********** MEMBER

ASSOCIATED PRESS

******

THE UNION DAILY TIMES

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY Established in 1850-Converte d to The Union Daily Times Oc tober 1, 1917 DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY

WEATHER nerally fair tonight

Vol. LXXII No. 1473

Union, S. C., Saturday Afternoon, September 2, 1922

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION GRANTED DUPRE WAS GAME PROPOSED ANTI-PROFITEERING SHOPMEN STAND CHICAGO MOVE TO LAST MINUTE WITH DAUGHERTY CAUSES SURPRISE AGAINST STRIKING RAILWAY SHOPMEN COAL LEGISLATION NOT SATISFACTORY Atlanta, Sept. 1.—Maintaining his toicism to the last and with a smile on his lips while his black cap was adjusted preparatory to springing the of the administration's determina-the torus of the against law-Atlanta, Sept. 1 .--- Maintaining his Chicago, Sept. 2.-The government LUECO GUNTER

acted swiftly upon the heels of an injunction action yesterday in which the United States attorney general obtained a temporary injunction which prohibits strikers from interfering in Greenville, Sept 1.-Prof. Lucco any way with the operation of the Gunter, for the past two years head of the department of education at ber 15, last. The trap was sprung a railroads.

Notice of the order and pending Furman and formerly professor of 2:04 o'clock and 16 minues later the hearing was served on John Scott, pedagogy at the University of South youth was pronounced dead. secretary-treasurer of the railway Carolina, died at his home here this employes department of American afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock, af-Federation of Labor, but B. M. Jewell, ter having been unconscious since officials as the most dramatic even acknowledged leader of the strike, Monday. With him at the time of his witnessed by them. Outside the jail could not be found by deputy mar- death were Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, shals. Some 5500 deputy marshals president of Furman, Prof. H. T. throughout the country are ready to Cox, dean of Furman, and two sis- glimpse of the proceedings. Even the receive and serve subpoenas on the lo- ters, Mrs. Arthur Broyde of Wag- tops of buildings nearby were occu cal Federation officers and other in- ener and Mrs. E. W. Able of Sadividuals named in suit. luda. No funeral arangements have been made.

Chicago, Sept. 2.-Under the re- Professor Gunter was 43 years of striction placed upon them by the fed- age. He was a native of Wagener, eral government by all means the having been born near that place most drastic and farreaching tempo- March 11, 1879. He attended comrary injunction ever issued in an in- mon schools in Aiken county, attenddustrial crisis, the railway shopmen ed high school at Blackville, then was who walked out July 1st in protest a student at the University of South against the conditions prescribed by Carolina, being graduated with B. A. the labor board, today entered a new degree. He became a member of the era of nationwide rail strike. The ex- Baptist church at the age of 15. Folecutive council of the American Fed- lowing his graduation he became sueration of Labor has prepared to meet perintendent of Beaufort high school. September 9th. Samuel Gompers said Three years later he became superina communication from labor organi- tendent of schools at Rock Hill. Afsations requiring the Federation to ter this he was supervisor of rural sponsor a general strike in sympathy schools for the state of South Carowith shopmen would be placed before lina, remaining in this position until the council "as matter of routine busabout two years ago, when he beiness." came head of the department of edu-

Chicago, Sept. 1 (By the Associated cation at Furman. During his stay Press).-Taking one of the most the University of South Carolina. drastic steps ever attempted in a strike situation, the United States cally dates back to about the time government today obtained a tem-he came to Greenville He continued porary federal order restraining striking railroad shopmen, their offithe country from interfering in any way whatever with the operation of the spine. His condition becoming serious, he cers and affiliated bodies throughout the railroads.

was treated for about two months. which was set for September 11, was Later he was taken to New York, The restraining order, hearing on where he underwent treatment for who came here from Washington to During the past few weeks, however, argue for the action. he had steadily grown worse. Six

