THE SUBSCRIBER, A. This old stand, corner of Senate and Richard streets, and directly opposite the southeast corner of the State House, continues to keep a HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT for such persons as may feel disposed to call upon him during the approaching session of the legislature. His experience and capability as to the furnishing of his house and table, is so well known that it needs no comment. Being so near the State House, it would be found advantageous for members of the legislature to give him a call. For the accommodation of such persons as drive Hogs, Horses, Mules, &c. to this market, he has provided large Lots with Hooks, Troughs, &c. also, a four wheel Carriage and Harness, for such as may feel disposed to break their Horses. His Stables will be kept constantly supplied with the best of provender, and attended by careful and experienced hostlers. ISAAC FRAZIER, September 17
