

SENATE

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

The journal of yesterday having been read, the committee on claims were discharged from the petition of Elizabeth Hill, and it was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Griffin, from the committee on claims, submitted a report on the petition from Georgetown and All Saints, for compensation to the owner and emancipation of the slave, who disclosed an intended insurrection; ordered for consideration to-morrow.

Petitions were presented—by Mr. Evans from Wm. M. Crockett and Son, for legislative aid, referred to Messrs. Evans, Hampton and Dabney; by Mr. Dodd, from Wilson Nesbit, for leave to erect a dam across part of Broad river; referred to the committee on internal improvement; by Mr. Richardson, from Allen Kelly, for leave to emancipate a slave; by the same, from John Gardington, with a like prayer, both referred to Messrs. Richardson, Grayson and Koger; by Mr. Black, from John Perkins, for a pension; by the same, from David Kern, for arrears of pension; by Mr. Evans, from James P. Lee, for a pension; all referred to the committee on pensions; by Mr. Black, from sundry inhabitants of Abbeville, for an additional place of election at Stoney Point; referred to the committee on privileges and elections; by Mr. J. S. Deas, from Wm. Ferguson, and from Wm. Collins, for pensions, both referred to the committee on pensions; by Mr. Davis from Wm. Owens, praying compensation for extra work on the state road, and by Mr. Evans, from John Peay, and James Pickett, praying to be paid for damages sustained by the excavation of the Rocky Mount canal; both referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Mr. Wilson, from the judicial committee, on the 15th clause of the governors Message No. 1 reported a bill for the punishment of official misconduct of district officers, which was read a first time and ordered to a second reading to-morrow.

Mr. Hampton, from the military committee, on a resolution requiring them to inquire as to the expediency of providing arms for the cavalry, reported a bill to authorize the sale of public arms and military accoutrements; which was read a first time and ordered to a second reading to-morrow.

The following bills, from the house of representatives, were read a first time, and ordered to a second reading to-morrow: A bill for the better organizing the fire guard in the city of Charleston; and a bill to withdraw the management of the estate of Doctor John De La Howe from the Abbeville delegation, and to commit it to trustees.

Mr. President laid before the senate the report of Gersham Chapman, keeper of the state house; referred to the committee on public buildings.

Mr. Wilson, from the judiciary committee, reported again, a bill to amend the laws in certain particulars, with amendments, which were agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed for a second reading.

Mr. P. O. from the committee appointed last session, to examine into the state of the bank of the state of South Carolina, submitted a report, which was ordered to be laid on the table, and to be printed.

A report from the house of representatives, appointing two additional places of election, was concurred in, and ordered to be returned.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee on finances, submitted reports on the several petitions of Wm. Thurmond, and the intendant and wardens of Monteville; also on a resolution, from the house of representatives, directing the bond of Thomas Harrison to be cancelled; also on the report from the house of representatives, on so much of the governors message No. 1 and the comptrollers report, as relates to the claims of this state on the United States.

Mr. J. S. Deas submitted presentations from Kershaw, for March and Oct. terms, 1829; those for March and Oct. terms, referred to the committee on roads; and the 1st clause of the October presentment, referred to the committee on public buildings.

Mr. Hampton, from the committee on the lunatic asylum, to which had been referred the reports of the regents and attending physician, reported a bill to amend an act, entitled, an act to carry into operation, the lunatic asylum; which was read a first time, and ordered to a second reading to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Griffin, leave was granted him to withdraw the petition of Philip Shoppert; and on motion of Mr. Wilson, the judiciary committee was discharged from the petition of Wm. A. Brickell; and said petitions were referred to the committee on claims.

Mr. Collier presented the petition of John Dumont, administrator of Geo. W. Gnore, for compensation for injury done by a canal referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Mr. J. S. Deas, from the committee on internal improvement, submitted reports on the several petitions of A. F. Elder, J. Evans and others, town council of Columbia, Thos. Ercoven and John Chappell. Mr. Wilson, from the judiciary committee, submitted a report on a petition from the other house, on a resolution, to pay a certain sum to the late Winney and Wando canal company; and Mr. Hampton, from the military committee, submitted a report on the petition of Oswald Houston; all ordered for consideration to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

Mr. Richardson, from the committee on petitions, on the 4th clause of the governors Message No. 1, submitted a report, declaring it inexpedient to legislate on the subject matter thereof; which report was considered and agreed to.

A bill to reduce the salaries of the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives of this state, was taken up for a second reading.

Mr. Hampton moved that the same be postponed to the first of January next, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: YEAS—From Messrs. Hampton, Messrs. Benbow, H. G. Connor, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10. NAYS—From Messrs. Black, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10.

So the bill was postponed to the first of January next. Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

Mr. Richardson, from the committee on petitions, on the 4th clause of the governors Message No. 1, submitted a report, declaring it inexpedient to legislate on the subject matter thereof; which report was considered and agreed to.

A bill to reduce the salaries of the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives of this state, was taken up for a second reading.

Mr. Hampton moved that the same be postponed to the first of January next, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: YEAS—From Messrs. Hampton, Messrs. Benbow, H. G. Connor, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10. NAYS—From Messrs. Black, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10.

So the bill was postponed to the first of January next. Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

Mr. Richardson, from the committee on petitions, on the 4th clause of the governors Message No. 1, submitted a report, declaring it inexpedient to legislate on the subject matter thereof; which report was considered and agreed to.

A bill to reduce the salaries of the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives of this state, was taken up for a second reading.

Mr. Hampton moved that the same be postponed to the first of January next, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: YEAS—From Messrs. Hampton, Messrs. Benbow, H. G. Connor, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10. NAYS—From Messrs. Black, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10.

So the bill was postponed to the first of January next. Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

Mr. Richardson, from the committee on petitions, on the 4th clause of the governors Message No. 1, submitted a report, declaring it inexpedient to legislate on the subject matter thereof; which report was considered and agreed to.

A bill to reduce the salaries of the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives of this state, was taken up for a second reading.

Mr. Hampton moved that the same be postponed to the first of January next, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: YEAS—From Messrs. Hampton, Messrs. Benbow, H. G. Connor, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10. NAYS—From Messrs. Black, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10.

So the bill was postponed to the first of January next. Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, Dec. 7, 1829.

Mr. Richardson, from the committee on petitions, on the 4th clause of the governors Message No. 1, submitted a report, declaring it inexpedient to legislate on the subject matter thereof; which report was considered and agreed to.

A bill to reduce the salaries of the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives of this state, was taken up for a second reading.

Mr. Hampton moved that the same be postponed to the first of January next, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: YEAS—From Messrs. Hampton, Messrs. Benbow, H. G. Connor, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10. NAYS—From Messrs. Black, J. S. Deas, D. Ervin, Glover, Graham, Griffin, Koger, Witherpoon—10.

So the bill was postponed to the first of January next. Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from James P. Lee, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from John Perkins, for a pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.

Mr. Black presented a petition from David Kern, for arrears of pension; which was referred to the committee on pensions.