The order enjoins, under the hearing, all railway employees, attorneys, weeks ago he suffered a relapse and servants, agents, associates and all remained in bed until his death. persons acting in aid or in conjunc-tion with them or in any manner Theodora E. Gunter, who lives with interfering with, hindering or ob- her youngest daughter, Miss Mamie structing railway companies, their Gunter, in Sumter, by his wife, who agents, servants or employees in the was Miss Laura Perry of Columbia, operation of their respective railroads and by three young children, Marga-week.

late hour.

trap under him, Frank B. Dupre, 19 PASSES AWAY year old "Peachtree bandit," paid the death penalty at the Fulton county jail here today for the murder of Irb, C. Walker, private detective, Decem

> The scenes attending the execution of Dupre were described by old jai!

the streets on three sides were blocked with persons eager to get : pied by men, women and children. Police reserves were called out to keep order. Inside the prison walls Dupre probably was more composed than any of the officials, witnesses o fellow prisoners. The youthful bandit was engaged m religious services when the fall of the death trap for Luke McDonald, negro convicted of the murder of a negro woman, could be heard throughout the jail. He paid no attention to the sound which within the hour was to mean his own end. He continued in prayer until 15 minutes of the hour set for his execution, when unfalteringly he started for the gallows five stories above.

Upon reaching the death chamber, Dupre stopped and looked out a win-"That's some crowd, isn't it?" h said to his brother, Joe Dupre. He then pointed out acquaintances pelow and waved to them shouting: "Good bye."

A deputy sheriff called his attention to Betty Andrews, the sweetheart for whom he robbed the Nat Kaiser jewelry store and killed Walker. She and the issuance of the court's temwas in a cell two floors below, her borary order, which followed quickabout nine months. His illness was face pressed closely against the bar: |ly. Chairman Cummins of the senof the window. She became hysteriwas first taken to Atlanta, where he cal at the sight of the condemned youth, who shouted to her: "Goodbye, Betty. I want you to good girl. Won't you?" His words were drowned in the wd below. "Be good, Betty; be good," Dupre repeated again and again. Then as the crowd became quiet: "You going to meet me in heaven, ain't you, Betty?" the bandit shouted at his sweetheart. "Yes," was the reply. Dupre turned to a deputy sheriff as he waved a last farewell.

and asked:

"Well, you all ready?" The deputy, too full of tion to use its every power to restore normal transportation facilities, the injunction issued today by Federal aided by every power of the shop shopmen's strike. The restraining order did not rep-resent the limit to which the govern-ment was prepared to go should it find that "other steps are necesary," administration spokesment declared, but they refused to indicate what avenue would be followed if supplenentary action was taken,

W. H. Johnson, who as president the International Association of Machinists, represents one of the largest groups of men on strike, declared the restraining order would not influence the strike leaders to abate in the slightest their efforts to make their fight effective. President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor echoed this assertion, adding that the federation's view would be as stated in the past: That injunctions which "invaded constitutional rights" should be treated as scraps of paper."

Both at the White House and the department of justice direct comment was withheld, officials insisting that the government's briaf 'spoke for itself."

The secret of Attorney General Daugherty's visit to Chicago had been so well kept that some memness." bers of the administration as well as of the senate and house were taken by surprise by the filing of the suit ate interstate commerce committee, who had maintained close touch with the industrial situation aince its in-ception, however, said he had been consulted in regard to the move. He expressed approval, adding that his attitude would be the the toward "any move that with help keep the railroads in operation."

Discussion of the proposed suit occupied a recent meeting of the cabcotton until the middle of August. inet, it was said, and developed a decided difference of opinion as to its advisability between certain of President Harding's advisers. In some circles President Harding was understood to have, for a time at least, ligned himself among those opposed the statement said.

volved.

tered an order which unless carefully ficial declared he could not do this. Senator Underwood, the Democratinterpreted might be rated as a flaedly affirmed by the supreme court of they would move the trains tonight Chairman Cummins continued that the United States.

to use the English language with precision has led to the drafting of an Furman to Open order which read too literally would deny the right of free speech, or communication of any sort, or just payment of debts, or mutual aid in lawful associations to men engaged in the peaceful, legal conduct of their busi-

