Use "Gets-It," Lift
Corn Right Off!

Shrivels, Loosens—and It's Gone!
"Just like taking the lid off—that's how easy you can lift a corn off your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, "Gets-It." Hunt the wide world over and you'll find nothing so magic, simple and easy as "Gets-It." You folks who have wrapped your toes in bandages to look like bundles, who have used salves that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would shift from their place and never "get" the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors, and perhaps made them bleed—just quit these old and painful ways and try "Gets-It" just once. You put 2 of 3 drops on, and it dries at once.

There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again. The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, scurrying death, it loosens from your toe, and off it comes. "Gets-It" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today. There's none other as good.
"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c. a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Sold in Lexington and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Harmon Drug Co.

GOOD APPEARANCE HELPS THE FARMER-SALESMAN.

Don't forget that the farmer in marketing his crops is a salesman as surely as the traveling man" of commerce. The drummer must create a good impression because he is the merchants' visualization of the company he represents. If the salesman appears frank, honest, efficient and progressive, the merchant assumes that he reflects the spirit of his concern.

And these things apply to the farmer-marketer just as surely. When he offers his butter, milk, or sausage to the city man, the would-be buyer by looking at the farmer sees either a sanitary or an unsanitary dairy house a herd of well kept or a herd of neglected cows, a clear or a dirty pig pen, etc. That is to say, the representative of the farmer creates for it an impression either good or bad.

The farmer should take pains therefore to see that the person who represents his farm make a good impression. If the farmer does his own marketing, care should be taken to present a clean and wholesome appearance; and if the marketing is done by hired help, the matter of the hired man's appearance deserves just as much attention. "I quit taking milk from Mr. So-and-s" said a city friend today, "because the Negro he sent with it was so dirty."

We do not mean that the farmer should dress expensively, but we do mean that in going to market he should wear a clean suit, shirt and collar, a neat tie, have his shoes clean at least, and shined impracticable, and be cleanly shaved. The suit he wears may be of some dark color that will not show dirt easily and if not pressed, it may at least be kept thoroughly brushed.—Progressive Farmer out it." When you get FOLEY'S, you

FOUR U-BOATS BAGGED?

London, July 16.—Four of the largest and most modern German submarines were destroyed by American warships which were conveying the first instalment of American troops to France, according to a report from German sources as contained in a Berne dispatch to a Rome news agency and forwarded from Rome by the Central News.
If Lexington farmers make good crops this year—and they will if rains come in time—there ought to be some sort of prosperity smiling about in spots this fall.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh
