RAGS WANTED.

HE Subscribers are about to creet a PAPER

MILL in the vicinity of this place, and its success depends in a great measure upon the aid of almost every person in the community in preserving the only material that can be used in the mannufactory of this use, ful article; house keepers, and all others, are therefore earnestly solicited to collect and preserve all RAGS produced in their families. There is not a house but will afford many nounds in the year if attention be noted to surmilies. There is not a house but will afford ma-ny pounds in the year if attention be paid to say ing them. It will afford to the poor many neces-saries which would otherwise be lost to them; and the rich, by allowing them as a perquisite to some favorite servant, will render essential service to this infant manufactory, of our own state; and we flatter ourselves that the aid of the community in this respect will enable and of the community in flatter ourselves that the sid of the community in this respect will enable us to perfect this undertaking, and by that means keep in elrephition in our own state, and among all classes, very large sums of money that are yearly carried out of it for the article of paper.