Brings in First Bale

Spartanburg, Sept. 1. -- The first hale of Spartanburg county cotton was sold here today by T. O. Fowler of Reidville to C. L. O'Neale & Co. for 25 cents per pound. The first bale is fully a week earlier than usual. Mr. Fowler is quoted as saying he will make a bale to the acre on i00 acres and will not be damaged by the land in the winter, chopping all old stalks and burning them and generally clearing all ditch banks and bedge rows. He continued to cultivate his

and will operate the chain of theat-

Washington, Sept. 1 .- Vigorous opposition to the administration anti-IN ASHEVILLE profiteering coal bil was voiced today in the senate. Democratic leaders declared it begged the question; that District Judge Wilkerson in Chicago was denounced by labor leaders here as an "outrageous" invasion of strik-ers' rights, which should not be per-mitted to interfere with the efforts of them and their friends to win the berref in the efforts of these organizations is a statement of mitted to interfere with the efforts and to be per-mitted to interfere with the efforts and the efforts and the officials of these organizations is a statement of the officials of these organizations is a statement of the and their friends to win the interfere with the efforts and the efforts and the officials of these organizations is and the officials of these organizations is a statement is a statement of the main the efforts and the efforts are the efforts and the efforts and the efforts are the efforts and the efforts are the efforts and the efforts and the efforts are the efforts are the efforts and the efforts are t

"The officials of these organizations shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, strike. No action was taken on the have done every thing possible since an agreement having been reached bill today and consideration is exthe beginning of the strike to main- with the firemen, switchmen, hostlers pected to be resumed tomorrow.

tain a peaceful suspension of work," and clerks in the local depot that they Chairman Cummins of the intershould not be molested in any way by state commerce committee, in charge "Considering the difficulties of pro- guards, Supt. J. S. Mulvaney of the of the bill, and other Republicans serving perfect order in any group Asheville division having promised a agreed that the condition of some of of 400,000 men engaged in a struggle rigid investigation would be conduct- the carriers was serious and Mr for a decent livelihood, it must be ad- ed immediately regarding a reported Cummins expressed the opinion that mitted that the strike has been a re- altercation between a deputy marshal government control might prove the markable demonstration of the iaw and a hostler, which is said to have only remedy. His judgment was that abiding character of the workers in- taken place about 7 o'clock last night, it would take six months for the Following the alleged altercation, roads to repair their equipment so "It is unfortunate that in a suit the firemen demanded of Superin- as to move traffic to full capacity, so for the announced purpose of pre- tendent Mulvaney that guards in the that even with a speedy settlement venting lawlessness, the attorney gen- employ of the Southern railway of the strike there was bound to be eral's office has prepared, and a around the shops and the deputy mar- a shortage of equipment in the next court, on hasty consideration, has en- shals be removed. The railroad of- few months.

Subsequent to a meeting of the men ic leader, urged enactment at this grant violation of constitutional who walked out and other members session of legislation that would meet rights of American citizens as repeat- of their crafts, it was decided that the railroad strike situation.

and take further action later as to it would be "worse than futile" to "Apparently either hate or failure their future policy in the situation. undertake to engage the attention of congress on such legislation at this time, but Senator Underwood argued Two Weeks Hence that this was the time to act, as public sentiment might be stronger for Greenville, Aug. 31 .- The next reg. such legislation now than later.

ular session of Furman University The committee chairman gave nowill begin Thursday, September 14. tice that at the next session he pro-Indications at present are that the pose legislation that would make unenrollment will reach that of last lawful strikes in all industries where year, which was 416. the largest in the government undertook to estabthe history of the institution, though lish justice in disputes.

some of the college officials are confi- The minority leaders recalled that cient the attendance this year will the senate provision in the transshow a substantial increase over that portation act designed to prevent of any previous year railroad strikes had been eliminated

The approaching session will see a in conference between the house and reversal of the order of enrollment senate. Chairman Cummins replied for lower and upper classmen. Here- that the senate conferees held out tofore the new students have been for two months for the provision and required to be in attendance at least yielded finally only after informatwo days prior to the formal open- tion had reached them that a bill coning, while the upper classmen, were vetoed by President Wilson. He add triculate. This year all upper class. ed that this information came indi men will be required to report on the rectly but through what was regardcampus Monday and Tuesday, Sep- ed as reliable sources.

