Bamberg is one of the very healthiest places in the State. Being situated in the low country makes no difference here. Malaria is almost unknown, and consequently there are no mosquitoes. We warrant that there has been less fever in Bamberg, according to population, this year, than in any town in the State.

***

Bamberg wants more people, and a hearty welcome is extended to all good citizens who want to cast their lot with us. There is plenty of room for all who may come, and our population should double itself in the next year or so. We invite persons who are looking for a good town to locate, to come and inspect our advantages, for we feel sure that a personal visit will result in their coming here to live.

***

We want to say in all earnestness and candor to the people of Bamberg that if they want to help the town they must not wait for outside assistance. Self-help is the best help, and if we will go to work, pull together, and show to the outside world that we who live here believe in the town and are willing to invest our money here, naturally it follows that outside capital and aid will gravitate in our direction. "The gods help those who help themselves," and this applies equally as much to corporations and communities as to individuals.

Brother Rodgers, of the Palm... Post, seems to be having a tough time. See what a sad story he relates of his inability to take a day's outing on the fourth:

It made the editor sad Tuesday to see so many people going off for a day's holiday Tuesday, when he had to stay hard at work. Much of this is due to delinquent subscribers, who, holding back what is due, prevents us from obtaining the help necessary and places the entire burden upon us.

We hope that this appeal will ... hearts of the delinquents, ... will be able ... the matter at their annual meeting this month at Harris Lithia Springs. We are heartily in sympathy with the movement, and hope to be present at the meeting. If not, our hearty co-operation is hereby pledged to any action the brethren take on this line, for we think it high time that the newspapers quit working for glory.

... have received the first issue of ... Clinton News," a new paper just started at Clinton, S. C., of which Messrs. S. Frank and Junius Parrott are the publishers. It is a neat, clean, and newsy sheet, and we feel sure that our young friends will have great success in their new enterprise. Clinton is a live town, and the two Parrott boys are hustlers.

The railroad situation in Columbia has finally developed into a good thing for that city. The Seaboard Air Line paid into the city treasury last Monday $30,000, for Sydney Park, this being the price fixed by condemnation proceedings. This finally settles the question as to whether the Seaboard will build to Columbia, and we are glad of the successful outcome of the negotiations. Now, the thing for Bamberg to do, is to see that we get that road which is being so mysteriously surveyed from Augusta to Charleston. The temporary survey places the road about ten miles below town, and, if the road is ever built, we must have it to come by here. We cannot afford to let it pass us by.

There seems to be rather a general demand among the newspapers that the State House be completed. We, too, would like the structure made one that will reflect credit on the State, and if the money now appropriated to the State colleges is used for that purpose, we shall be in favor of its completion. However, we are opposed to any increase in taxes for this work, because we do not believe the people are in good enough financial condition to stand it.

There is not another town in the State of equal size and resources that is inaugurating and carrying a greater number of private and public enterprises than Gaffney is carrying at the present time. The waterworks are progressing to the tune of $18,000; the jail is going up at a cost of $10,000; the oil mill is absorbing $10,000 or $15,000 more; the Methodists and Baptists are together spending $20,000 on new churches, and Limestone College is putting $20,000 on improvements. Look at these figures: In round numbers $80,000 is moving for the upbuilding of the town and the common good. These are the cold facts, but the whole country will feel the warmth of the spirit behind them.—Gaffney Ledger.

We only clip the above to show the people of Bamberg what other new county seats are doing, and to impress upon them the necessity of public improvements and private enterprise. Every dollar invested in Bamberg by our moneyed men will pay good interest, and will also improve and benefit the property interests of the investor, as well as all other interests in which he may be financially interested. The business men of Gaffney are spending their money for the benefit of their town, and it is this spirit which is rapidly making it one of the best towns in the State. Bamberg can do no better than to follow the example of Gaffney.

ATLANTA'S DISGRACE.

