

MOTHERS' DAY AT SMOAKS

Large Crowd Attended and Several Good Addresses Were Heard.

On Sunday, May 10, at 4 o'clock Mothers' Day was observed at Smoaks. The following program was carried out:

A. C. Padgett made the welcome address in which he extended to the mothers and visitors a hearty welcome. In the course of his remarks he touched very beautifully upon the noble sentiment which prompts the observance of Mothers' Day, stating that it was only paying a just tribute to those who rule the world.

Miss Nina Counts sang a solo. James DeTrville, in a short address, paid a tribute to mothers and outlined their duties as being that of educating the children, physically, mentally and morally. He also touched upon the close relationship which should exist between the mothers and the school.

S. P. J. Garris was the last speaker and he portrayed very vividly the wonderful beauty and tenderness of mother love. He spoke of it as the ideal love.

Rev. J. C. Counts announced the benediction.

LITTLE SWAMP DOTS.

Little Swamp, May 12. We are having some beautiful weather for the past few days.

Misses Essie Jones and Essie Cone of Lodge were the guests of Mrs. Harvey Wiley Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Lovell Goodwin went to Jacksonville Monday to see his brother-in-law, R. L. Campbell, who is very sick in the hospital there. He returned Sunday and was accompanied by his sister, Miss Sennie Goodwin, who has been in Hastings, Fla., attending school since last September. We are glad to have her with us.

The concert given by Miss Hattie Goodwin last Friday evening at the close of her school was well attended and much enjoyed. There were duets, plays, etc., and our girls and boys did well.

Mr. Jim Strickland and brother, William, went to Jacksonville Tuesday to attend the reunion.

Mrs. Jim Strickland visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Capady and their little son, James Willie, at Grover last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. J. C. Goodwin and sister, Miss Hattie, had business in Bamberg last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliners Miller of Lodge were guests of Mrs. W. A. Smith Sunday.

Messrs. Hobbie McMillan, Harry Ehrhardt and William McKenzie of Ehrhardt attended the concert last Friday evening. They motored over in Mr. McKenzie's car.

We enjoyed the letter of Mr. J. C. Harrison very much. Write again.

NOTES FROM JONESVILLE.

Jonesville, May 12. Mr. Patton please allow us space for a few days as it has been quite a while since we heard anything from this section. Everybody seems quite busy around here.

Mrs. W. Blacker and daughter, Miss Ella, had returned home from a short visit in Hartsville, S. C. Mr. Harry O. Bray and Allen Nixon attended Sunday school at Green Chapel Sunday.

Delightful Day at Ivanhoe

A party of young folks, chaperoned by Mrs. Joseph W. Lucas, enjoyed a single at Ivanhoe on Monday. They spent the day in fishing, boating and dancing and had a most enjoyable time. Those attending were Misses Anna and Pauline McCune and Isabel Wichman, Messrs. P. H. Padgett, Paul Lucas, Willie Fripp, Bernard Arnold, Perry Merriam and Jesse DeTrville. Miss Pauline Sanders and her friends from Charleston enjoyed a part of the day with the Walterboro crowd.

Just Cripple Around.

Some people just cripple around most of the days of their life, with about half what they might be to themselves and their families with all energy gone and only duty dragging them about their daily tasks. They don't know what is the matter, and treat first one symptom and then another, without much result. The real trouble is that the blood is not rich enough to supply the demands of the system. The lack of the necessary elements may manifest itself in nervousness, indigestion, in rheumatism, in emaciation, in that "all gone" feeling. Just give yourself a chance by making your blood all right and see how quickly Nature will give you poise and energy. Many of our neighbors have redeemed lives almost shipwrecked by the faithful use of Mrs. Joe Pearson's Remedy, which is a great eliminant and tonic. It clears away the impurities and then builds up the system. That was the case of Mr. John F. Pettigrew of Leesburg, N. C., who says: "Several years ago I was suffering from indigestion. For three months I had to live on milk and bread. I was just as weak and nervous as I could be. Eight bottles of Mrs. Joe Pearson's Remedy cured me after the doctor's medicine failed."

You can buy this great remedy of most druggists. If yours doesn't have it for you send a dollar to the Remedy Sales Corporation, Charlotte, N. C., and they will supply you.

For Weakness and Loss of Appetite The Old Standard general-strengthening tonic, GERRY'S TASTELESS CHINA TONIC, drives out malaria and builds up the system. A true tonic and Appetizer. For babies and children.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR COUNTY TREASURER. I hereby announce myself a candidate for county treasurer of Colleton. If elected, I promise to give to Colleton county my best services in the administration of her financial affairs. I pledge myself to abide the results of the Democratic primary, and to support the nominees thereof. I will appreciate the support of every voter. Very respectfully, J. L. LYONS.

Smoaks, S. C. Thanking my friends for their confidence in my administration by their having re-elected me as county treasurer, I hereby offer myself as candidate again for re-election and pledge the same fidelity to duty as in the past. I will abide the result of the Democratic primaries. R. E. JONES.

Cabbage Snakes. Some years ago a Tennessee doctor "who didn't mind getting his name in the papers," lost a patient. He discovered that the unfortunate man had eaten some cabbage the day before and "Sherlock Holmes" like, the doctor proceeded to his garden to examine his cabbage patch. After a patient search he found on a head of cabbage a long slender worm which he did not remember ever having seen before. "Aha!" cried the doctor. "I am hot on the trail of a great discovery!" In order to verify his theory he invaded the cabbage patches of his neighbors, and there he found the unfamiliar worm. About that time he heard of another man who had died in a neighboring county, and he decided to "investigate" the case. He found that the man who was found of cabbage and had therefore, in all probability partaken of the succulent leaf.

By this time the innocent worm, familiar to every student of zoology, had assumed the dignified title of a "cabbage snake" and the doctor was ready for the newspaper reporters. Obliging publishers in all parts of the country copied the reports and the people read and shuddered. The papers dropped out of the cabbage patch and train loads of postally mailed cabbages rattled on railroad tracks. And then they all woke up.

It was the same way with the terrible tales about Coca-Cola. Some one started a report that it was an alcoholic and intoxicating drink and as a result Coca-Cola was barred from the army post exchanges. The manufacturer, opposed to the War Department, the chemists of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Agricultural Department analyzed the product and lo! and behold there wasn't any alcohol in it. And then they all woke up.

Then some one else started the rumor that Coca-Cola contained cocaine, the deadly habit forming drug. Some people believed the report and obligingly passed it on to their friends and neighbors. Every state legislature got excited and took up the matter of prohibiting its sale. Then they had the chemists analyze it and found that it didn't contain any cocaine at all. And then they all woke up.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Press and Standard: I desire through the columns of your paper to thank my friends for their support in the recent municipal election. Though I was not elected, my ardor for a better town has not lessened, and it is the duty of every one to give his best energies to the present administration for the protection of law and order. (Signed) J. J. PADGETT.

Not a Theory--But a Fact

You don't have to be an expert to realize the superiority of High Art Clothes. You'll "feel" it when you slip them on. They've got that "made-for-you" detail of fit.

As you view the different models you'll find the exact one that appeals to your taste. As you wear them your satisfaction grows stronger and stronger. And that shapeliness which attracted you at the outset withstands the siege of service throughout the the season.

It's because High Art fabrics are all wool; and High Art workmanship is the product of the best craftsmanship.
