NUMBER 47

CANDIDATES FOR SENATE AT BARNWELL TOMORROW

Blease, Byrnes, Dial and McMahon to Address Voters Here.

As announced in The People last week, candidates for the United States Senate will address the voters of Barnwell County at Barnwell tomorrow, Friday, July 25th. There are four entries in the race—Ex-Gov. C. L. Blease, Senator N. B. Dial, Congressman "Jimmie" Byrnes and the Hon. John J. McMahon. While no announcement has been made to that effect, it is probable that the meeting will be held at the Vamp Theatre, as a large crowd is expected to be present.

Rest Room Ready.

Mrs. G. M. Greene states that the ladies' rest room in the new addition to the Court House will be in readiness for the occasion and visiting ladies are invited to make use of it. Furniture was bought a few days ago and will be installed by Friday. The rest room fills a large gap and will add much to the pleasure and comfort of visitors.

Members of the Barnwell Methodist Church announce that a barbecue dinner will be served Friday in Calan Park, the proceeds being for the benefit of the church. Everybody is invited to attend the "cue and a splendid meal is promised.

BLACKVILLE TRUCK WAS GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT

Season Ends With Poor Results For Farmers.—Good Cotton Crop.

Blackville, July 21.—The truck crop here has about come to a close. It has been most disappointing to the farmers. The cucumber crop was very good, but the prices were so low that the farmers did not clear expenses out of the crop. It was the same with the cantaloupes and watermelons.

The cantaloupe crop was fine with a large output and the fruit very sweet, but for the same reason the planters did not nearly clear expenses. Numbers of cars of watermelons were loaded but could not be sold and were unloaded. Several farmers left their melons in the field and did not even load them.

The corn crop is one of the best generally here ever seen in the country and a number of farmers say they have one of the best prospects for a cotton crop they have ever had. The crop is spotted, though, and some farmers say their seed is too large for the fruit and it remains to be seen if it will fruit right.

There are very few boll weevils and up to date they have done practically no harm. Some farmers claim they have a hole in the ear already on the stalk, if the boll weevil will let it lay there and make.

Numbers of farmers had bought cotton and have never used it, as they find practically no damage from the weevil.

The potatoes are good, the prospects for a hay crop after grain are very good and the gardenware is good.

Shelling Items.

Shelby, July 22.—Miss Lucy Cook returned home Friday from Orangeburg, where she has been attending summer school for teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pitt and Miss Sina Pitt spent Saturday afternoon in Blackville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reel and Emily Reel, of Augusta, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Merritt last week.

Card of Thanks.

Blackville, July 15.—The children of the late Mr. W. D. Fanning wish to extend thanks to their many friends for the expressions of sympathy and help rendered during his illness and death.

SUPERVISOR J. S. STILL KILLED NEGRO LAST WEEK

Dan Green Shot After Striking Guard and Attempting to Escape.

Dan Green, a negro convict, was shot and killed Friday by Supervisor J. S. Still after the negro had hit Mr. Joe Baxley, chain gang guard, with a shovel and attempted to escape. Green hit Mr. Baxley over the head with the shovel, knocking him senseless, and was in the act of striking the fallen man again, it is said, when other convicts intervened and probably saved his life. The negro then attempted to make his escape. Mr. Still, who was near the camp at the time, gave chase on a mule and finally located the convict hidden in a ditch some four miles away. He ordered Green out of the ditch and the negro advanced toward him in a threatening manner with a large stick in his hand, whereupon the Supervisor fired one shot, which took effect in the convict's left side, causing death.

Green was serving a 60-day sentence on the gang for vagrancy and malicious mischief.

Mr. Baxley was painfully injured by the blow on the head, it being reported here that he was unable to work Monday.

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO BE VOTED ON THIS FALL

To Decide For or Against Seven Constitutional Amendments.

Columbia, July 22.—South Carolinians will go to the polls in the general election this fall to vote on seven constitutional amendments which will make important changes in the State government, in addition to voting on the selection of a President and Vice-President of the United States.

