Columbia, Sept. 19 1829.

A CARD.—As circumstances will prevent my from returning again to the south, I take this opportunity of presenting my sincere thanks to the inhabitants of Columbia, and its vicinity, for the patronage and kindness which I have received during my residence among them.

At the same time I deem it my duty to recommend some gentleman to fill the vacancy which my absence will occasion, as this branch of the profession is too often undertaken by Itenerant men, who are entirely ignorant of medical science, wholly unacquainted with the diseases of the teeth, and the great influence which these exert upon the general health, especially upon the organs of digestion! and of course, ignorant of the remedies necessary for their relief The evils resulting from unskillfulness, in the practice of dentistry, are, to say the least, as great as in any other branch of the medical profession

I have great pleasure in being able to recommend Wm. Lee M D. and do it with the utmost confidence, having for some time past resided with him and seen him perform all the operations in Dental Surgery with great dexterity and skill. Dr Lee's permanent location in Columbia will afford frequent opportunities for the examination of previous operations, and will be a sufficient guarantee to the public, to secure entire confidence.

Merchants' and Planters' Bank,

26th Nov. 1829.

To the Planters and Merchants of S. C. and Geo.

CAUTION.

THE Board of Directors deem it a duty due to themselves and the holders of the bills of this bank, to state to the Public, that a coalition has been formed in this community, the object of which is to shake public confidence in the responsibility of the institution, and by effecting that purpose, to force the Planters to store their Cotton, or sell at a depreciated price in the lower part of the city. The Bank of Augusta, has lent the sanction of its power and name to this oppressive conspiracy, by passing a resolution, not to receive the notes of this Bank in payment or deposit. An official demand has been made on that institution, for the reasons of such a resolution which it has declined giving, and from circumstances, which have subsequently come to the knowledge of this board (which are susceptible of proof,) it is ascertained, the resolution was formed out of doors and a majority of the Directors, who represent but a small portion of the stock, had pledged themselves to the measure, through the influence of individuals connected in the Ware-house and Commission business, in the vicinity of the Bank.

It is also known to this board that the oldest and most respectable Directors of that institution, and those individuals owning a large amount of its Stock were opposed to this oppressive resolution.

On the same day the resolution passed Circulars were issued by one at least, of the houses referred to (engaged in the Ware-House and Commission Business) to their friends in the country, the purport of which was to prejudice them against the bills of this institution.

Feeling indignant at such an unheard of persecution and having perfect confidence in the ability of the Merchants' and Planters' Bank, to meet all demands that can be brought against it, the board of Directors have thought best to adopt this course to put you on your guard against the malicious and wilful designs of bad men and to prevent the innocent and unwary holder of our bills from parting with them at a discount.

JOSEPH WHEELER.
President, M. & P. Bank.

Extract from the minutes of the Board of Directors.
JOHN F. LLOYD. Cashier.

December 1 49 3t

To the Public.

IN my Circular dated September 26th, 1829, I proclaimed, that no unsound currency would be countenanced in this market, and should any be thrown into Circulation, or any Bank should go beyond what might be considered prudent, immediate notice thereof would be given, without fear or favor. From three to four hundred bales Cotton, are received in this market daily, and about three fourths of it is paid for in Bills of the Merchants and Planters Bank of Augusta, Joseph Wheeler, President, the soundness of this Bank is doubted, so much so, that the Bank of Augusta refuses to receive its bills in payment, and I hereby give notice, that from this day, the bills of that bank, will not be received by me in payment for house rent, storage of Cotton, or otherwise. It is neither interest, nor prejudice that prompts me, there are four banks in Augusta, from which this market is supplied with funds, and I have neither stock nor discount directly nor indirectly in these banks, nor do I owe one dollar to either of them, but it is in order that the Planter shall have no good cause again to say, that he has been wronged in Hamburg, out of his twelve months labor, in receiving unsound and depreciating currency, in payment for his property, for money of undoubted banks, may be had, and sound property ought to produce a sound currency.

HENRY SHULTZ,
Founder and Proprietor of Hamburg.
Hamburg, S. C. Dec. 1st, 1829. 49

Fellow Citizens,

IT is a well known fact, that the Merchants' and Planters' Bank of Augusta, has of late inundated our Town, as well as the country, with their bills, a suspicion of their goodness is already before the public, and the two contradictory charges made by the board of that Bank against the Augusta Bank, Ware-House men and others, now in my possession, has confirmed me in that suspicion. It is the duty of every community to guard against intruders which may prove injurious, and if this bank is authorized by Law to issue bills, it is in Georgia, but not in South Carolina, and these bills being rejected by one of the first banks in the same state as acknowledged by themselves, is a sufficient notice to the public, of their not being good, the standing of that Institution must be better known at home, than it can be abroad, and the responsibility of circulating any unsound currency involves on the giver, not on the receiver, and more so, if he is knowing to the fact, therefore send their notes home, and say to them as they would say to you, your note must be paid or protested.

THE following system of Scholastic Education is submitted to such parents as are desirous of obtaining for their children a sound English, Classical and Mathematical course of instruction.

English Department, comprising Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and History—R. Gregg, A. B. Teacher.

Scientific Department, comprehending Algebra, Geometry, Plain and Spherical Trigonometry, Surveying, Navigation, the elements of Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, &c.—N. Summer, A. B. Teacher

Classical Department, including the Latin, Greek and Hebrew Languages, Prosody, Mythology, Ancient and Modern Geography, Ancient and Modern History, Antiquities, Oratory, &c.—R. L. Edmonds, A. M.

Modern Languages—Mons. Godefroy, Teacher

The strictest attention is devoted to the English, Classical, and Mathematical Departments, while instruction in French and Spanish is entirely optional with the parents of the pupils, charges made accordingly.

The approbation Mr. Edmonds' pupils have received from the Faculty of the South Carolina College, is the surest criterion that his system works well and is efficient.

No summer vacation.
