

LOCAL ITEMS.

Go and hear Mr. Wallace sing in the Baptist Church to night.

All the men on the small monitors were vaccinated yesterday.

The Huron arrived last evening from Charleston. She will take in stores and sail again in a few days.

The wreck of the bark Leif was sold in Charleston on Tuesday for one dollar. The sails and rigging saved brought $800.

The sloop-of-war Adams sailed for Norfolk last Friday morning to refit for a three year's cruise.

The flag-ship Hartford, Admiral Treachard, has been ordered to this place and is expected soon.

The wife of George Collins, an engineer on the railroad, died at Port Royal Tuesday. The body was taken to Charleston to be buried.

$2,750 have been sent to Columbia by Mr. Sams, agent for Beaufort County on account of the ten per cent tax—and the book are still open.

The remains of Mr. R. C. McLuttre were brought up from Hilton Head on Monday and interred in the Episcopal Church yard.

The store of Mr. J. P. Sellers at Yemassee was broken into last Thursday night, but the thieves were frightened off before securing any plunder.

Congressman Small's arrival Monday morning from Washington and is busy taking evidence to prove the fairness of his election. He goes to Edgefield to-night.

The friends of Mr. John Brodie welcomed him back to Beaufort last Saturday after an absence of nearly two years spent in the city of magnificent distances.

Rev. Mr. Berry, Pastor of the A. M. E. Church at Bluffton, died suddenly at that place on the 13th inst. His remains were brought to Beaufort last night for interment.

Mr. M. Pollitzer cleared on Monday last the Norwegian Birk Kallisto, Captain Stray, for Cork, for orders, with 51 bales Sea Island cotton, 20,000 feet lumber and 350 tons cotton seed.

Mr. Josiah Jackson, a well known colored man of this place, died on Friday last of paralysis of the brain. The remains were escorted to the depot Saturday night by the Union Engine Co. No. 1, of which the deceased was an active member, and taken to Blountville for interment.

The New Light Society of the Tabernacle Church will give an exhibition in the church next Wednesday evening. The entertainments heretofore given by this society have been very interesting and our citizens should encourage by their presence the efforts of the children.

The bark Kallisto was put on the bar opposite town last Monday by pilot Stevens and remained several hours in a dangerous position, but got off without serious damage. There is hardly a boy in town but would have known that the vessel could not safely cross the point where she was stranded.

Mrs. Goff, the Temperance advocate left yesterday after a laborious and, as she thinks, successful crusade. A Temperance Union was organized on Ladies Island with 44 members and one at the Atlantic Saw Mills with 39 members. Strange to say fifty persons in the wicked city of Port Royal signed the pledge to abstain from matutina cocktails. The Union in Beaufort now has 130 names on its roll, and we see no reason why Mrs. Goff should not be elated with the success of her labors in our vicinity.

Orders have been received from the new Secretary of the Navy for all the small monitors to go to Savannah. They are to sail two at a time, the Ajax and Saugus to start to-morrow. The object is to put them in fresh water in the vain hope that the oysters and barnacles now attached to the vessel's bottoms will fall off. These vessels have now been in our harbor for two years without a death on board from disease contracted here, and now they are to be sent to a malarious location where the men will be exposed to fevers, to say nothing of the small-pox that now prevails in that locality.

Last Thursday evening, as the Port Royal train was entering Augusta and when about two miles below Beech Island Station a cowardly miscreant fired a rifle shot into the passenger train. The ball entered the half open door of the baggage and express car, striking the floor and making a groove for some distance, and then striking a trunk and rebounding was picked up by the agent.

A special car brought from Augusta last Saturday a party of ladies as guests of Miss King, daughter of Judge King. Chief Engineer King secured the Dictator's launch and treated the ladies to a trip to the fleet when all the wonderful sights were shown and the beauties of the harbor duly admired. Miss King is Secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, for the State of Georgia, and is said to be a very enthusiastic and earnest worker.

We have sent to our delinquent subscribers bills showing their indebtedness and many have responded promptly and we hope others will pay up without further notice. We find some errors in the credits to old subscribers to the Standard and Commercial, owing to neglect to make the proper entries when the subscriptions were paid. We beg pardon for offending those who were dunned and were not owing anything, and promise that hereafter no such errors will be made.

Wm. Hardy, boatswain's mate on the monitor Ajax, was drowned last Saturday off Bay Point. A boats crew of sailors left the Ajax to fish, and while going down the river the deceased, who was sitting on the bow of the boat, suddenly fell overboard, supposed to be from an attack of paralysis. The body did not rise and a boat was sent next day to search for it without success. Mr. Hardy is represented as being an excellent sailor and faithful and vigilant officer.

