A YOUNG WIFE'S DESPAIR.

York notel Six Months after Marriage-A Hasband's Passion for Strong Drink.

[From the New York Sun.]

Mr. Robert Stuart and Miss Eveline T. Marks were married in St. Thomas's rooms of the city, and gives the result this disease. Henry IV., of England, Church on the 19th of April last. The of his observations in the following acceremony filled the house with wealthy | count : and fashionable relatives and friends. who dwells at 62 West Thirty-fourth street. Her mother was Mrs. Marks's doubt this. sister, and the name that she had exchanged for that of Mr. Marks was Terry. The groom's father was Lieut. able saloons on and near Breadway, in Robert Stuart of the United States navy, who died in 1862. His widow became gilded retreats that gird the Astor House, the wife of the Hon. Elijah Ward. The groom inherited from his mother's friends alarge fortune. Before his mar- Union square, and in the magnificent riage he lived with his mother and step- marble palaces that fringe Madison father in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. After | square, not omitting the frescoed club the marriage the couple took a parlor room and the diugy slop shops of the and bedroom in the second story of the Berkley House at 20 Fifth avenue.

For three or four months the couple lived happily. Then the husband began to drink. Two months ago his taste for liquor developed rapidly, and he often and old men. reached home so much intoxicated that he was barely able to walk straight. His friends noticed his growing fault, and it was proposed to send him to Europe, in order that he might change his companionship and he under the influence a bar-room and drink. As the one pays, of his mother and stepfather, who are in the other looks at his watch and says : Europe. It is said that President "Just in time for another. Repeat"-Frederick D. Tappen of the Gallatin and both drink again. National Bank, who is his guardian during the absence of his stepfather, proposed to accompany him.

On Saturday last a woman went to George Inness's pharmacy and purchased half an ounce of laudanum. She said it was for Mrs. Stuart. There was something in the bottom of the four-ounce phial, which Mr. Watling, the clerk, supposed to be old laudanum. The woman was tall and not well dressed. Mr. Watling supposed her to be a servant. On Sunday Mrs. Stuart called Kate Cummings, a chambermaid, into her room. She seemed worried, and was weeping. She said that she would rather die than live as she was living. Then she explained that on Saturday night her husband spoke harshly to her. She told the chambermaid that she was going out, and would return soon. If Mr. Stuart arrived, he was to be told that she would return in a few minutes. She then went out, but was gone not more than ten minutes. When she re-terned, she sat down at her desk and wrote a letter, which she sealed and addressed to her husband. While she was writing, the chambermaid went out of the room. She was not again seen by anybody except her husband until about two hours previous to her death.

Mr. Stuart reached his home at about five o'clock. He was very much under the influence of liquor, but was able to walk straight. He said nothing, but went to his apartments direct. At nine o'clock he called from his room through the speaking-tube that communicates with the office, and ordered some sand-wiches. Food is not usually furnished at so late an hour in the hotel, and the was referred to the proprietor.

THE PEOPLE WHO DRINK.

Committing Suicide in a Fashionable New The Result of Observations made by a New York Reporter-Men Who Frequent the "First-Class " Bars.

A New York Sun reporter has been homet, Petrach, Napoleon and Byron making a professional tour of the bar- are mentioned as having been subject to

The bride was the adopted daughter of of their male patients suffer in one way These were undoubtedly epileptic in Mr. Abiel B. Marks, a retired merchant, or another from alcoholic poisons. These were undoubtedly epileptic in character. On the 20th of March, 1413, No close observer will be disposed to

> From the low shops on South and West streets, along the line of more fashion- of England, in the midst of a life of the vicinity of the old post-office, in the in the several places of note on Printing House square, in the cozy boudoirs of extreme east side-from the first to the last, and in them all, the same story of intemperance may be learned. And who are the drinkers? Boys, young men, middle-aged men

They all drink.

Two young men meet in the lcbby of a theater.

"What'll you take?" Is the first and commonest salutation. They adjourn to

At each fall of the curtain at least onehalf of all the men rise, push out, and hurry for a drink.

This is no exaggeration. We all know it, and many of us do it. I went into the basement of one of Gotham's greatest architectual piles this morning, and stood at the end of the done. There were four bar-tenders, all busiv engaged.

In that brief time they sold to all sorts thirty-two whiskeys, ten lemonades, two plain seltzers and three gin cocktails. It was an exceptionally busy half hour, to be sure ; but as I took my seat at a little table near the counter, I noa sale of one hundred and thirty beers, fifty whiskeys and six gin cocktails. The men who drank were not "bums."

Very many of them are known to the world of politics, several are noted writers, the City Hall furnishes its and not one seemed in the least degree affected by what he drank.

Leaving this place, I went to another saloon, equally well known, whose proprietors pay an annual rent of $60,000 for the premises which are kept open from eight o'clock in the morning until seven in the evening. Standing by a little cigar case which the drinks and drinkers.

The Diseases of Great Men.

Some of the most illustrious men and women have been the victims of maladies of the nervous system. In almost every treatise on epilepsy, Cæsar, Ma-after some time of ill-health, became subject to dreadful fits, which would Physicians say that nearly two-thirds cause him to fall down apparently dead. while he was at church, he was seized with a fit and soon expired, being at the time forty-seven years old. Charles II. vicious indulgence, was attacked by aponess, on the 6th of February, 1685, in human hair. the fifty-fifth year of his life. Among the apoplectics we have such notable characters as Dickens, Thackeray and Napoleon I. History furnishes abundant evidence of the frequency of affections of the mind among the magnates. Bishop Warburton, John George Zimmerman,

Dr. Johnson, James V., of Scotland, King Henry, of England, Queen Elizabeth, Frederick II., of Prussia, were all the victims of melancholia; Queen Francisca, of Portugal, George III., of England, Tasso, Pascal, William Collier, Cowper, Charles XII., and Dr. Johnson were subject to attacks of insanity. Of the three disputed discoverers of modern anæsthesia, Wells died of insanity, Morton from a stroke of apoplexy, while Jackson is hopelessly insane. Dr. Adam Clarke died of cholera; Oliver Cromwell of ague; Robert Duke of starvation; Sir Humphrey Davy, as a result of injuries to an elbow; Alexander the Great of malarial fever; Augustus II. of gangrene of an old wound; Camillus of a plague; Chaucer of old age; Queen Mary of small-pox; John Racine of abscess of the liver; Napoleon counter, half an hour, to see what was III. died of embolism; Prince William, of England, and Shelley were both drowned; Thomas Chatterton and the wife of Shelley committed suicide; Lord Byron fell a victim of remittent fever; and conditions of men two hundred beers, John Keats, Edward II. and Lænned were destroyed by phthisis pulmonalis; John Locke was a sufferer with asthma; Burns shortened his days by his excesses; Southey and Swift died demented; Jeremy Taylor died of some fever; ticed in the next half hour, and made a John Bunyan died in 1688, in London, memorandum to guard against mistakes, it is said, in consequence of a cold caught in a journey undertaken by him in inclement weather, with the object of reconciling a father and son; Thomas Otway, perhaps choked. His death has been frequently cited as a striking in-stance of the miseries of a literary caquota, some do business in the swamp, reer. It is related that, when almost starving, the poet receiving a guinea from a friend, on which he rushed off to a baker shop, bought a roll, and was choked while ravenously devouring the first mouthful. Louisa, daughter of George III., when Queen of Denmark, died in an operation for hernia, at the early age of twenty-six. Queen Caro-line, her mother, also died of hernia, is placed at one side of the room I de-voted half an hour to a close count of Ronby; and Caroline, of Brunswick, wife the drinks and drinkers. of George IV., fell a victim to strangu-

One company of six young men drank death was cedema of the glottis rather six times in less than fifteen minutes, than croup, as is often stated. - Medical Great reduction in price for 1878 of Gleason's Pictorial to #2 a year. Single copies five cents. The Home Circle to $2 a year, single copies five cents, for sale by all newsdealers.

Gleason's Monthly Companion to $1 a year, single copies ten cents. All postage free. The price of chromos has just been greatly reduced. No one now gives such liberal terms to agents as we do. Send for new free circular. Address F. Gleason & Co., 738 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

Burnett's Coconine

Promotes the growth of and beautifies the Hair, and renders it dark and glossy. The Cocosine holds, in a liquid form, a large proportion of deodorized Cocoanut Oil, prepared expressly for this purpose. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which plexy, and died after a few days' ill- so exactly suit the various conditions of the Rheumatism Qu'ckly Cared. "Durang's Rheumatic Remedy,' the great internal medicine, will positively cure any case of rheumatism on the face of the earth. Price, $1 a bottle, six bottles, $5. Sold by all druggists." Send for circular to Helphenstine & Bentley, druggists, Washington, D. C.

CHEW The Celebrated "MATCHLESS" Wood Tag Plug TOBACCO. THE PIONEER TOBACCO COMPANY, New York, Boston, and Chicago.

COMF

SES AI

The elegant company from Duff's Broad-way Theater, New York city, are playing to a succession of crowded houses in New York State and Canada. In the hands of this talented organization the play of Pink Domi-noes has made a decided hit, and is spoken of as a masterly performance.

Are You Costive ? If so, be careful of disease. Avoid it by tak-ing Quirk's Irish Tea. Price 25 cents.

Given Awny. - A superb pair of 6x8 Chromos, worthy to frame and adorn any home, and a Three Months' subscription to LEISURE HOURS, a charming 16 page liter or paper, full of the Choicest Stories, Poetry, etc., Sent Free to all sending Fifteen Cents (stamps taken) to pay postage. The publishers, J. L. Patten & Co., 1652 William St., N. Y., Guarantee every one Double Value of money sent. $1500 in prizes, and big pay given to agents. Write at once.

The Markets. NEW TOBY.

••	NEW TORY.
ed	Beef Cattle-Native
r;	Mileh Cows
c	Dressed 07% 07%
3;	Sheep
1;	Cotton_Widdling
-1	Flour-Western-Good to Choice 5 40 @ 5 50
t-	Br chate per cwt 235 @ 270
r;	Wheat-Red Western
1,	Rya_State
đ	Barlay_State
a	Barley Malt
of	Dats_Mixed Western
8	Corn-Mired Western 07% 0 09
18	Hay, per cwt
1-	Tonn 76's_02 (404
2-	Pork-Mess
st	Fish_Mackerel, No. 1, new
a	"No. 2, new11 00 @11 50 Dry Cod, per cwt
0	Harring Scaled, per box 15 @ 17
18	Petroleum_Crude
e	Wool-California Fiscori 1 85 @ 40
of	Lustralian " 44 @ 49
•	State XX
e	Western Choice 20 @ 21
)-	Western-Good to Prime, 20 @ 25 Western-Firkins
5	Cheere State Factory 13 @ 18
d	State Skimmed 10 @ 11
e	Western
1-	BUFFALO.

Mr. James Slater. He called to mind that Mr. Stuart had had no dinner, and six. He found Mr. Stuart greatly agihead. She was entirely unconscious.

and her hair was arranged just as it was the bed was a four onnce phial containing laudanum. The front part of the bed showed that Mrs, Stuart had been were found two letters. Her husband says that when he returned at five o'clock 'he found his wife lying on the edge of the bed, and as he supposed asleep. He did not disturb her, but lay down on the lounge in the parlor. In gry called for sandwiches. He noticed tle before six o'clock in the morning. Then he called his wife's name; but as she did not answer he became alarmed.

tered something inaudible.

ng to the house. mother's got enough of it."

Water for the Eyes.

Almost a Dive to Death.

who resides in Shell Rock, is a remarkaether, chloroform, turpentine, benzine. kerosene, or prussic acid will, if she inhale it, throw her into violent convulsions. So sensitive is she to the effect

