface manure. It is often a substitute for the plow. It will save half the time and labor in preparing soil for seed. It will increase your crops. It will save its cost in one season.

It has no equal as a Pulverizer, Cultivator and Seed Cutter, and for tilling all tenacious and tough soils. No other implement required to till corn stalk ground, and it is unequalled for putting in wheat, oats, barley, &c. Every one who has used it or seen it used, speaks in its praise. It is no experiment, but a proved success. Do not tramp after and lift your useless old Draz. Ride the Randall, and save many a weary mile. Descriptive circulars with testimonials sent on application.

HERE WE ARE.

WHO?

THE HOWARD BROTHERS.

WHERE AT?

Blackville, S. C.

We call the attention of the Farmers, Planters and others who use machinery, such as Engines, Cotton Gins, Saw Mills, Cotton Presses and all kinds of machinery, to the fact that we are Practical Machinists and Engineers and thoroughly understand the repairing of the above machinery. New Brush Wheels, new Gin Ribbs and in fact everything pertaining to a Gin or Engine. We have fittings of all kinds, piping and engine supplies. A trial is all we want.

The following are a few extracts from the many letters we have from different shops we have worked for, showing that we know our business.

Extract from a letter to me from Charlotte, N. C., while in Jersey City, N. J.: "I hope you will continue to work for us and thereby reduce the cost of building our engines. I was anxious to have you on there as you thoroughly understand our engines."

L. I. DELL ENGINE CO. per James F. Johnson.

Has worked for us as Machinist, Trustworthy, reliable and a good workman. GEO. W. WILLIAMS, JR. & Co., Charleston Iron Works.

Has proved himself an excellent Machinist. Built one engine complete. It worked excellent. LIDDELL & CO., Charlotte Iron Works, Charlotte, N. C.

No hesitation in recommending him as a good, practical machinist. WILLIAM MILBURN, Master Machinist, Graniteville Machine Shop. June 26 '84

Have found him to be a first class Machinist in every particular. Fill any place with ability. J. J. McDONOUGH, McDonough & Balentine Shops, Savannah, Georgia.

Entire satisfaction as Machinist Can cheerfully recommend him to be reliable and industrious. W. D. ROBB, Master Machinist, P. & A. R. R., Pensacola, Fla.

Deserves the confidence of all good men. Best Machinist I ever had to work for me. F. M. MCKEY, Master Machinist, Ocmulgee, River R. R. (From Hartsville, S. C.)

I found him to be everything that was required of a first class engineeer and machinist. I paid him $5.00 per day by the year. He returns me on his own account. PAUL SHEVERICK, C. H. Southern, Phosphate Works.
