

ARBUCKLE'S WIFE NOW ON SCENE

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The county grand jury adjourned until Monday next to investigate the alleged tampering with the prosecution of witnesses in the case of Roscoe Arbuckle, held in jail in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe.

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle and his wife, from whom he has been separated for more than four years, had a reunion today in the visitors' room at the city prison, where Arbuckle is awaiting trial on a murder charge.

Arbuckle clasped Mrs. Minta Ruffee Arbuckle in his arms, then affectionately greeted her mother, Mrs. Flora Durfee. The three, with the prisoner's brother, A. C. Arbuckle, of San Francisco, then sat down for a half hour of conversation.

The grand jury resumed its investigation of the Arbuckle affair to-night, subpoenas having been sent out for Dr. M. E. Rumwell, the attending physician in most of Miss Rappe's illness; Miss Joyce Clark, one of the participants in the party; Dr. Gabor Kingstone and Reginald Moreley, two men who were reported to have some knowledge of the affair, and several other witnesses.

Miss Clark was questioned by District Attorney Matthew A. Brady today, but refused to sign a statement and accordingly was ordered to appear before the grand jury.

Lowell Sherman of Los Angeles, also subpoenaed, is en route to Chicago, Brady said, and no legal means exist to bring him back. Sherman was an occupant of the Arbuckle suite and was present at the party from which the death of Miss Rappe resulted.

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—The death of Miss Virginia Rappe, Los Angeles, film actress, was again before the county grand jury here tonight. A few nights ago this grand jury indicted Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, a motion picture comedian, on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the girl's death.

Dr. M. E. Rumwell, who attended Miss Rappe, was subpoenaed by the grand jury to tell, according to District Attorney Brady, why an autopsy had been ordered performed without consent of the authorities, as required by California statute.

Miss Rappe's illness, it has been charged, began in Arbuckle's suite at the Hotel St. Francis here, while she was his guest, and resulted from violence inflicted by Arbuckle.

Arbuckle is being held for trial on a charge of first murder sworn to by Mrs. B. M. Delmont, another member of Arbuckle's party.

Previous to the convening of the grand jury tonight District Attorney Brady announced all angles of the case would be investigated, particularly, he said, a report quoting one woman witness as having declared "there is money in this case and I am going to get some of it."

BOMB THROWER UNDER ARREST

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A confession that he had planted and exploded more than 60 bombs during the last year was obtained, according to the police, from William G. Smith, one of five men arrested today in the act of bombing the shoe repair shop of Davis Kremen.

Fourteen hundred sticks of dynamite and 100 sticks of TNT, said by Chief of Detectives Hughes to be sufficient to blow up much of the city of Chicago, were seized by the police following the capture of the men.

The bombing today was said to have been the result of rivalry between the International Brotherhood of Shoe Repairmen and the United Shoe Repairmen. Kremen is a member of the former organization.

Police had received a tip that Kremen's place was to be bombed and had surrounded it. The five men approached the shop, one of them carrying a bomb. The police ordered them to surrender. Instead Richard Burke, the man carrying the bomb, hurled it and the explosion tore the front from the shop, threw Kremen and his family from their beds and broke windows for blocks around.

In an attempt to escape, Burke was shot in the side. His companions surrendered. They are Smith, Michael Bench, John Bartu and Charles Young.

Burke is said to have told the police that he supplied bombs for several labor unions and also the men to throw them. Police say he made a detailed statement of bomb outrages for the shoe repairmen's organization. His salary was set at $50 per week, but he had not been able to collect it, he said. In the alleged confession Smith also declared Burke had conducted negotiations with a man named Lebinson, whom he knew as an official of the United Shoe Repair Association of Illinois. Police raided the office of the association of which Leo Levinson is treasurer and seized books and records. None of the officers of the association were present at the time of the raid.

This is the fine usually put on for the first offense. Chief Moseley this morning received the check to pay the fine.

ATLANTA COUNCIL AFTER K. OF C.

Atlanta, Sept. 19.—City council here today adopted a resolution requesting that "the New York World and other daily papers, especially the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer Sun, now engaged in the investigation and exposure of what they claim to be un-American and un-American institutions, include in their investigation and exposure the secret obligations, oaths and ritual of the Knights of Columbus."

"In our opinion there exists an un-American and un-American secret order with lodges throughout the country and known as the Knights of Columbus," the resolutions stated in their first reference to that order.

The resolution then cited what purported to be a copy of an oath published in the Congressional Record in 1913 and which the resolution said, "is reported" to be an oath of fourth degree members of the Knights of Columbus, which officials of the latter have from time to time asserted was not an oath or obligation of their order. There was no mention in the resolutions of the Ku Klux Klan about which certain newspapers now are printing articles but in the brief debate that preceded the vote that organization was mentioned several times.

The resolution that was adopted by a standing vote of 11 to 8 was introduced by Councilman Walter A. Sims, who later introduced an ordinance to prohibit interracial worship in the city of Atlanta. He declared he acted on request of property owners on North Boulevard who, he said, asserted that whites and negroes worshipped regularly at a Roman Catholic church in that neighborhood. The ordinance was referred to the committee on ordinances.

