

THEY TIRE OF GIVING LIFT

Motorists Find Their Kindness to Strangers on Road Sometimes is Greasly 'Abused.

Any automobilist going out Westchester way, particularly on the roads # leading to New Bochells and Bys Beach, will find himself bealaged by young men and boys seeking "a lift." Occasionally but not so often two girls "walking" will ask a similar favor.

One man complains that he even went out of his way to be obliging to his "guests," but that now the world may walk for all he'll care, says the New York Sun and Globs. The other day, halled by three youths, he stopped and they all pilled in. The man's wife was with him on the front seal and membered there was a call she wished to make.

The three alighted grunbling. Later the automobiliat found that his passengers had burned holes in his floor mat, and scuffed the woodwork of the panals on the front seat.

"You got off lightly," a friend remarked. "I make it a point to give no one a lift, for I understand that in the event of an accident a self-invited guest could sue me and likely obtain substantial damages."

Naming Pulimana a Task The first-pullman cur was a "remodeled Chicago & Alton day coach, No. 8 cars had been lettered, numbering commerce, was resumed. However, to avoid conflict with railroad car numbers, it was Detroit News. "The Pioneer" was the first name used on a pullman car. Later names of women, flowers, birds, cities, towns, rivers, lakes, soldiers, poets, battlefields and camps were adopted. There are now so many pullman cars that it has been found necessary to take names from ancient history.

Alligator Gar Fights Captor. Porter Davis, local fisherman, caught a mammoth alligator measuring six feet and five inches in length and weighing 114 pounds on a trot line out in the Ohlo river a short distance below the gravel pit, says the Mount Vernon (O:) Democrat. Davis said the creature put up a game fight, coming at him in his skiff with his mouth open and its long teeth gleaming. Davis used a grab hook in landing, the gar. The creature was kept alive and exhibited by Davis on the court square. Fishermen say the gar could inflict serious injury to swimmers and that it constitutes a warning to the host of small boys going into the river near the gravel plt.

Anglesey only as the first bit on the way from Holyhead to London. Yes, year by year, by virtue of splendid gold courses and fine hydros, the Weish county separated from the mainland by the Menal straits, and connected with the mainland by two historic bridges, is coming more and more into prominence as a holiday center.

NITRATE DESERT AIDS WORLD

Dessists Region in Plateau Country of Chile is Bource of Famous Boda Commodity.

In the high plateau country of Chila. between 'the coast ranges and the Andes, lies a desert which is one of the deadest spots on earth. No green passing through New Rochells she re- -thing grows upon it, no living creature is sative to it.

> And yet this desert has been for a century a primary support of human life in the civilized world, says the Nation's Business.' Although actence now premises eventually to make us independent of this desert and its product, it is no exaggeration to say that the great expansion of the race which has taken place in the last hundred years would have been impossible without it. And the propie of the United States are still largely dependent upon it.

This unique desert is the source of the famous Chilean nitrate of sodaa commodity which is at present the 9, and continued with its original des subject of a special investigation beignation. It was first decided to letter ing made at the beheat of congress by uliman car A. B. C. etc., but when the bureau of foreign and domestic

The nitrate situation and the investigation of it are significant not only decided to give each pullman car a because of the importance of wider baptismal name, copying the custom of use of such valuable fertilizing agents faming locomotives in the '70s after as nitrate of soda, and of as cheap a officials and other celebrities, says the supply as possible, but also because factors controlling the supply of nitrates are typical of those that affect a number of other raw materials which are indispensable to civilized countries.

Rich Folk Enjoy Nickel Cone.

It is a well-known fact that there is something about summer and summer vacations that compels even the most dignified to shake off some of their inhibitions and enjoy themselves in ways they would scorn in other seasons, says the New York Sun and Globe. This is particularly true of the younger set, but older people are not immune. The other day on a much traveled post road an expensive car came to a stop by one of those small roadside stores that specializes in lemonade, popcorn and ice cream. The chauffeur climbed out, went up to the diminutive counter and in a moment returned to the car with three ice cream cones which his passe not only to the children, but also to great deal in judging the information about the resources, cit- scheme, in which the goods were dis- good, hid?" mate and topography of Georgia and played, the above booth was one of South Carolina will be offered for study. The information given in the county booths could not be obtained on a thirty day trip or a week spent in studying tables of statistics and reports.

The county building at the Tri- The Savannah Tridiate Esposition State Exposition will surprise even is only four years old, but its county the residents of Georgia in its portanetion is largue and better than most trayal of resources unrivalled in rich- of the older state fairs of the coun ness and variety. The exhibits will try. This is a fact of which every be a graphic demonstration of what Georgian should feel proud.

