The condition of affairs in Columbia remains unchanged, no action yet having been taken by the President towards a solation of the contest for the Governorship. It is thought by many that we will have to await the arrival of Vice President Wheeler, and the gentlemen who are with him to compose a commission for the settlement of the difficulties in South Carolina and Louisana, before the President will recognize either Hampton or Chamberlain.

In Louisiana the Republicans are pre paring for war, and have enrolled five hundred additional policemen or guards. and both sides seem to think that a conflict is inevitable before long.

General Augur's orders, however, are such that they will prevent the clash o arms, and the Democrats continue to assure the President that if there is an outbreak it must be begun by Fackard.

In reply to a question by Senator Pat terson, as to whether it was true as stated in the newspapers that the troops were to be removed immediately from the State-House at Columbia, the President said last Monday that it was untrue. The status quo would be observed until a final decision should be reached.

The citizens of the upper counties are moving against the extortionate freights anything but public conveniences. Patterson's plan for a new election sounds well, and unless there was a dodge in it for some underhanded scheme it is the most creditable act we know of in his career. The proper view to take of it. however, is that it is the only hope of the success of men like him and as a last resort they propose a plan that they Hausman and Portman living four miles thought might be carried out. Governor Hampton put his foot on it at once and the President gave it no encouragement and we shall not hear any more of it. Patterson proposed to have the State put under martial law and then call a new election on the ground that there is no legal Legislature. Ten days before the time fixed for holding the election a gen eral registration of both white and colored citizens to be held, and no man who has not registered should be allowed to vote. It was also proposed to appoint three day Governor Hampton respited Andercommissioners of election for each election District, one by Chamberlain, one by Hampton, and the third a commissioned officer of the United States army.

Another Decision for Hampton.

Judge Reed in the Circuit Court in Charleston on Tuesday rendered his decision in the Flynn habeas corpus case, releasing Flynn on the ground that Chamberlain has no lawful authority as Governor. The decision concludes as follows: "I am of the opinion, therefore, that Wade Hampton was made Governor in and over the State of South Carolina through the ballot box in accordance with the Constitution, at the election held on the 7th of November last; that he qualified, if not following the letter, in the spirit and intent of the Constitution, or the 14th of December last; that he has been since that time and is now the law ful Governor of South Carolina, and should be obeyed and respected accordingly. It follows from these views that D. H. Chamberlain was not Governor on the 3d of January, 1876, the date of the commission of W. F. Dover as a Trial Justice for the city of Charleston, and charged by the railroads that seem to be that his appointment and commission were without lawful authority and void.' The Aiken murderers were hanged in that village on Friday last in the pres ence of about five thousand people. The men executed were named Nelson Brown, (who was captured by deputy sheriff Sams, on St. Helena) Lucius Thomas, Adam Johnson and John Henry Dennis. The crime for which they were executed was the murder on November 2d last of two quiet Germans. from Aiken. The proofs against the above named, together with a man named Steve Anderson accumulated that they were the right parties, and Rundle. they finally made a full confession, and also confessed burning the Baptist Church at Aiken and the murdering a white man named Levin. and other crimes. The contest over the will of Commo dore Vanderbilt has at last been settled. Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt at first refused to listen to any terms. When the mat ter got into Court he thought it wise to effect a compromise. Then commenced the haggling about the amount to be paid. Rather than let Cornelius le brought under the direct influence of his brother, his sisters induced him to come for any reform that takes the offices out of and live with them. Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt then offered to compromise by that Spencer of Alabama was the chair paying $250,000 to each of the contesman of that committee last year, we are tants. This offer was refused. He then tendered $300,000 to each. The sisters would not accept, and finally their demand for $500,000 was acceded to. Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt, with between eighty and ninety millions of dollars, has wisely concluded to pay one million and a half dollars to his own family rather than to lose millions in years of litigation.
