

Personal Mention.

—H. F. Rice, Esq., went to Barnwell today.

—Mr. E. M. Dixon spent last Sunday at Allendale.

—Supervisor J. B. Kearse spent Tuesday in town.

—Mr. G. B. Clayton, of Ehrhardt, was in town today.

—Mr. C. L. Carter, of Lodge, was in the city Tuesday.

—Mr. Henry Brown, of Rosses, was in the city this week.

—Mr. John H. Neese, of Elko, has accepted a position at the depot.

—Mr. A. Step Pennington, of Branchville, was in town this week.

—Mr. Lee Bradley, of Ulmer, will shortly move his family to Bamberg.

—Messrs. J. T. and R. J. Lightower, of Denmark, spent yesterday in town.

—Rev. G. H. Waddell, of the Epworth Orphanage, spent Tuesday in the city.

—Miss Leila Clark, who is teaching at Walterboro, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

—Mr. A. J. Eaves, who is attending the College of Charleston, spent Sunday at home.

—Mr. Wm. H. Kearse, and his charming daughter, Reka, of Denmark, were in town Tuesday.

—Mr. J. S. Jennings, son of Mr. G. A. Jennings, left Tuesday for Savannah to join the heavy artillery corps of the United States army.

—Misses Maggie Kirkley, Maude Tillman, and Nell Evans, teachers in the graded school at Denmark, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Thomas Black's.

—Mr. Albert Hunter, Mrs. Orren F. Hunter, and Master Roy Hunter (a great admirer and stalwart partisan of THE HERALD), by the way, all of Hunter's Chapel here in town Friday, the guests of Mrs. S. R. Gill.

A Coming Marriage.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Mr. Octavius Bowen Hartzog, formerly of this city, to Miss Rozelle Louise Waddill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Waddill. The happy event will take place on Wednesday evening, the 22d instant, at 9 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents in Greenville. Mr. Hartzog's many friends here extend congratulations in advance.

The Stars Failed to Fall.

According to the astronomers that great thirty-three year wanderer, Tempel's comet, should have got around to this planet last Tuesday night, or rather Wednesday morning, and star-gazers were to be treated to the grandest meteoric or falling stars display witnessed since 1833. In anticipation of the heavenly pyrotechnical display, watch parties assembled all over the city, and the Fitting School pupils set up until disappointment and sleepiness drove them to bed.

An Absent Minded Man.

A gentleman who lives a few miles from town, well known to everybody in the county, but whose name, for obvious reasons, we shall suppress, rode into Bamberg last Tuesday, and like a good horseman tied his nag to a fence, and proceeded to transact the business that brought him hither. Having finished this, he loafed about town until near night, when a neighbor, who was here in a buggy, gave him a ride home.

Magistrate Ray Now.

On Tuesday last, upon the recommendation of the legislative delegation from Bamberg county, Mr. H. A. Ray was appointed by Gov. McSwaney as Magistrate, vice Mr. Joseph M. Dickinson, deceased.

Magistrate Ray Now.

On Tuesday last, upon the recommendation of the legislative delegation from Bamberg county, Mr. H. A. Ray was appointed by Gov. McSwaney as Magistrate, vice Mr. Joseph M. Dickinson, deceased.

A Coming Marriage.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Mr. Octavius Bowen Hartzog, formerly of this city, to Miss Rozelle Louise Waddill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Waddill. The happy event will take place on Wednesday evening, the 22d instant, at 9 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents in Greenville. Mr. Hartzog's many friends here extend congratulations in advance.

The Stars Failed to Fall.

According to the astronomers that great thirty-three year wanderer, Tempel's comet, should have got around to this planet last Tuesday night, or rather Wednesday morning, and star-gazers were to be treated to the grandest meteoric or falling stars display witnessed since 1833. In anticipation of the heavenly pyrotechnical display, watch parties assembled all over the city, and the Fitting School pupils set up until disappointment and sleepiness drove them to bed.

An Absent Minded Man.

A gentleman who lives a few miles from town, well known to everybody in the county, but whose name, for obvious reasons, we shall suppress, rode into Bamberg last Tuesday, and like a good horseman tied his nag to a fence, and proceeded to transact the business that brought him hither. Having finished this, he loafed about town until near night, when a neighbor, who was here in a buggy, gave him a ride home.

A Gift

of beauty is a joy forever to give and receive. Why throw it away on cheap, trashy stuff?

THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST.

But the cheapest is not the best. You can always get the best from me. My stock consists of the latest and most artistic goods and at right