Joint resolutions providing for submission to the people of the proposed amendments to the State Constitution were passed at the 1924 session of the Legislature and have since been signed by Governor Thor, G. McLeod. The proposed amendments provide for biennial sessions of the Legislature; levy of taxes biennially; reduction of constitutional State officers every four instead of every two years; calling of the legislative sessions by a two-thirds vote of its members; changing the State fiscal year to begin July 1st instead of January 1st; abolition of the present three mills constitutional school tax levy, and passage of a ten-million dollar bond issue for a building program for educational, penal and charitable institutions.

In addition, there will be over one hundred amendments of a local nature, having to do with school and municipal bond issues, extension of bond limits and other matters of county-wide importance.

Probably the amendment of greatest importance is that which would provide for holding sessions of the Legislature every other year. Advocates of the constitutional change argue that it will reduce the cost of government and thereby lighten the tax burden.

Several amendments would be necessary to make the operation of the biennial sessions amendment effective. Among these is the proposed amendment calling for the levy of a biennial tax as well as the amendment referring to the terms of State officers.

Officers whose terms would be doubled are the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Comptroller General and Adjutant General, in separate amendments. Attorney General and State Superintendent of Education.

Where the governor refuses to call a session of the Legislature, that law-making body would be empowered to call a special session by vote of its members, two-thirds being the necessary majority to carry the joint resolution, under one of the proposed amendments.

The change of the State's fiscal year starts to begin on July 1st, instead of on January 1st, was advocated to avoid the conflict that has occurred between the appropriation of State funds and the fiscal year for which the funds are provided. Under the present system there is a period between January 1st and the March, when appropriations are made, during which the State departments are handicapped for lack of funds.

Advocates of the repeal of the constitutional school tax levy have argued that with increasing State aid for schools, the three mills levy is not necessary. The proceeds of the levy are expended in the counties every year for local school purposes.

These amendments will be voted upon in November, and not in the August primary. Voters of the State have been urged by high State officials to consider these proposed changes so as to render a decision in the general election which will be in keeping with the best interest of the State.

BARNWELL MAN'S HOME STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Wind, Rain and Thunderstorm Visited This Section Monday.

One of the worst thunderstorms of the Summer, accompanied by high winds and a terrific downpour of rain, visited Barnwell and the surrounding section early Monday afternoon. Gathering in the north-east, the storm swept over the city, accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and crashing peals of thunder. As the wind veered to the east, the storm seemed to increase in fury, the rain coming down in sheets. The residence of Mr. W. A. Hayes was slightly damaged by lightning, the bolt striking the chimney and knocking off a few bricks. Mr. Hayes, who had just finished taking a bath, was slightly shocked by the bolt. Lonnie Calhoun says that "Bill" should have known better than to have taken a bath on Monday afternoon, Saturday night being the conventional time in most localities.

The only other damage reported in Barnwell was the uprooting of a small tree in the yard of Dr. W. M. Jones, although several trees were blown down on the Barnwell-Olar public road.

Considerable damage was done to crops by the heavy rains, a number of fields being under water following the downpour.

Merritt-Munn.

Williston, July 20.—All social interests of the week were centered in the marriage of Miss Emily Elizabeth Merritt, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dozier Lee Merritt, to Charles Dewey Munn, of Pamlico, which was solemnized at "Windyhill" Monday afternoon, July 14, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. W. R. Davis, pastor of the Williston Baptist church.

Miss Hattie Smith sang "Until" and "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. Carl Hyman, cousin of the bride.

The ceremony room was decorated with a triple mirror with a background of palms and ferns to reflect many bowls of unburnt roses and other summer flowers of yellow tints. White tapers in brass candelabra carried out the color scheme of white and gold.

The French doors connecting the reception room and ceremony room were opened by Misses Elizabeth and Christine Munn, sisters of the bridegroom. At the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" the maid of honor, Miss Louise Black, the bride's only attendant, entered. She wore a lovely costume of green georgette over satin with trimmings of lemon colored lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow ladioli. The ring bearer, little Ethel Munn, sister of the bridegroom, carried the ring on a silver tray. The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage.

