

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Kendall, of Columbia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Harmon.

The Bonheur Club will meet with Messdames S. J. and C. E. Leaphart, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

John S. Schneider and friend, J. G. Allen, of the University of South Carolina spent the week end in Lexington.

If you are in arrears for the Dispatch-News, please call or send and settle. After first of January 1918 the price will be one dollar and fifty cents per annum.

Some of the finest pecans in the world are grown right here in Lexington County, which is but another evidence of the fact that Lexington is the garden spot of the world.

Everett Schneider, a student at the University of South Carolina, came home yesterday from the Baptist hospital where he was operated on for tonsillitis.

Mr. Andrew L. Bedenbaugh, one of the most successful farmers of the Hollow Creek section, is in attendance upon court as a juror this week. Andrew is a clever fellow and he has many friends here who are all ways glad to see him.

The Honorable Coleman Livingston Blease, former governor and said to be a candidate for the United States Senate on the Reform party platform, is in attendance upon court. Mr. Blease, has many warm personal and political admirers in Lexington who are always glad to see the light of his benign countenance and grasp his friendly hand.

Wanted—A good School teacher, at once. Write or phone through central at Pond Branch to.
