ASPARAGUS ASSOCIATION ... HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

Membership in "The Outlaws" Grows. -Warmer Weather Wanted.

Elko, March 17 .- The Elko Aspargus Growers' Association-sometime's called "The Outlaws"-had a regular meeting about two weeks ago. Members from Williston, Blackville ing the 12th birthday of little Miss and Barnwell were in attendance. The directors appointed for the current year are those who served last season, viz.: T. M, Willis, Williston; P. S. Green, Elko; R. R. Johnston, Elko, and L. M. Sprawls, Williston. Mr. N. tle folks who attended this delightful B. Youngblood will again supervise party. the loading, etc. The membership now will approximate forty or fifty, intermediate classes at the Baptist All the growers are getting anxious Church Friday hight, with Miss Juanto see warm weather.

The announcement of the marriage enjoyable occasion. of Mr. Wilbur H. Hutto, of Charlotte, N. C., to Miss Katherine G. Spencer, of York, which occurred Feb. 11th, was of much interest to the many relatives and friends of the groom in Elko. Their home is in Charlotte.

Because of the popularity of the oride, the news of the marriage of Miss Norma Cato, of Ridge Spring, to Mr. Frederick H. Turley, of Greenville, which occurred in Columbia on Feb. 16th was also received with interest. Miss Cato was the assistant teacher in the local school for two sessions a few years ago. She also saught at the Healing Springs school. Their home will be in Greenville.

Mr. B. S. Breazele, manager of the Plaza Hotel, of Anderson, who had been in attendance upon the Masonic visitor in Barnwell Wednesday after- soon as possible. Mrs. Clara L. J. Hitt and Misses Frances Rankin and Connie Crouch, he local teachers, had the opportunity last week-end while in Columbia to join the Spring fashion dress parade on Main Street.

Mrs. G. E. Crouch and Mrs. R. G. Stansell are expecting to leave this week for Orlando, Fla., to spend some ime and money visiting relatives and sight seeing.

Misses Elizabeth Johnston and El len Grimes, Seniors at Winthrop Coilege, have been spending their Spring vacation with the home folks. They are already receiving congratulations because of their fast approaching graduation day.

Mr. D. D. Eison was here recently, but we did not find it out until he had left. He teaches at Parksville. His visits are entirely too short.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Lee motored to Greenville a few days ago to visit relatives of the latter for the weekiend.

Next Sunday is the regular day for services at the local Baptist Church. Evening services will be held at 7:30 p. m. and the morning service at the usual hour, 11:00 cretock. Pastor Funderburk will come down from Lexington Saturday and will be the guest at Mrs. Ashley Stansell's home until Monday.

COMMON PLEAS COURT MAKES HASTE SLOWLY

Comparatively Small Number of Cases Disposed of at This Term.

. Like the mills of the gods, the court of justice in Barnwell County grinds slowly, a comparatively small number of cases having been disposed of at the present term of the Court of Common Pleas, which convened here on March 10th, with Judge Simpkins presiding. The following is a list of the cases disposed of since the last issue of The People:

-Miss Bettie Matthews vs. Southern Railway Co., suit for $3,000 damages, verdict for the plaintiff for $1,100.

Home Bank of Barnwell vs. A. O. Sanders and Mrs. A. O. Sanders, suit on notes and mortgages, verent for the plaintiff for $750.

Jane Robinson vs. American National Insurance Co., suit for $3,000 damages for fraud, etc., verdict for the plaintiff for $200.

Big Barbecue Dinner.

Ladies of the Barnwell Baptis Church will serve a barbecue dinner today (Thursday) at the Molair house, the proceeds being for the benefit of the new church building fund. 'The public is cordially invited to attend.

Plan Your Garden Now.

Gardening is the call which is ringing over the County! All the neighbors are asking "Have you planted your garden yet"? Just where do you stand in this line? Are you at the foot or the head? Have you stopped to think if your garden is an "All year round" garden? . Are you planning to have a green vegetable on your table each day? Try this and save your last year's doctor bill. Your body is like the engine of your Mr. and Mrs. Carter Price, of Barn- Ford-it can not run unless you give well, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. it the material on which to run. When it gets a knock in the engine you put in a new spark plug or whatever it needs. Now, if you had kept up with the needs of the engine and supplied the necessary "Material" before end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. it was too late the knock would not have been heard. And so with our body. We can't hope to keep healthy. and I add "wealthy and wise," unless week given by Mrs. R. H. Wilcox and we give ourselves the necessary food on which to run our body and keep us

When fresh vegetables are out of reach it is time for the progressive from the State Teachers' meeting to housewife to pick from her pantry shelf garden and not from the grocery store garden. Some one has said Professors Robison and Kennedy that "now is the time to do canning of the Barnwell High School were in your head." Plan your garden, here Saturday attending the County efficiently, in order to have plenty with which to deck your pantry shelf when the time comes to can in glass and tin. There is a real joy in life which some of us miss because we do not get out and work with nature more. If you would like any outside information about the plans of your garden, write me.
