A good bit of newspaper talk is being indulged in just now as to the opposition our congressmen will have in their respective districts next summer. It is rumored over here that Congressman Talbert will have as an opponent Hon. D. S. Henderson, of Aiken. As to whether this be true, "deponent answereth not," but we believe if Mr. Henderson should enter the lists he would make it interesting for "Uncle Jasp." However, we can only await developments.

If taxes are too high now, how in the name of common sense can this work be done without placing an excessive burden of taxation upon the people? We are no expert in the matter of low or high taxation-this question does not usually worry a country editor much-but we would like STATE OF ORIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, to see the State House completed, if
