

46 BROAD STREET, UNDER GLOBE HOTEL, AUGUSTA, GEORGIA.

Not LANG COLOR STRATT Sinco the new selenes of readh gentleman sta cen that WAS WESDS the wind was the veil of mist. that the a with danger and soon disappe log above. the people who bits their nails. They are cynical and severe, uncharitable and bitter. They write a small, cramped, and illegible hand. Howand began to wa the rugged surfac which lay on all the sharp routs, wi wind that raged and sion. They would have small but well-shaped nails, and their handwriting would be somewhat angular, showing at if it would dash th vines below, and or nameless dread which manity when face to a known. Still they str The nails of a musician are, of course, to be observed, although the piano sometimes injures them. The great reaching the last and high which they partly assessed the strength of one of the li out, and she fell to the pro-letely exhausted, and her fac alght air was deadly who its berg frost, and the rocks were obld and iless, so that during the loss 'rad died, and from 10 o'clock make night until the next morning the watchers kept ghastly in the the daylight cause it about the the were scarce 500 feet fr the mountain, and that a favored

brought them to warm

Romance and Beality /of

PLEASURE AND PROFIT TO ALL. WATCH AND JEWELRY REPAIRING AND FULL LINE OF GOODS.

JOHN H. FEARY,

Dealer in Diamonds, Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, 729 Broad Street, Opposite Central Hotel, Augusta, Ga.

GRANDYS & ZORN

Contractors and Builders, Manufacturers and Dealers in all kinds of Lumber and Building Material. We are prepared to take contracts or give estimates on all kinds of buildings. Our Saw and Planing Mills are at "Grandys," S. C., postoffice Windsor, S. C. We also keep in stock at our yard on corner of Watkins and Twiggs Sts., Augusta, Ga., al kinds of material as above stated. All orders sent to either place will be promptly attended to. We are, respectfully,

SEASONABLE SUGGESTIONS TO SENSIBLE PEOPLE.

Knowing full well that our people in general are economizing, yet desiring First Class Dry Goods, and seeing they know how to appreciate them, I have determined to give them the full benefit of my extraordinary purchases, and dispose of my Stock of Goods at the smallest profits.

GRAND DISPLAY OF FALL AND WINTER IMPORTATIONS OF DRESS GOODS!!

Embracing the very Latest Novelties in Fabric Colors, and intermixtures of colorings of the most pronounced and RELIABLE STYLES AT POPULAR PRICES. In Plaids, Brocades, and Solid Colors, from 10 cents per yard up to the finest.

THE NEWEST SHADES IN SILKS AND SATINS. A handsome line of Velvets and Velveteens, comprising all the new and pretty shades from 50 cents to the finest Silk Velvet. An elegant line of Black and Colored-Gros Grain Silks from 50 cents per yard up to the finest quality; also a complete stock of Black and Colored R. D. Cashmeres, a celebrated make.

Jackets, Ulsterettes, Pelises, New Markets, Circulars, Jerseys.

Handsome Jackets from $2.25 up to $15.00.

Shoulder Shawls, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c. Large Shawls, 2 yards square, $1 and $1.50 each. Large Wool Shawls, black and colored, $2, $3, $3.50. Ladies' Cloth and Flannel Skirts, 50c. to $2 each. White Blankets, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00 to $10.00 per pair.

In our Woolen Department can be found one of the largest as well as the

In our woolen Department can be found one of the largest as well as the best assortments of Kentucky Jeans, Kerseys Cashmeres, Repellants, Water Proofs, Diagonals, Broadcloths, &c., all at bottom prices. Plain Red and White Flannels from Loc. per yard me. An critic good quality in Red Twilled at 25c, 35c, 40c. and 60c. Opera Flannels in all shades; also Basket Flannels, in the new Fall colors. Dark, Guay and Blue Gray Skirt Flannels. Bleached and Unblanched Cotton Finkeds, from the course white beyingt anality.

towest prices up to the very heaviest quality. Thousands of dezens Ladics', Misses' and Children's Fancy Hose at 10c. up to the finest, and fresh stock.