DAIRY AND BEEF CATTLE that inferior breeding and poor food ARE FUNDAMENTAL TO ing are the chief causes of undergrown AGRICULTURE : CAUSES OF RUNTS ARE EXPLAIN-ED; FARM POWER DI- sets forth how to combat contaginar VIDED.

to keep the disease out of healthy Without definite breeding plans no herds. farmer can expect to improve his cattle and certainly few can hope to raise States have been reduced to a minyoung cattle that will make an assoi mum, as shown on the large world map which gives at a glance the magto his herd. This is the text of the nitude of livestock diseases in for message that is graphically told in the government booth which will be placed ican farmers is not due to good forin the Johnson building. Tri-State Ex- tune, but to organized effort of the position, during the week of October United States Department of Agricul-27 to November 3 at Savannah. Every ture through its animal guarantine phase of cattle raising is told in the service. many maps, illustrations and relief out- Comparisons of power costs comput. lines which compose this comprehen- ed in September, 1921, prices of fuel, sive demonstration under the direc- oil and feed (other costs as of 1920) tion of government experts who travel for different operations furnish the bathe country over showing the farmers sis for many practical calculations in at fairs the improved methods of cat- the story of farm power as told in one

tle breeding. One of the salient points in the and economical utilization of power theme of the exhibit is that livestock for drawbar work on the farm has are of fundamental importance to per become a vital problem. The farmers manent agriculture. In a large meas- have seen the value of tractor and ure, cattle are a by-product of the farm | horse power, and the exhibit in relatsince they produce from crops of hay, ing to the problem gives facts and figcereal by-product and others milk, but- ures obtained on a large number of ter, beef and cheese. This category corn belt farms. Graphic illustrations foes not include the vast number of show that on these farms-all of by-products that have made dairy cat- which use tractors-about seventy per tle and beef cattle such an asset to cent of the farm power was supplied the average farmer. Wholesome meat by horses, the remainder being furcontributes toward a well balanced nished by tractors.

on her arm, and then whistled. "Oh, peddlin' fruit agen, bah? Business booths. Because of the artistic She stamped her fuot in a rage.

> "Lemma alune," she demanded, eyes like live coals. "I'm not sellin" 'son." "B'gosh an' it's sortain ye mus be carryin per lunch. Ter not givin 'em away to the immygrints." "I am an," she insisted. "I always give 'em away, Hopest !" Mike stared at her incredulously.

Her father, an Italian fruit vonder, was considered wealthy among the docks-the mine dicks where, ten years before, he stepped ashore, with the same pretty Bosis, that a gawky child of twates, harded with one lades. arm, a large wooden box under another, a very few hundred dellars in his pocket, and but two English words on his tonguo-" "Meetra" and "dollar." Ten years had made little change, socopt financially, in aid Burcart, but had, through tedlous but sure achooking, startingly Americanized Bosis. "Watchs givin' ma?" he snorted.

"Nothin'," she mapped back, "but this whole basketful goes t' th' poor fish over there," pointing to the detention house. She knew Mike Gegan and was surprised at the change in his usual hoisterous good humor. "What's th' matter, Mike?"

"Tell me," he ignored her question, Foreign plagues in the United still eyeing her amasedly, "what's th' idea? An' what're ye doin' it fer?" "Love and pity," came her brief reply, and then her eyes lighted up like a votary. "Love for America-my America-and pity for them as can't get in." She cupped her chin in her hands and, leaning on the rail, stared into vacancy. "I've been where they. are, Mike, I remember it. I know how they feel. So alone so strangebut oh, so hopeful. Oh, what America means to them! Hope-life-a new chance. Oh, how I love it | How great it feels just to know I'm here-part of that," and hazedly, she swept her hands toward the crowded New York skyline. "I'm here-happy-free-American-oh !" And the reverent look of a worshiper intensified as she gazed at the flag streaming proudly fifty feet away. Quickly, her eyes softened. "Mike, tell me-what's wrong with you

> "Nothin' ye can help," gruffly. "Please-tell me."