A favorite pastime with many of our citizens are the bloodless contests on the Croquet field, where the honors are, in the long run, easy. Some of the participants are apt to get their feathers ruffled, especially when they are out of fashion taking advantages which to old fashioned players seem unfair. The most petulant and irritable croquet player ever in Beaufort was a sort of left-handed preacher who never could indulge in this noble game without throwing away his mallet, or else using it as a weapon of offense. We hope some of our men will try and endeavor to play with bearing spirit and when any such cheating take it good humoredly and be detected.

On her last trip, the steamer Dallas brought as part of her freight, an elegant assortment of confectionery from the celebrated Whittman of Philadelphia. Mrs. Odell has determined to give the public a chance to indulge in this choice candy by offering it for sale in the vestibule of the Sea Island Hotel.

STATE NEWS.

Col. A. P. Butler has been elected Captain of the Hampton Horsemen.

Rear Admiral Stoney is visiting Mr. George Allen in Camden.

The second number of the Port Royal Advertiser was issued last Saturday. One thousand and fifteen colored men have paid the Hampton tax in Barnwell.

J. J. Wright is recommended by the Columbia Register as our representative to the Fecjee Islands.

A Trial Justice in Edgefield aspires to the seat made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Maher.

Transactions in the matrimonial market of Chester are quite light, and but little said about "futures" in the business. Treasurer Mobley, of the Sand River and Barton's Pond Railroad, is issuing excursion tickets around the world—and return, via Aiken.

Gov. Hampton has addressed a letter to Gen. Sherman asking that the troop be withdrawn from the State House at Columbia.

There is a man in Newberry named Werts, who lays eggs. At least the editor of the Herald says he laid two on the editor's table measuring 6x8 inches.

The Columbia Register intimates that our former townsman, Mr. J. G. Thompson, aspires to the postmastership in that city.

A volunteer guard of ten citizens is stationed at the Aiken jail every night to prevent the escape of the five negro murderers who are to be hanged on the 16th instant.

The Fakirs visited Aiken last week but concluded they could not cope with chicken lifters, and, as there was nothing else left to pluck, left disgusted.

Barnwell wants some street lamps. We would advise the city to get some like the ones we have in Beaufort—very ornamental, but dont burn worth a cent.

No court was held in Edgefield this month. There are too many Jury Commissioners and juries. Judge Maher is mentioned as the successor of Judge Moses.

J. H. Osborn, a recent candidate for the State Senate from Barnwell on the Republican ticket, has been appointed as Special Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue in the Charleston district.

Newberry was visited by a very destructive fire last Wednesday, destroying Pool's Hotel and twenty stores. The loss is estimated at $150,000; mostly insured.

The citizens of Aiken are exercised over the depredations of chicken thieves. Is this a dodge of the boarding-house keepers to fail to produce the spring chicken to the gullible tourist at breakfast time?

During a row in Bennettsville last week an innocent passer-by was killed by a shot from one the mob, and they call it an "unfortunate occurrence." It was unfortunate for the victim.

A safe belonging to Niles G. Parker was shipped to him from Columbia last week and Columbia was greatly relieved at its departure, as it was supposed to contain records that would damage the reputations of men of both political parties.

Walhalla has been bulldozed by one W. K. Boyce who, the grand jury says "is almost always intoxicated and brandishing deadly weapons, which is dangerous to the peace and safety of the community."

They have a model a county commissioner in Oconee County. He gave one-half of his pay as Commissioner to the schools. In our county the commissioners not having received any pay for nine months are not in condition to divide, but would undoubtedly be willing to do so if it would enable them to get the rest of the money.

Amzi Rosborough was discharged from Chester jail, last Saturday, under instructions from Judge Mackey to Sheriff Walker. He was pardoned by Governor Hampton, and is released in pursuance of the decision of the Supreme Court in the Tilda Norris case.

Judge Shaw decided the question again last week covering all the ground of dispute as follows: First, that the Supreme Court had decided that the Wallace House was the House of Representatives of South Carolina; second, that Hampton received the highest number of votes and his election was not contested; third, that the absence of the Senate was immaterial; fourth, that Wade Hampton is the lawful Governor, and all his trial Justices must be respected.

Cotton seed oil is being exported from the South in large quantities, for the manufacture of soap.

A Card.

The undersigned begs most respectfully to render his thanks to the Fire Companies and those friends who saved him from being burned out on the evening of the 8th inst. and deems it justly due to thank the Union Engine Co. No. 1, in an especial manner but for whose promptness the roof of the building would most probably have been in fire.