Her beautiful, radiant beauty was enhanced by her costume of navy blue chiffon over satintuck crepe, fashioned in a becoming style. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bridegroom's best man was William Hyman.

Immediately after the wedding reception was held. Receiving with the bride party were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Munn, parents of the groom, and Miss Wilkinson, an aunt. Receiving in the vestibule were Mrs. James Russell, of Greenville and Mrs. Quincy A. Kennedy.

Mrs. F. T. Merritt presenting the guests to the bridal party. Angel food cake, cream and mints were served by Misses Agnes Latimer and Elizabeth Kennedy, cousins of the bride. Miss Lucia Smith Poston presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Munn slipped away in their car for a wedding trip of two weeks in the mountains of North Carolina and Virginia, after which they will return to make their home in Pamlico, where the groom has a prominent young business man.

The bride attended Converse college.

It is argued that with increasing State aid for schools, the three mills levy is not necessary. The proceeds of the levy are expended in the counties every year for local school purposes.

These amendments will be voted upon in November, and not in the August primary. Voters of the State have been urged by high State officials to consider these proposed changes so as to render a decision in the general election which will be in keeping with the best interest of the State.

MRS. ROBINSON'S TEA WAS LARGE AFFAIR OF WEEK

Recent Barnwell Bride Honored by Asheville Hostess.

The following item from The Asheville (N. C.) Citizen of July 30th will be read with much interest by the Barnwell friends of Mrs. Widman, who before her marriage a few weeks ago was Miss Emily Porter, of this city:

The tea on Friday afternoon given by Mrs. N. T. Robinson and daughter, Miss Miriam Robinson, to honor Mrs. John Lawrence Widman, a recent bride, proved to be one of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the week. The affair was given at the Robinson home on Merrimon Avenue, which is spacious and well adapted for entertaining. Summer flowers added beauty and charm to the rooms used for the reception.

Little Mary McLarty, of High Point, and Master Charles McArthur received the cards of the callers, who were greeted at the door during the first hour by Mrs. J. T. Bledsoe and Mrs. Fred McArthur. Little Susan Jackson opened the door for the guests. Miss Sarah Grimes introduced to the receiving line.

During the second hour, Mrs. J. R. Rice and Mrs. J. W. Houston welcomed the ladies. The receiving line, which stood in the drawing room, was composed of Mrs. Robinson and her daughter and Mrs. Widman. Mrs. Robinson received her guests in a beautiful afternoon gown of gray georgette and lace; while Miss Robinson wore beaded orange georgette. The bride was gowned in robin egg blue georgette, handsomely beaded in crystals.

Assisting in entertaining the guests in the drawing room during the afternoon were Mrs. Edward Schoenheit, Mrs. J. W. Houston, Mrs. J. T. Bledsoe, Mrs. M. W. Grimes, Mrs. Schoenheit and Mrs. C. C. Knight.

Directing to the punch bowl were Mrs. Canie N. Brown, Mrs. K. K. Worcester, Mrs. Joseph Fulton, Mrs. Chester Brown and Miss Eva Brown, who alternated during the receiving hours.

Presiding over the punch bowl, which was attractively arranged in the sun parlor amidst a bowser of grapes, were Miss Annie Westall, Miss Dorothea Weaver, Mrs. Whitaker English and Mrs. Ringgold Schley, of Brevard, who also alternated in service. Assisting in dispensing the cooling beverage were Miss Maurine Bledsoe and guest, Miss Thornton, Miss Elizabeth L'Engle and Miss Edith Carr. Mrs. J. R. Rice and Mrs. C. C. Knight poured during the first hour in the dining room which was presided over by Mrs. W. E. Glenn and Mrs. W. W. Hanaman. Serving during the first hour were Miss Caroline Brown, Miss Frances Auld, Miss Marguerite McDowell and Mrs. Ringgold Schley.

The second hour, Mrs. Canie N. Brown and Mrs. W. L. Neubeck poured, and serving were Miss Annie Westall, Miss Marion Merrick and Miss Dorothea Weaver.