"I jes' told ye," he growled, then he blurted out : "See that mob over there? Me cousin's in that bunch, an' he'll be marks Life. goin' back t' County Belfast, so he will." Rosie was now eyeing him fixedly. "Got a fool notion he cud play th' violin. 'At's all he has got-a speare. squeaky fiddle, a fool notion he kin make a hit here, an' about ten cents in republican money. So they won't let him come in. Shame, too ! A foine lad, Tim Shane. Gave up a good job in th' wright. city t' help his ould mother 'tind t' kled with am th' pigs, nursed her through eight years' sickness, an' raised three little French farce, sisters till some aunt tuk 'em away, an' all his money in th' clothes on their backs. An' they let in some o' these Bullsheviks-" "If he's so fine," demanded Roste, why don't you help 'im t' get in?". "I gud, but with what, I'm askin anorted Miks. "A ferryhand's wagesT He darted a look, almost of contempt, it the oranges in her has ket. "Little good them aranges will do the open of Thes. An' may, I'll ber spring a prohibition joins. 11 Clar 218(p+ per mitt man wonite's in letter ja bring these over here if he hnew it." "In America," came Rosse's proved mouth over her mouther, as she date all contact line factorizing houses, "in girl 100 and setting sets." Wine stress had form to

Had Just Returned From Har Haney. moon When Miefortune Bafel) Har.

They had just returned from their homeymous; a trip of billes, boy and happiness all three. He klaued her good-by as he started for the office, and murmured maky sufearing things into her car, all of which she kept Charm.

The day was slowly fading, and a feeting of terror state over har. A grim waiting of she know not what numbed her senses and stirved her im agination already builting over.

Why did not her mother wars her? O, why did they not furbld her man riage? It was too horrible to condem plate-that they wilfally sacrificed her to their ambitions. Impossible! Yet, 200-7

"O, if she dared only open that door, just to satisfy her wild imagine tions. O. If something would only happen to reliave the tonar strain she was laboring under. And she wast fare it alone-alone

Yes, she must see what was going on behind that door-yes, if the sight should kill her-she must! The mps tary must be solved if her death should result-or even the loss of her hus hand's love.

She started for the door, but her knoss gave way under her and she collapsed on the foor. Ah, brave heart! She arises! And again crosses the floor to the door, full of portentous silence. What a dread suspense! Beads of ky perspiration dashed to the floor and splashed back again. O, she must-she must !-

Slowly ten more minutes dragged their weary length along-they seemed ages. Then with a strength born of a desperate resolve, she rushed across the floor and flung open the door. A cloud of smoke rushed from the oven. Her first ple had burned to a crisp. -Detroit Free Press.

HOW TO KNOW STAGE PLAYS

Infallible Signs That Show the Amateur to What Class They Belong.

If all the characters are dressed in queer looking costumes of an unknown period, and speak their lines like a young politician making his first address, it's a classical play, re-

If it's filled with quotations you've heard before, it's probably Shake-

If after four acts and thirty-one scenes you haven't the slightest idea what it's all about, it's undoubtedly the masterplece of a Russian play-

If the first scene is liberally sprinurs and disne section of the exhibit. The efficient tonight?"

Handsome cash prizes are offered this year, and are accompanied by the ribbon and diploma awards. These together with the widespread public ity they receive are of inestimable value to the competing counties.

causes of runts. It has been shown livestock and that the suckling period is the critical time is a young and mal's growth. The exhibit also clearly abortion when this disease enters, s herd. Additional directions tail how eign countries. This freedom of Amer-county

a woman and two men with money stamped all over them, proceeded to eat with evident and almost childish enjoyment.

Their Little Spat.

"Fat King" Claims Award. The "Fat King," as Maj. G. W. Ellis of the British army, was known to the troops in France during the war, is a claimant before the royal commission of awards to inventors. The claim is for an invention that the major perfected whereby. the food waste at caupe and bases was treated in such a way that the fat was separated from the rest of the settles, sent back to England and used for the associations of giptering

. ....

Send Us Your Job Work.

She-If we were married and di vorced, would you object to my marrying again? He-Why, not all. She-You talk in such a heartless manner. He-Well, why should I have sympathy for a fellow 1 don't even know? Waynids Episods. "He is using bentitie language." "Es is, induct." Do. our? "What's the marties

"Burnetbilling Wroning discos, 2 dinese

Prop. the pushpest that to the great heavy still was the subpr. of dairy and head onities liked was particled heritors the constitute next year at the defrant Set States Successions. The procession was feel by a balls whose spitters much confederal a from of the maximum, and the most wrone given an experimence unrised Acres the Plant manifecture within the sourcess of our rack. The size and addressed another tall likes income classing spream the likely specificate and income discussions of absent husbands, It's If the dialogue is made up chiefly of profanity and vile epithets, it's the work of a "realistic" writer. If it bores you, it's "strong" drama with a "meanage." If the chief male character wears owhich boots with his dinner clothes, it's a drama of American faance. If the compliants wink confidentia at the audience, they're about to arrest of two or three tittes as the curisis me it's position poort you're going in wa home a Chilinger ph and if you had show, if a more to be a