Picture Shows Change Hands tember 11 and 12, for matriculation, Senator Underwood argued that the standing any necessary examinations, pending bill would not prevent proffor classification and to comply with iteering and the interstate com-Mr. Donald M. Eaves and associates other entrance rules. Those expecting merce commission had all of the auhave bought the picture shows here and at Gaffney, Chester and Buffalo to enter the freshman class will be to enter the greater we have the provided to whether the second to be required to report Wednesday, Sept. movement of coal that was proposed. 13, for the same purpose. First chapel Senator Borah (Republican) of Ida tire holdings of the United Theatres exercises will be held at 9:30 o'clock ho interrupted to express the opinion on the morning of September 11. that if state legislatures enacted leg-Classroom work will start in earnest islation to control conditions in their at the usual hour the following morn- states the people would be very greatly disappointed in the operation ing. The approaching session will find of the measure. several new members of the faculty. The Iowa senate said people in his Prof. A. M. Arnett, a graduate of or other Northwestern states were Mercan University, who has recently having to pay $22 a ton for coal at taken his doctor's degree at Columbia this time and that he wanted legisla-University, will take up his duties as tion that would relieve such a condiprofessor of history, Prof. R. I. Al-tion, an alumnus of the University of eminently qualified for the work they an alumnus of Furman and a graduate of the Harvard Law school, will join the faculty as assistant professor

The damage by fire to the James C.

Furman hall of science last July will in no way retard work in any of the Likes Atlanta Prison

Louisa county, for the alleg.

Richmond.

liamsburg country.

Mrs. Hay Fant.

the United States mails for the others, declares he had rather be in

Miss Mary Poole will return today

visiting her brother, James Poole.

turn from his vacation on next Tuesday, Sept. 5th. He is holding a meeting in the old Indiantown church, Wil-

Mrs. D. A. Boyd and children will

David Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.

"ed use of

, ohr.

and systems of transportation or the ret, Lueco, Jr., and Nina. performance of their public duties and obligations in the transportation of passengers and property in inter. state commerce and the carriage of the mails and from in any manner interfering with employees engaged Press) .-- General army headquarters in inspection, repair, operation and has ordered the concentration of the use of trains, locomotives, cars and entire southern Greek army on the other equipment and for attempting Unchak line in Asia Minor to make a to prevent any person from freely definite stand against the advance of justed over his head, were: "Please entering into or continuing in the the Turkish Nationalists. This pose of inspection, and repairing of situation considerably. locomotives and cars or otherwise. The underlying principles involved in the action, the attorney general said in concluding his argument for the order is "the survival and the supremacy of the government of the United States." Declaring his request was not aimed at union labor, the attorney general said that the step was necessary to the preservation of the unions themselves. At the same time he asserted that the government expected to use its authority to prevent the labor unions from destroying the open shop.

"When the unions claim the right to dictate to the government and to dominate the American public and deprive the American people of the necessities of life," he warned, "then Daugherty said his future moves will the government will destroy the un- be governed entirely by the actions of ions, for the government of the Unit- the persons enjoined. ed States is supreme and must endure."

The railway employees department at mediation, particularly President of the American Federation of Labor, Harding's attempts to end the strike. B. M. Jewell, its president, J. F. Mc- He called attention to the fact that Grath, vice president, and John Scott the railroad labor board is an agency secretary treasurer, together with the of the government and that the presisix shop crafts brotherhoods, the 120 dent issued a proclamation calling system federations and their officials upon the strikers to return to work, of the shop crafts asserted that the obey the board's decisions, and in any order would have no effect on the continuance of the strike.