The South Carolina Seamless Hosiery, in Mon's Half Hose, New Fall Mix-tures; also Ladies', Misses' and Children's, in Fall colors. A visit of inspectants desired. No trouble to show goods. JANEL W. TURLEY, SOS Bread St., Augusta, Ga.-

NOIN AFT. HALAD BUT WE LEAD IN .....

FURNITU

granddaughter, Cicely, as an engaging quarter to such dastardly foemen. music, with no lady friends to smile en- and for a moment both horses and men couragement upon us."

Cyril Benthorpe, surgeon in the corps, and as brave and handsome a fellow as ever used lancet to relieve suffering humanity. "Provide the wave both old general. I hope the rebels are giv-ing him no trouble." "By Jove! I never thought of that, General Coghlan by the hand, and to like another Bombastes Furioso, full of news.

"Hallo, you fellows!" said the major, "do you know that some friends of Coghlans; but before I say more just cursed rebels kick up such a dust that 'm well-nigh choked

Vandeleur helped the somewhat bib-ulous major to the stimulant, whilst exchanging serious glances with Benthorpe.

"We're sorry to hear that, Pringle," remarked Benthorpe. "How did the news reach our camp?" "A fellow brought a few lines from the general, rolled up, and hidden in his ear. A squadron of our corps is to start to-night to relievo the beleaguered little garrison, if possible, and to bring its members in," said Pringle, holding out his glass to be refilled. "I should like to go, Pringle," remarked Vandeleur as he poured out a taken. bumper for his chiof with a view of Vand propitiating him. "So should I," put in Benthorpe eag-

"What, two of you badly hit in that direction?" laughed Pringle. "Well, both in orders for the smart little af-fair. The trumpet will sound boot and saddle at nine. We shall have a moon to guide us, thank goodness?" When the major left, which he did in a hurry after his last glass of brandypawnee, the friends sat on in silence for some minutes, evidently deeply con-cerned about the fate of Cicely Coghlan, a lovely brunette, with laughing hand, as he kept straight on, like a en's wing-just such a girl as to con-quer a whole regiment of impressions-ble officers-the very beau ideal of a ter all if I'm not careful!" soldier's wife—gay, impulsive, yet full of womanly tenderness and gentleness. "See here, Benthorpe," said Vande-leur, who was the first to break the st-leur full and the difference of the st-ber fired, but the cap only snapped. With an anathema of disgust, he pro-duced its fellow, and being a noted who shall have her."

How? in what way?"

General Coghlan's party, with his sweet the came, to neither ansk for nor give partner; now we caper to different Swords leaped from steel scabbards.

were almost as motioniess as statues.

man?" "Certainly not," said his friend, whose face assumed a more serious air as he added: "By the way, I wonder the courage displayed by British solwhy we have received no news from the diers, who, if well-handled, are always

But here comes Major Pringle, looking congratulate him.

"Where is Miss Coginn?" Benthorpe asked. "She was safe a moment ago."

"By Heavens! that's her voice callyours are in great peril? I refer to the ing for help!" exclaimed Vandeleur, as, spurring his horse forward, he rode in give me some brandy-pawnee; the ac- that direction, followed by Benthorpe, both of whom saw the woman they loved in the arms of an officer of sowara (irregular cavalry), who was wellmounted, and at that moment was riding off with his lovely prize. Both men rode after the wretch, ca.

ger to be the first to rescue Cicely. It was a race for love, and promised to be a long one, for the rebel's horse was a powerful animal, and kept up a good taste, three function do not be party to be up to be readily, and good pace, in spite of its double bur-then. was a powerful animal, and kept up a chase became exciting, for the sowar, seeing himself pursued, put forth every effort to outdistance his focs, from whom he would meet no mercy if over-was gaining on the sover. Suddenly the solar wheeled half-lence that had come upon both, "I love shot, fired this time with success, for Cicely, so do you; let us decide now the sewar recied in the saddle, and fell

"We are both going to the relief of the place-the man who reaches her when Vandeleur's sword entered the rebel's body it was only just in time to ly unnecessary to inquire. . since the supposition is in itself incredible; and the intelligent man who ever encoun-tered an English girl with anything to say which was worth hearing, has yet to be discovered.