Over 200 ladies called during the reception to greet and do honor to Mrs. Widman, who was before her marriage a few weeks ago, Miss Emily Porter, of Barnwell, S. C., a charming girl. Mr. and Mrs. Widman will be at home with Mrs. Widman at 4 o'clock on Sunday.

Franks' Slayers Plead Guilty.

Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, the "intellectual murderers" of Chicago, have pleaded guilty to the murder of Robert Franks, 13-year-old school boy of that city. It will probably be two or three weeks before sentence is passed.

and Greenville Woman's college and is a gifted musician. She has lived all her life in Williston and has endeared herself to both young and old by her sunny disposition and lively manner and all regret to see her leave to make her home elsewhere.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Munn, Misses Georgia, Christine, Elizabeth and Ethel Munn, Mrs. Wilkinson, Misses Maria Steel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hyman, of Pamlico, Miss Lucia Smith Poston, of Johnsonville, Mrs. W. G. Smith, of Orangeburg, Mrs. James Russell, of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reel and Miss Emily Reel, of Augusta, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Merritt, of North Augusta, and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Merritt, of St. Matthews.

ELECTRIC LIGHT WIRES KILL BLACKVILLE MAN

Heart Failure After Cold Swim Also Proved Fatal.—Two Injured.

Blackville, July 21.—The people of Blackville and vicinity were grieved by three misfortunes, two of them fatal, Friday and early Saturday. Douglas Rymer, aged 25 years, who worked with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, was up in a tree on one of the main business streets sawing off a limb, which was resting on the telephone cable, and the electric light wires of the Edisto Public Service Commission were resting against the same limb. The tree seemed to carry the current of the light wires and when the young man put his hand on the cable he was killed instantly from the shock. Mr. Rymer's home originally was in Asheville, N. C. The company had his body embalmed and shipped it to Asheville for interment.

Mr. Rowell, of Bamberg, editor of a newspaper there, heard of the accident and, taking his mother and sister in his automobile, was driving up here to get a writeup of it for his paper. They were on the highway in sight of town when run into by another automobile driven by a man named Cave. Mr. Rowell's machine was badly wrecked and his mother and sister seriously injured. Cave and another man, who was with him were arrested and will be prosecuted for the offense.

Saturday morning at 2 o'clock Bolton Fanning, 25 years old, died suddenly. He was a single young man, in business with his father, D. F. Fanning. During the night he and a few friends went out about two miles from here to what is known as Healing Springs and went in bathing, returning about 1 o'clock. He went to bed and at 2 o'clock his father heard him struggling and, going to his bed, found him dead.

The water at the Healing Springs bathing place is very cold and it is thought, as it was a very hot night, it was too much of shock for him and caused heart failure.

He was buried yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Blackville cemetery.

SCOFIELD BROTHERS PURCHASE SAW MILL

Barnwell Saw Mill Company Sold For $100,000.

Aiken, July 16.—The Barnwell Saw Mill Company was purchased today for $100,000 by Scofield Brothers, big mill owners of Philadelphia.

The property was in the hands of Hon. Charles Carroll Simms as receiver for some months, and Hon. E. A. Brown bid in the holding for Scofield Brothers. The Hendersons, attorneys of Aiken, perfected the papers for the deal today, finally closing the trade.

Besides the mill property the Barnwell company owned a timber lease over nearly two thousand acres of land in the district.

R. W. Scofield, member of the purchasing firm, spent several days this week in Barnwell and Aiken.

Death of W. D. Fanning.

Blackville, July 16.—Mr. W. D. Fanning, of the Springfield section, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leo Lancaster, near Blackville. He was in his 68th year, surviving his wife only two months and 16 days.

Mr. Fanning had been gradually losing his eyesight for the past 3 years, but his general health was good until recently. The death of his wife broke his heart and hastened the disease that took his life. He leaves three daughters, eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, one sister and two brothers, besides a host of other relatives and friends, who miss him greatly. He was laid to rest in the Dean Swamp cemetery, where he has been a faithful member for years. The Revs. L. H. Miller, of Blackville, and Hammond, of Springfield, conducted the funeral services.
