The new terms were refused by the old hands who would not work for one dol'ar a day, when under the old arrangement they were able to make about twice that sum. The company then employed new hands and the work was begun, when the old hands formed a Union for the purpose of compelling the company to let the work out by the job. All this in addition to a flourishing grove of five acres Mr. M. M. Kingman, late proprietor of his own. Of the prosperity of Mr. Rich the Herald says: "Capt. John Rich has one of the best (if not the best), gardens in our village. The first week in April he dug a quantity of well developed Irish potatoes. Tomatoes measuring 53 inches in circumference were on his vines, and turnips from 10 to 16 inches, and still growing. His garden is a sight to those who have been unaccustomed to witness vegetables so far advanced as to be gathered for the table in the early part of April. A turnip taken from the ground this week measured 271 inches in circumference, and his corn has reached the W. S. Schley, commanding, arrived length of nine feet. Tomatoes are ripen-
