RAGS WANTED.

HE Subscribers are about to creet a PAPER MILL in the vicinity of this place, and its success depends in a great measure apon the aid of almost every person in the community in preserving the only material that can be used in the mannufactory of this oscilal article; house keepers, and all others, are therefore carnestly solicited to collect and preserve all RAGS produced in their tamilies. There is not a house but will afford many pounds in the year if attention be paid to saving them. It will afford to the poor many necessaries which would otherwise be lost to them; and the rich, by allowing them as a perquisite to some saries which would otherwise be lost to them; and the rich, by allowing them as a perquisite to some favorite servant, will render essential service to this infant manufactory, of our own state; and we flatter ourselves that the aid of the community in this respect will make us to perfect this underlaking, and by that means keep in circulation in our own state, and among all classes very large sums of money that are yearly carried but of it for the article of paper. There is no ray originally composed of flax, hemp or cotton, but which will answer for some kind of paper.

The following prices will be paid for all Raga delivered at the store of Mr William T Little in this place.