It will be remembered that a short time ago Dr. Broughton, a Baptist minister in Atlanta, from his pulpit, charged Mayor Woodward with being a drunkard and a libertine, and offered proof of his charges. The city council immediately appointed a committee to investigate the charges, but all trouble was saved them by the Mayor appearing before them and acknowledging that they were true.

When their report was made to council several of the members made red-hot speeches and request... the Mayor to resign. However, ... promised to "go and sin ... majority of council ... him another ... the Editor Otis Brabham last week ...id down pen and scissors and ...as taken up the pencil and shears. We wish him great success in his new field of labor.—Denmark Times.

Weary of wielding the pen, which was characterized by grace, consistency, frankness and all that tended to cultivate and elevate the public mind, Mr. Otis Brabham gives way to Mr. A. W. Knight, of Sumter, as editor and proprietor of the Bamberg Herald. Mr. Knight is an energetic, capable, practical representative of the "Fourth Estate" and will give the readers of the Herald, an up-to-date, bright paper fifty-two weeks in the year. And here's good wishes for you, Brother Brabham, in whatever you undertake.—Barnwell Sentinel.

Our congratulations are extended to A. W. Knight who has just taken charge of the Bamberg Herald. We know those people in that town and county, and we know that there are no better people in the world, and no better town in the world than Bamberg. Brother Knight is a good newspaper man and we think that there is good cause for congratulations all round.—Florence Daily Times.

Mr. A. W. Knight, of the Sumter Herald, has bought out the Bamberg Herald, and will in future conduct the Herald as editor and propietor. Mr. Knight is a good newspaper man, and will give the people of Bamberg a live paper.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

Mr. A W. Knight, and family will leave tomorrow for Bamberg, where they will make their future home. Mr. Knight has purchased the Bamberg Herald and he will devote his time and energy to the task of giving the people of Bamberg a first class county paper.—Sumter Daily Item.

Mr. A. W. Knight announces his withdrawal from the Sumter Herald for the purpose of taking charge of the Bamberg Herald. Mr. Knight is a live man and he is going to a live town in a good field and we expect to see the Bamberg Herald wax strong and great under his management.—Florence Daily Times.

A. W. Knight, at one time a printer on the Times, and until recently one of the editors of the Sumter Herald, has bought out the Herald of Bamberg, S. C., and in future will edit that paper. Mr. Knight is a good all round printer, and if he turns out to be as good a writer as he is a type setter his success is assured. We wish him well.—Manning Times.

Mr. A. W. Knight withdraws from the Sumter Herald for the purpose of taking charge of the Bamberg Herald. Mr. Knight is a live man and he is going to a live town in a good field, and we expect to see the Bamberg Herald wax strong and great under his management.—Columbia correspondence News and Courier.

Mr. Wilkes Knight, who has been engaged in the newspaper business in Sumter for the past several years, has sold his interest in the Sumter Herald to his brother and has purchased the Bamberg Herald. Mr. Knight is a former Bennettsville boy and has many friends here who wish him success in his new venture.—Bennettsville Advocate.

Governor Richardson Dead.

It was with sincere regret that the news of the death of ex-Gov. John Peter Richardson was received this morning. He had been in failing health for some time, but none of his many friends thought the end so near. The end came about 11:15 o'clock at the Hotel Jerome, where he has lived for several years.

Governor Richardson was a man of brilliant attainments, while the name of John Peter Richardson was synonomous with honesty and integrity.

Governor Richardson's wife, to whom he was devotedly attached, was with him at the time of his death, while numerous friends and relatives hastened to lend assistance to the bereaved widow upon learning of his demise. Governor Richardson was seriously ill early in the spring, but a few days ago had so far recovered as to be able to leave his room.

Early yesterday morning he was unable to leave his bed. Later in the day his condition was worse, but the announcement of his death was a shock for which his friends were unprepared.

Many telegrams were received this morning from prominent people of the State and country expressive of deep regret at the governor's death.