"The strike will continue until a to enter or continue in service. satisfactory settlement has been The defendants in refusing to ac reached." Secretary Scott said. W. H. | cept the labor board's decision cutting Johnston, president of the Interna- wages, he said, have "repudiated the tional Association of Machinists, said labor board and its authority and hold that leaders will not abate their ef- the labor board and the government forts to make the strike effective of the United States in contempt." despite any action taken by the Calling attention to the declaration courts. B. M. Jewell, head of the shop of the president before congress that crafts, issued no statement and at his "the government can have no chart they will make their home at Greenheadquarters early tonight it was re- for its course except the law," the ville, S. C. ported that he was "in conference" attorney general continued: while another official said he was "out "There are statutes forbidding con of the city."

spiracy to hinder interstate com-While Mr. Daugherty, Blackburn merce; there are laws to assure the Esterline, his assistant, and Charles highest possible safety to railway ser-Clyne, United States district attorney, vice. It is my purpose to invoke all refused to comment on the pos- these laws, civil and criminal, against pected to arrive in New York Sep- without success. Fighting in some in. sible effect of the injunction, Mr. all offenders alike."

Orders Concentration Of Whole Greek Army

Farewell Party

ter the Medical College there this Class songs, dancing and cards

Delicious refreshments of fruit

Miss Martha Lake of Laurens is th

In his presentation before the court

event not to interfere with the transportation service or with men willing guest of Miss Mary Locke Barron.

punch and cake were served.

were enjoyed by the guests until a

The condemned youth led the pro-Athens, Sept. 2 (By the Associated cession to the gallows, and then asked his spiritual advisers to sing: "A Mother's Prayer Has Followed Me." Dupre's last audible words. uttered as the black cap was being adbrush back my hair." employ of the companies for the pur- manoeuver is expected to relieve the The suit in which Dupre was hanglows.

ed was the same one worn by him on the day of his crime.

The graduating class of the Unior legal battles ever waged in the hishigh school of 1922 gave a farewell party last night at the home of Miss other efforts having failed to stay States supreme court. Estelle Webber, who is the first mem execution a final appeal was made to ber of the class to leave for college. Miss Webber leaves for Atlanta to en.

replied that he was without authority to intervene in the case. Little-Ormand

A pretty home wedding solemnized on the morning of August 31, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. M. Little, Kelton, S. C., was that of Miss Elizabeth Little and Mr. Harry Ormand, of Greenville. The marriage was marked by charming simplicity. At the appointed hour 9 a. m. the bride and groom entered the parlor which was effectively set with ferns

Mr. Daugherty reviewed the efforts and cut flowers. They were met in the parlor by Rev. H. W. Stone, the bride's pastor, where the impressive ring ceremony was witnessed by the immediate family. Miss Little was attired in a dark blue go-away suit with hat, gloves and shoes of blending color, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. Miss Little is a member of since that time has been one of Greenville's successful teachers. The groom is a member of Davidson graduating class of 1917, and is a prominent young business man of Greenville, and has scores of friends in this section. Mr. and Mrs. Ormand left imediately for a wedding tour, after which

Will Sail Today

Dr. D. B. Johnson will sail from Liverpool, England, today, September | rious parts of Dublin were attacked 2, on the steamer Adriatic and is ex- in force last night by Irregulars, but tember 9.

to seeking court action in the emerreply, led the boy away to the galgency, which he was said to conceive "God bless you all." Dupre shouted as the direct responsibility of the executive department.

> Later, however, when the apparent collapse of efforts to settle the strike had been followed by instances of violence on many railroads, Mr Harding was said to have approved the attorney general's recommendation that such legal action should be added to other efforts of the government to prevent such outbreaks. The injunction petition was held by the department of justice to be well The execution of Dupre brought to precedented on the government's acan end one of the most determined tion in the famous Debbs case in 1895, which subsequently, was sustory of Georgia criminal courts. All tained by a decision of the United

President Harding yesterday, but he Conference to Settle

War Debts Question

Paris, Sept. 2 (By the Associated Press) .- A proposal for a conference of all interested nations to settle the war debts question was embodied in the French reply to a recent circular note to the entente powers sent by the Earl of Balfour. Such a meeting, the French note holds, would have a most salutary effect on the repara tions problem. Until the question of the interallied debts is settled there can be no solution of the former.