"Absolute dignity of manner is unknown to the American girl," proceeds our wiseacre, meaning by dignity, we presume, that dease and myan supid

English society the air of being carved out of an illy made sust pudding, badly over done. "She," he continues, working his portrait of the ideat creature

he is amusing himself with depicting, "cannot walk slowly to save her life. She skims along the street like an im-She skims along the street like an im-portant little water wagtail, very pret-tily, but always more or less fussily. The days of her life pass in novel-reading and flirtation—and she hersall is a curious compound of good nature is a curious compound of good nature, pious duty. The roast pigs and chick-cynicism, affection, worldliness, tender-ens were placed around on the ground ness and cunning; and with all her good points considered as favorably as possible, she is never quite a woman." possible, she is never quite a woman." We grant that the being that our World back has conjured up is "never quite a woman," any more than Mad-ame Tousaud's was figured are quite human. We do not understand the quite a woman," any more than Mad-ame Toussand's was figured are quite human. We do not understand the novel-reading imputation strayed into the thrade, cortainly America is not the country of the universal circulating library and the three volumed novel; but we cannot fail to regret that the subject of dress is passed over. Pro-ceeding on the plan of making the American girl whates the British maiden is not, what a splendid oppor-tunity was here neglected of describing our girls as dressed stylishly, richly and in good taste, three rather desire ble qualities as utterly beyond the En-

a stolid and substantial tramp!-Boston Courier.

Mosquitoes.

punched full of holes represented the brass cash, which coin has a hele in the his trials A correspondent writes Vandeleur being a light-weight, and and tribulations from mosquitoes as center. Some burned small garments a good rider, was gradually heading away from his friend Binthorpe, when his horse caught its foot in a hole and stumbled. This gave Benthorpe the advantage, well, I'm no lady's man myself, and so won't enter into rivalry with you fel-lows. I have already detailed you rest by the insects myself and family were determined to sleep the next child laid down but in last than thirty ing sometimes to twenty pounds in mane, tail and the mane, tail and the rest so thick that the very noise would that if carried through a garden or rest are bey and so waken' a person without biting. I wood it prevents fractification. This lime in their bones than we of a different race. At one fime, when good Queen Anne bit her finger-nails, if was

Feeding the Dead

way to Lone Fir Cametory to observe per's Basaar.

the fashion for all the English aristoeracy to bite theirs, and in those days the English finger-nail was not what it is now. Fashion exerts a potent infla- night in one. ence on man, savage or civilized. - Har- would not be first peep at Mont Bland Early one morning, hacks and exmorning train. press wagons loaded with Chinamen. roast pigs, etc., commenced to pour across the Stark street ferry on their the dialog mon

. ....Ficen Lime

formation to be obtained in regard to this custom, it seems that the food is intended as a sort of propitintory offer- each bad > exception to th living near or caster and tank corner of his pasted on them representing gold coin; other squares with silver foil, repre-sented silver coin, and smaller squares tic features of be contly omine miles north of band describe how a noble second of over the property

a survey of the tr

Suddenly the settly wheeled half-round, and taking deliberate aim fired at his pursuer, where hense was hit and fell under him. By this time Vandeleur rode up, when Benthorpe shouted: "Frank, win her—save Cicely!" Vandeleur's answer was to wave his hand, as he kept straight on, like a bloodhound on the scent of death. "By the week and used five guilts. One 1 bed, and used five quilts. One I placed it over the swollen and inflamed, and the secte-placed over the top of the frame, four around the sides, and secured the tion is always volded by the deet on of an artist's pend, of an artist's pend, other base of an artist's pend, other base of an artist's pend, other base of a superior quality are found, measured in and of a superior quality are found, measured in and of a superior quality are found, measured in and of a superior quality are found, measured in and of a superior quality are found, measured in and the secte-tion is always volded by the deet on of an artist's pend, other base of an artist's pend, other base of an artist's pend, other base of a superior quality are found, measured in and ot so pungent a nature there are two white a