Action on the request regarding the Knights of Columbus followed an effort by Councilman Hoffman to have labeled. "We are simply lowering ourselves by getting into a squabble of this kind," he asserted. "I belong to neither order involved in this thing and I certainly have never heard of such oaths as that which has just been read."

Councilman Hoffman's motion to table was lost by a viva voce vote and Councilman Sims declared that he would establish that this oath which has been read is actually the oath which has been taken by fourth degree members of Columbus, their license to operate in Atlanta should be revoked and I will introduce a resolution revoking that license in any such eventuality."

Pretty Party Saturday Afternoon

Saturday's golden record of hospitality began in the afternoon at the attractive bungalow of Mrs. Chas. B. Counts, where the hostess extended the pleasures of a brilliant bridge contest to the young matrons of the city. The spacious living room and dining room were bright with yellow blossoms, the first messengers of Autumn's sway. The score cards consisted of our favorite picture of Maggie and Jiggs, with splendid advice to each "Maggie" about what to do to keep her "Jiggs."

Mrs. T. M. McNeil received the highest score and was presented with a hand painted bowl. Attached to the bowl was a picture of Maggie dragging Jiggs out of the room and under the picture was written: "You beat 'em, Maggie."

Delicious salad and iced tea was served. On each plate Jiggs was seen standing on a pickle, and the advice to the guests from the hostess was, "If you want to keep your Jiggs, just 'pickle' him."

REV. W. W. DANIEL CLAIMED BY DEATH

Kingstree, Sept. 19.—The Rev. W. W. Daniel, D. D., former president of Columbia college and a leading minister in the Methodist Episcopal church in South Carolina, died suddenly here at midnight tonight. Dr. Daniel had been in declining health the last few months, but was able this morning to attend the opening exercises of the Kingstree high school. He had returned from his summer vacation only a few weeks ago, and it was thought his health was much improved. Dr. Daniel was pastor of the Kingstree Methodist church here. Funeral arrangements have not been made. He was 62 years old.

Dr. Daniel was educated at Newberry college, completing the course with distinction in 1879. He was admitted by the conference to preach in December, 1883, and served as follows, in the state: Anderson circuit, 1883-1889; Fort Mill circuit, 1885; Yorkville, 1886-1889; Chester, 1890; Newberry, 1891-1893; Florence, 1894; Washington Street, Columbia, 1895-1898; St. John's, Anderson, 1889.

He resigned the presidency of the college several years ago because of declining health and has been serving as pastor in Methodist churches since that time. He was president of the college 17 years.

August 29, 1883, Dr. Daniel was married to Miss Alice Rowena Aull of Newberry, who survives him. To this union four children were born, three sons and a daughter, who also survive. Much Interest in Approaching Fair

Interest at the Ottaray mill is centering chiefly in the approaching Community Fair, the date for which is set for Saturday, October 1st. There is every indication that the fair this year will surpass in bigness and variety the one that was so successfully promoted last year. There are more families living in the community and there is the additional advantage of having the basis of experience, which was not the case last year.

We are exceedingly fortunate in having secured the services of committees upon whom we can absolutely depend for a thorough canvass of the community for entries in their respective lines of exhibit. The enthusiasm and ability of the chairmen and members of these committees insures the success of the fair. The executive committee is headed by Mrs. B. D. Fads. Chairmen of other committees are as follows: Canned goods, Mrs. R. J. Wilson; fancy work, Mrs. J. A. Lowe; cooking, Mrs. J. A. Kirkpatrick; flowers and pot plants, Mrs. B. D. Fads; curios and relics, Mrs. G. V. Hannah; gardens entries, W. L. Charles; cows, L. G. Moss; poultry, Fred Dodd; mill exhibit, I. B. Garner; parade, W. O. Holiday; prizes, T. J. Glenn.

The parade feature is expected to prove a most interesting one, and the attempt is being made to have every car in the Ottaray village decorated and in the parade.

The public is cordially invited to attend the fair and see what the Ottaray village can and does produce.

Will Catch Weevils

Estill, Sept. 19.—Farmers here are jubilant today because they no longer fear the ravages of the mighty boll weevil. Frank Baker, a young Jewish merchant, left yesterday for Washington to procure a patent on a recent invention of his with which he assures his friends that the boll weevil will surely be put to rout. From the meagre information released by Frank it seems that his machine will be operated only during the dark hours of the night and is equipped with a light which, when the weevil is disturbed from his peaceful slumbers by a protecting piece of the machine he will be attracted by the light and fly to certain death and destruction. It is possible that local interests will buy up the patent rights and make bumper crops here while the rest of the world continues to plant cotton to feed the weevil.

Hurt on Bridge

Chester, Sept. 19.—While driving from Chester to Rock Hill last Monday evening, Guy Sturgis, a mechanic in the service department of the Anderson Motor company of Rock Hill, was injured and had his car badly damaged when it skidded into the bridge over South Fork creek near the York county line on Saluda road.
