A special New York dispatch stated last week that a gigantic flour trust has been formed to control nearly all the product of this country and also the supply of three-fourths of the world. The trust will have a capital of $150,000,000, and the mills in the United States under its control will have a daily capacity of 95,000 barrels of wheat every 24 hours.

Another reason for raising wheat on every farm.

"Politics makes strange bedfellows." Nobody even dreamed a year ago that the good time would so soon come when Grover Cleveland and William Jennings Bryan, John Sherman and Ben jamia R. Tillman, Frisble Hoar and the News and Courier would all be in line touching elbows against expansion by annexation of the Philippine Islands. And yet it is even so, and all of them are right this one time if never before. And present righteousness covers a multitude of past transgres-