Protest Hunting

Ground Extensions

Nikko, Japan, Sept. 2 .- The people of this city of shrines and Imperial palaces have entered a protest against the proposed extension of the Imperial hunting grounds not far dis. tant from here. The objection is G. W. C. graduating class of 1919, and based on the allegation that the ex tension of the hunting ground would cause a serious loss to agriculture which already suffers from the hunters overunning the fields. A mass meeting appointed a committee to proceed to Tokio to protest direct to the Imperial Household. This in bygone years might have been considered less maieste.

National Army Posts Attacked by Irregulars

Dublin, Sept. 2 (By the Associated Press) .-- Nationary army posts in va-stances lasted two hours.

Corporation in this state was in the transaction.

The new company will operate under the name of Piedmont Amusement company. Mr. Eaves is secretary and treasurer and Mr. Roy Willeford, who was in charge of the theatres here under the United Theatres Corporation ownership, will be general manager of the new concern.

Mr. Eaves says he expects to inaugurate some marked improvements at an early day, and hopes to secure only the very best pictures. He feels ( sure the public patronage will be inof these men have had several years' creased by the showing of only the experience in teaching in some of the hest pictures.

Postoffice Will be

Closed Monday

Monday being Labor Day the postflice will be closed with the excep-i in the department of law. tion of one hour from 12 to 1 p.m.

Guild Meeting

An important meeting of the Guild as arrangements have been made for carrying on the regular work in the will be held Monday afternoon at 4:30 science departments elsewhere. at the Paris h House. Mrs. J. W. Mixson, Secretary.

PERSO NAL MENTION

The woman 's auxiliary of the Presbyterian churc,'h will meet in the Sun- fourth, Walter day school roon is at 4 o'clock Monday confessed "psycho-, afternoon, Sept. 4. A full attendance ject," arrested today is requested. Ed B. Smith feft Thursday for a two weeks' vacation in the lower part pose of defrauding merchants and of the state. the penitentiary in the Georgia me-

Mrs. Elias Prioleau spent Friday m Spartanburg with friends.

Miss Mozele Moore of Laurens and Miss Mary Cree of Gaffney are the guests of Miss' Ruby O'Shields. The woman's missionary society of Grace church will meet Monday afternoon in the ladies' parlor at 5 o'clock.

A full attendance is requested.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rodgers announce the birth of a daughter September 1.

Miss Lillian Graham of West Springs had her tonsils removed at arrive today from Lancaster to visit the Wallace Thomson hospital yesterday. Mrs. O. S. Braddock and ittle son, who have been visiting relatives in A. Boyd of Lancaster, is in the Wal- to be present and all interested in Taking the position that if coal Georgia, where he took his master's were delivered in quantity the price sistant professor of physics. Both trouble was a lack of cars and loco-

are to do at Furman. John L. Plyler, Non-Union Shop Worker Killed on Way to Work

Memphis, Sept. 2 .- Charles Lanier. a nonunion railroad shop worker, was shot and killed today when an automobile in which he was riding to work was fired upon. Another man in the departments housed in that building, car with Lanier was not injured.

Dublin Passes Bad Night

London, Sept. 2 (By the Associated Press) .- Dublin passed last night Richmond, Va., Aug. 31 .- With a through its worst night of fighting reco. of three terms in the federal since the surrender of the Irregulars prison a. Atlanta, and facing a early in July, says an Evening News - S. Buchanan, self- dispatch from Dublin this afternoon. -athological sub-

> A Trevilians, Predicts That Mine Suspension Will be Settled Today

"adelphia, Sept. 2.- A prediction mr Pepper has been made Phi. 'te mine suspension will tropolis than in the finest hotel in by Senau General expressions that anthraci. a of the situabe settled today. resumption among close observer. from Greenville, where she has been tion that before night a hetween - 1s of joint peace negotiations . Rev. J. F. Matheson expects to re- likely. Today marked the beginning of the 155th day of the struggle.

Union Poultry

Association Meets Monday

The Union Poultry association will meet Monday, Sept. 4, at 2:30 p. m., in the rooms of the Young Men's Business League. All members are urged Union, have returned to their home in lace Thomson hospital to have his raising purebred poultry are invited to attend.