Owing to the fact that the governor's brother and other members of he family could not get to Columbia until 11 o'clock tonight, the funeral arrangements have not been definitely decided upon, but it is likely that religious services will be held at Trinity in the morning.

Today the flags on the state house were at half mast in honor of the patriot and citizen. The state house was closed and crape was hung on the door. No business except that which demanded immediate attention was transacted.

The dead governor's body lies in ... parlor of the Hotel Jerome, and ...people called today to pay ...ts.—Columbia Record.

COW THIEVES CAPTURED.

One Said to be Charged with Murder in South Carolina.

Charley Jones, a negro, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Norris and Officer Webb, of the Augusta police force. They arrested him at the instance of Detective G. B. Kittrell, of Orangeburg county, S. C.

The detective arrived here yesterday and had a conference with the police. He said he was after Charley Jones, who had been stealing cows in Orangeburg county, and who was wanted for the murder of a man some years ago.

Sergeant Norris and Officer Webb took the trail. They arrested Jones out near Railroad avenue about dusk. He was sent to the station and is there now. He denies the charge.

This morning another party, who is said to be concerned in the cow stealing case with Jones, was arrested by Officer Webb at about the same place where Jones was apprehended. His name is nothing less than Simon Washington Hampton.

Both are charged with cow stealing, but the first one captured also has the charge of murder hanging over him. They will be taken to South Carolina. There is a bit of uncertainty about the man Jones being the one wanted for murder, but he will be taken to Orangeburg county and the matter fully investigated.—Augusta Herald.

Canteloupe Shipments.

Shipments of canteloupes began last week from Blackville. Large quantities were brought to the depot for shipment to New York by express before ascertaining the rates. To their surprise the shippers found they were charged at the rate of ninety-one cents a hundred, which would have consumed all the profits in the crop. Accordingly they changed their shipments to Asheville, Columbia and nearer Southern points. Monday a number of shippers combined in loading a refrigerator car to be forwarded to New York at the cost of thirty-two cents a hundred. This is the beginning of a new truck industry. The crop is large and of fine quality, but the handling of it is new to growers, and unless they can get reasonable rates of transportation, we fear the farmers will not continue it. We hope this can be satisfactorily arranged, and the venture prove a success. The hope of our county lies in diversified crops.—Barnwell Sentinel.

Flood in Texas.

A terrible flood occurred in Texas last week, which destroyed about $15,000,000 worth of property, and about three hundred lives were lost. The flood extended over a district of five hundred miles in length, with a breadth of possibly fifty miles. The waters of the Brazos river covered the valley for six days to a depth of from six to twenty feet. All crops were destroyed. This is the most appalling disaster that has occurred in this section in

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER.

The Slayer of Sevier Gets Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., July 8.—John K. Stuckey, a wealthy merchant of this city, was convicted of manslaughter this morning and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

On Thursday morning Stuckey was placed on trial for the murder of John Sevier, his bookkeeper, whom he shot in his store on December 24, last year. Sevier was shot twice in the side, and he died three hours after receiving the wounds.

Before he died he made a statement to those about him that Stuckey had shot him for nothing; that Stuckey was a bankrupt and killed him to cover it up. He also claimed that Stuckey owed him $200. An examination of Stuckey's books, however, showed him to be a wealthy man, and that instead of the convicted man being indebted to Sevier, the latter was indebted to the former.

The case was opened last Thursday. Duncan & Sanders & Hydrick & Wilson represented the defendant, while Solicitor Sease was assisted by A. L. Schumpert.

The case lasted two days, and every inch of ground was contested by the defendant's counsel. They made a strong defence for him on the ground of self-defense. Testimony was introduced to this effect and a pistol was produced which was picked up on the floor near where Sevier was sitting. It was claimed that the deceased attempted to shoot Stuckey, who fired on his assailant first. It is understood that the defendant's counsel will make a motion for a new trial and if necessary will take the case to the Supreme Court, as much important testimony considered relevant was not allowed to go in by Judge Gary.
