

October 16, 1922

THE BURNING OF ANEY

United States marshal, destroyed here early in the morning by the fire which broke out at about 10 o'clock. The fire was caused by a gas stove which was left burning in the kitchen. The fire spread rapidly and the building was completely destroyed. The cause of the fire is being investigated by the fire department.

MRS. MacSWINEY GIVEN LIBERTY

Washington, Nov. 15.—The cases against Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney and eight other women, members of the American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic, arrested for picketing the British embassy yesterday were dismissed after a short hearing today by United States Commissioner George H. MacDonald because the proof did not "measure up to the intent of the law."

HARRISON NOW OUT OF STUPOR

Ira Harrison, one of the convicted murderers of John C. Arnette, who has been in a seeming stupor since he learned that the supreme court had refused to grant him a new trial, yesterday shortly after noon came out of his stupor and talked freely with his mother, according to prison authorities.

GEORGIANS OFF FOR WASHINGTON

Atlanta, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Rebecca Lattimer Felton, appointed United States senator ad interim following the death of Thomas E. Watson, and Walter F. George, elected at the polls in the general election of November 7 as successor to Mr. Watson, both are planning to go to Washington for the convening of the extra session of congress, according to information made public here tonight.

The fire which broke out at about 10 o'clock in the morning at the residence of Dr. H. E. Aney, located on the corner of ... The fire was caused by a gas stove which was left burning in the kitchen. The fire spread rapidly and the building was completely destroyed. The cause of the fire is being investigated by the fire department.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jones of Greenville were visitors in Union this week. Mrs. Jones has about recovered from an operation which was performed on her throat and friends in Union will be delighted to know that her marvelous voice has not been impaired and that she can sing as well as ever.

Children Eager to Help

The children in the tabernacle are eager to help with the singing and sent a request to Choir Director Allen to allow them a place. Mr. Allen is very kind and courteous and tries Young America out every evening—even testing their whistling powers.

Lady Astor Elected to House of Commons

London, Nov. 16 (By the Associated Press).—The Conservatives are rapidly approaching the number of members necessary for a clear majority in the house of commons on the latest returns from yesterday's election. The returns from 444 or 615 districts give the Conservatives 265, Asquithian Liberals, 40; Labourites, 96; National Liberals, 32; other parties, 11.

Cruiser Pittsburg Arrives

Constantinople, Nov. 16 (By the Associated Press).—The American cruiser Pittsburg arrived today from Gibraltar.

South's Leadership in Sanitation

Norfolk has a wonderful new market house. In design, equipment, conveniences and health-conserving innovations, it would seem that this building leaves nothing to which modern sanitary science could add. A great credit to the important Virginia city in which it is located, it is also an example to cities elsewhere in the country generally as well as in the South.

Prayer Service for Women

The prayer services for women will be held at the following homes tomorrow morning: Mrs. E. W. Stone, East Main street. Mrs. J. M. Jeter, Jr., East Main street.

Cheers for Wilson

Washington, Nov. 15.—It was a sign of the times or an illustration of the fickleness of the average American. Withal, it was dramatic—and, for certain reasons, displeasing.

Gipsy Smith Can Sing, Too

Gipsy Smith can sing as well as preach, so the Union people found out last evening. At the close of his discourse he made a powerful appeal to sinners and sang, "Come Home, Oh Sinner, Come Home." It was beautiful and appealing and melted many hearts. A song very often is the strongest sermon in the world.